Edmond Jabes And The Hazard Of Exile Legenda:

Edmond Jabes and the Hazard of Exile Steven Jaron, 2017-12-02 For a man who no longer has a homeland writing becomes a place to live Theodor Adorno The Jewish writer Edmond Jabes born in Cairo in 1912 wrote explicitly from the perspective of exile once he arrived in France after the Suez crisis However Jaron argues exile was a predominant theme even before Jabes left Egypt He brings to light the author's associations with other francophone writers in Egypt especially those affiliated with the Surrealists but shows that metropolitan France exerted a greater pull Drawing on unpublished archival and rare printed sources Jaron examines how Jabes opposed anti-Semitism during the 1930s and later placed the Shoah at the heart of his acclaimed Livres des Questions 1963 73 Exile, Non-Belonging and Statelessness in Grangaud, Jabès, Lubin and Luca Greg Kerr, 2021-06-07 At least since the Romantic era poetry has often been understood as a powerful vector of collective belonging The idea that certain poets are emblematic of a national culture is one of the chief means by which literature historicizes itself inscribes itself in a shared cultural past and supplies modes of belonging to those who consume it But what then of the exiled migrant or translingual poet How might writing in a language other than one's mother tongue complicate this picture of the relation between poet language and literary system What of those for whom the practice of poetry is inseparable from a sense of restlessness or unease suggesting a condition of not being at home in any one language even that of their mother tongue These questions are crucial for four French language poets whose work is the focus of this study Armen Lubin 1903 74 Ghassam Kadi 1913 94 Edmond Jabès 1912 91 and Michelle Grangaud 1941 Ranging across borders within and beyond the Francosphere from Algeria to Armenia to Egypt to Romania this book shows how a poetic practice inflected by exile statelessness or non belonging has the potential to disrupt long held assumptions of the relation between subjects the language they use and the place from which they speak Language and Negativity in European Modernism Shane Weller, 2019 Proposes that a distinct strain of literary modernism emerged in Europe in response to historical catastrophe On the Destruction and Death Drives Andre Green, 2023-06-29 Living with the idea of bearing a death force fundamentally directed at oneself is hardly easy to admit It is less so in any case than the idea that we are all murderers that we are ever ready to plead legitimate defence or the need to survive so as to strike out at another Andre Green from the Foreword What drives men to kill and self destruct On the Death and Destruction Drives traces the introduction and development of the controversial concept of the death drive from the work of Freud 1920 1938 to the main contributions of classical and post Freudian authors including Ferenczi Klein Bion Winnicott and Lacan Shedding light on non neurotic phenomena and structures such as anorexia bulimia depression suicide criminal behaviour Andre Green offers a new perspective on the relationship between the life drive Eros and the death drive Thanatos Andre Green was a key figure in contemporary psychoanalysis who embraced philosophy and an international outlook to enhance psychoanalytic theory This book was one of his last works originally published in French as Pourquoi les pulsions de destruction ou de mort in 2012

Green's defence of one of Freud's most daring revisions of his drive theory remains relevant to psychoanalytic work today and it is an honour to bring this excellent translation to the English speaking world To enhance its worth the book includes an introduction from translator Steven Jaron to clarify certain technical terms and situate the book within Green's oeuvre This book is an important contribution to the development of psychoanalytic theory and essential reading for all trainee and practising psychoanalysts Francophone Cultures and Geographies of Identity Zsuzsanna Fagyal, H Adlai

Murdoch, 2014-07-03 This collection of original essays challenges French centered conceptions of francophonie as the shaping force of the production and study of the French language literature culture film and art both inside and outside mainland France The traditional view of francophone cultural productions as offshoots of their hexagonal avatar is replaced by a pluricentric conception that reads interrelated aspects of francophonie as products of specific contexts conditions and local ecologies that emerged from post colonial encounters with France and other colonizing powers The twenty one papers grouped into six thematic parts focus on distinctive literary linguistic musical cinematographic and visual forms of expression in geographical areas long defined as the peripheries of the French speaking world the Caribbean the Indian Ocean the Maghreb sub Saharan Africa Quebec and hexagonal cities with a preponderance of immigrant populations These contested sites of French collective identity offer a rich formulation of distinctly local francophone identities that do not fit in with concepts of linguistic and ethnic exclusiveness but are consistent with a pluralistic demographic shift and the true face of Frenchness that is indeed plural Derrida's 'Writing and Difference' Sarah Wood, 2009-05-08 Writing and Difference is one of Jacques Derrida's most widely read and studied books In a collection of essays that engage with literature history poetry dramaturgy psychoanalysis ethnology and structuralism Derrida demonstrates how philosophy and literature might be read and revolutionizes our understanding of writing difference and life itself This introduction is the ideal companion to an unprecedented and influential group of texts On the Mediterranean and the Nile Aimée Israel-Pelletier, 2018-03-12

Aimée Israel Pelletier examines the lives of Middle Eastern Jews living in Islamic societies in this political and cultural history of the Jews of Egypt By looking at the work of five Egyptian Jewish writers Israel Pelletier confronts issues of identity exile language immigration Arab nationalism European colonialism and discourse on the Holocaust She illustrates that the Jews of Egypt were a fluid community connected by deep roots to the Mediterranean and the Nile They had an unshakable sense of being Egyptian until the country turned toward the Arab East With Israel Pelletier's deft handling Jewish Egyptian writing offers an insider's view in the unique character of Egyptian Jewry and the Jewish presence across the Mediterranean region and North Africa George Oppen and the Fate of Modernism Peter Nicholls, 2007-10-25

Regard for George Oppen's poetry has been growing steadily over the last decade Peter Nicholls's study offers a timely opportunity to engage with a body of work which can be both luminously simple and intriguingly opaque Nicholls charts Oppen's commitment to Marxism and his later explorations of a poetics of being inspired by Heidegger and Existentialism providing detailed accounts of each of the poet's books. He is the first critic to draw extensively on the Oppen archive with its thousands of pages of largely unpublished notes and drafts for poems. In doing so, he is able to map the distinctive contours of Oppen's poetic thinking and to investigate the complex origins of many of his poems. Oppen emerges from this study as a writer of mercurial intensities for whom every poem constitutes a beginning again, a freeing of the mind from thoughts known in advance. A strikingly innovative and challenging poetics results from Oppen's attempt to avoid what he regards as the errors of the modernist avant-garde and to create instead a designedly impoverished aesthetic which keeps poetry close to the grain of experience and to the political and ethical dilemmas it constantly poses. Yale French Studies, Number 137/138 Thomas C.

Connolly, 2021-02-23 Number 137-138 in Yale French Studies this collection of essays examines poetry in French by authors from across the Maghreb. Although in recent years Maghrebi literature written in French has enjoyed increased critical attention, less attention has been paid specifically to the genre of poetry. The sixteen essays collected in this special issue of Yale French Studies show how the poem provides a uniquely privileged perspective from which to examine questions relating to aesthetics, linguistics, philosophy, history, autobiography, gender, the visual arts, colonial and postcolonial society and politics, and issues relating to the post-Arab Spring. Reinventing Community Jane Hiddleston, 2005. A cultural study of identity and difference in contemporary French writing. Psychoanalysis and Covidian Life Howard B. Levine, Ana Staal, 2021-03-29

Showcasing a diverse range of contributions from psychoanalysts of many different countries and theoretical orientations. Psychoanalysis and Covidian Life a collective work edited by Howard B. Levine and Ana de Staal offers readers the opportunity to explore and reflect upon the ways in which the Covid-19 pandemic has begun to influence analytical practice. From the changes imposed on the framework of online sessions to the impact of the trauma of isolation and the disruption of our social anchoring required by confinement and health protection gestures to the challenge presented to the ordinary denial of mortality, this book explores the lessons of what the pandemic can teach us about how to understand and treat collective distress individually and puts psychoanalytical tools to the test of the profound psychosocial upheavals that the twenty-first century may hold in store. This book will be of interest to practising and trainee clinicians and anyone with an interest in the all-consuming effects of a global pandemic. Contributions from Christopher Bollas, Patricia Cardoso de Mello, Bernard Chervet, Joshua Durban, Antonino Ferro, Serge Frisch, Steven Jaron, Daniel Kupermann, Howard Levine, Francois Levy, Riccardo Lombardi, Elias Alberto Rocha Barros, Michael Rustin, Ana de Staal and Jean Jacques Tyszler. Space in
