Editorial Cartoons By Kids 1991 Gulf War:

Editorial Cartoon Awards 1922-1997 Heinz-D. Fischer, 2011-04-20 The School of Journalism at Columbia University has awarded the Pulitzer Prize since 1917 Nowadays there are prizes in 21 categories from the fields of journalism literature and music The Pulitzer Prize Archive presents the history of this award from its beginnings to the present In parts A to E the awarding of the prize in each category is documented commented and arranged chronologically Part F covers the history of the prize biographically and bibliographically Part G provides the background to the decisions Propaganda & Persuasion Garth S. Jowett, Victoria O'Donnell, 2014-03-12 Propaganda and Persuasion Fourth Edition is the only book of its kind to cover a comprehensive history of propaganda and offer insightful definitions and methods to analyze it Building on the excellence of the three previous editions the Fourth Edition has been revised updated and expanded Authors Garth S Jowett and Victoria O'Donnell provide a cogent understanding of persuasion and propaganda including rhetorical background cultural studies and collective memory Jacket Bring 'Em On Lee Artz, Yahya R. Kamalipour, 2004-12-10 How were the American people prepared for the war on Iraq How have political agents and media gatekeepers sought to develop public support for the first preventive war of the modern age Bring Em On highlights the complex links between media and politics analyzing how communication practices are modified in times of crisis to protect political interests or implement political goals International contributors in mass communication political science and sociology address how U S institutional media practices government policy and culture can influence public mobilization for war School Library Journal, 1992 Children and Media Dafna Lemish, 2015-02-23 Taking a global and interdisciplinary approach Children and Media explores the role of modern media including the internet television mobile media and video games in the development of children adolescents and childhood Primer to global issues and core research into children and the media integrating work from around the world Comprehensive integration of work that bridges disciplines theoretical and research traditions and methods Covers both critical qualitative and quantitative approaches to the topic Drawn to Extremes Chris Lamb, 2004 In 2006 a cartoon in a Danish newspaper depicted the Prophet Mohammed wearing a bomb in his turban The cartoon created an international incident with offended Muslims attacking Danish embassies and threatening the life of the cartoonist Editorial cartoons have been called the most extreme form of criticism society will allow but not all cartoons are tolerated Unrestricted by journalistic standards of objectivity editorial cartoonists wield ire and irony to reveal the naked truths about presidents celebrities business leaders and other public figures Indeed since the founding of the republic cartoonists have made important contributions to and offered critical commentary on our society Today however many syndicated cartoons are relatively generic and gag related reflecting a weakening of the newspaper industry's traditional watchdog function Chris Lamb offers a richly illustrated and engaging history of a still vibrant medium that forces us to take a look at ourselves for what we are and not what we want to be The 150 drawings in Drawn to Extremes have left readers howling sometimes in laughter but often in protest The Wimp Factor Stephen Ducat,2005-09-07 In this landmark exploration of how male anxiety has come to define our political culture Stephen J Ducat shows the link between the desperate macho strutting of male politicians the gender gap in voting behavior and fundamentalist holy wars He argues that a direct association exists between the magnitude of a man's femiphobia that is his terror of being perceived as feminine and his tendency to embrace right wing political opinions From the strenuous efforts by handlers to counter George H W Bush's wimp factor to the swaggering arrogance that led to the moral and military quagmire in U S occupied Iraq anxious masculinity has been a discernible subtext in politics Ducat shows how this anxiety has been an underlying force in public life throughout the history of Western culture and also explores why and how certain political issues get gendered Analyzing various aspects of popular culture and drawing on pioneering research on the gender gap The Wimp Factor is a fascinating exposé that will alter our understanding of contemporary politics Communication Yearbook 24 William Gudykunst,2012-03-22 The Communication Yearbook annuals publish diverse state of the discipline literature reviews that advance knowledge and understanding of communication systems processes and impacts across the discipline Sponsored by the International Communication Association each volume provides a forum for the exchange of interdisciplinary and internationally diverse scholarship relating to communication in its many forms This volume reissues the yearbook from 2001 Rethinking Geopolitics Simon Dalby,Gearoid O'u Tuathail,2002-01-22 Rethinking Geopolitics argues that the concept of geopolitics needs to be conceptualised anew as the twenty first century approaches Challenging conventional geopolitical assumptions contributors explore theories of post modern geopolitics historical formulations of states and cold wars the geopolitics of the Holocaust the gendered dimension of Kurdish insurgency the cold war world political cartoons concerning Bosnia Time magazine representations of the Persian Gulf the Zapatistas and the Chiapas revolt the new cyber politics conflict simulations in the US military the emergence of a new geopolitics of global security Exploring how popular cultural assumptions about geography and politics constitute the discourses of contemporary violence and political economy Rethinking Geopolitics shows that we must rethink the struggle for knowledge space and power The Comic Art of War Christina M. Knopf,2015-08-13 For military cartoonists the absurdity of war inspires a laugh or cry response and provides an endless source of un-funny amusement Cartoons by hundreds of artists at arms from more than a dozen countries and spanning two centuries are included in this study the first to consider such a broad range of military comics War and military life are examined through the inside jokes of the men and women who served The author analyzes themes of culture hierarchy enemies and allies geography sexuality combat and civilian relations and describes how comics function within a community A number of artists included were known for their work with Disney Marvel Comics the New Yorker and Madison Avenue but many lesser known artists are recognized The Corn Wolf Michael Taussig,2015-12-02 Collecting a decade of work from iconic anthropologist and writer Michael Taussig The Corn Wolf pinpoints a moment of intellectual development for the master stylist exemplifying the nervous system approach to writing and truth that has characterized his trajectory Pressured by the permanent state of emergency that imbues our times this approach marries storytelling with theory thickening spiraling analysis with ethnography and putting the study of so called primitive societies back on the anthropological agenda as a way of better understanding the sacred in everyday life The leading figure of these projects is the corn wolf whom Wittgenstein used in his fierce polemic on Frazer s Golden Bough For just as the corn wolf slips through the magic of language in fields of danger and disaster so we are emboldened to take on the widespread culture of academic or what he deems agribusiness writing which strips ethnography from its capacity to surprise and connect with other worlds whether peasant farmers in Colombia Palestinians in Israel protestors in Zuccotti Park or eccentric yet fundamental aspects of our condition such as animism humming or the acceleration of time A glance at the chapter titles such as The Stories Things Tell or Iconoclasm Dictionary along with his zany drawings testifies to the resonant sensibility of these works which lope like the corn wolf through the boundaries of writing and understanding The Christian Science Monitor Index ,1998

Propaganda and Persuasion Garth Jowett,Victoria O'Donnell,2006 Propaganda and Persuasion Fourth Edition is the only book of its kind to cover a comprehensive history of propaganda and offer insightful definitions and methods to analyze it Building on the excellence of the three previous editions the Fourth Edition has been revised updated and expanded Authors Garth S Jowett and Victoria O Donnell provide a remarkable and cogent understanding of persuasion and propaganda including rhetorical background cultural studies and collective memory Pen in Hand Tim Parks,2019-04-26 How can other people like the books we don t like What benefit can we get from rereading a work Can we read better If so how These and many other questions ranging from the field of writing to that of reading and translation are given a comprehensive answer in a series of stimulating and challenging literary essays that will be a perfect read for all book explorers and practitioners of the pen After delighting us with his novels and many volumes of non fiction Tim Parks who is not only an acclaimed author and a translator but also a celebrated literary essayist gives us a book to enjoy savour and most importantly reread Writing and Literacy in Chinese, Korean and Japanese Insup Taylor,M. Martin Taylor,2014-12-15 The book describes how the three East Asian writing systems Chinese Korean and Japanese originated developed and are used today Uniquely this book 1 examines the three East Asian scripts and English together in relation to each other and 2 discusses how these scripts are and historically have been used in literacy and how they are learned written read and processed by the eyes the brain and the mind In this second edition the authors have included recent research findings on the uses of the scripts added several new sections and rewritten several other sections They have also added a new Part IV to deal with issues that similarly involve all the four languages scripts of their interest The book is intended both for the general public and for interested scholars Technical terms listed in a glossary are used only when absolutely necessary

Media Technologies Tarleton Gillespie, Pablo J. Boczkowski, Kirsten A. Foot, 2014-01-17 Scholars from communication and media studies join those from science and technology studies to examine media technologies as complex sociomaterial phenomena In recent years scholarship around media technologies has finally shed the assumption that these technologies are separate from and powerfully determining of social life looking at them instead as produced by and embedded in distinct social cultural and political practices Communication and media scholars have increasingly taken theoretical perspectives originating in science and technology studies STS while some STS scholars interested in information technologies have linked their research to media studies inquiries into the symbolic dimensions of these tools In this volume scholars from both fields come together to advance this view of media technologies as complex sociomaterial phenomena The contributors first address the relationship between materiality and mediation considering such topics as the lived realities of network infrastructure The contributors then highlight media technologies as always in motion held together through the minute unobserved work of many including efforts to keep these technologies alive Contributors Pablo J Boczkowski Geoffrey C Bowker Finn Brunton Gabriella Coleman Gregory J Downey Kirsten A Foot Tarleton Gillespie Steven J Jackson Christopher M Kelty Leah A Lievrouw Sonia Livingstone Ignacio Siles Jonathan Sterne Lucy Suchman Fred Turner
