Making Sense of Mass Education Gordon Tait, Nerida Spina, Jenna Gillett-Swan, Peter O'Brien, 2023-01-10 Making Sense of Mass Education provides a contemporary analysis of the ideas and issues that have traditionally dominated education research challenging outdated preconceptions with fundamental theory and discussion It takes a demythologising approach in assessing these issues and their relevance to schooling and education in Australia This text examines the cultural context of education and the influence of external media and new technologies and highlights the many forms of discrimination in education including social class race and gender It looks at alternative approaches to education including the repercussions of gathering data to measure school performance and considers the intersection of ethics and philosophy in classroom teaching The fourth edition expands on these issues with three new chapters on sexuality children's rights and neoliberalism and the marketisation of education Each chapter challenges and breaks down common myths surrounding these topics encouraging pre service teachers to think critically and reflect on their own beliefs Transformational

Learning in Social Work and Human Services Education Mudd, Helen Katherine, Mudd-Fegett, Kimberly Nicole, 2024-07-26 A critical challenge has emerged how to make sense of life experiences in the realm of learning This conundrum is particularly pronounced in the domains of social work and human services education The call for a paradigm shift is urgent as the theory of transformational learning contends that hands on experiences are paramount in the educational landscape Experiential learning stands as a powerful proven approach that elevates education by fostering student reflection critical thinking service engagement and problem solving However the realization of a high quality experiential or service learning experience necessitates meticulous planning and intention It is this critical need that Transformational Learning in Social Work and Human Services Education seeks to address providing a comprehensive Experiential Learning Guide filled with pre planning logistics resources and evaluation tools essential for crafting impactful experiential learning events Designed for the discerning academic scholar this book beckons educators and administrators passionate about transformational experiential and service learning Its scope reaches beyond disciplines offering practical insights for integrating experiential learning into any course Social Work Human Service and Non Profit Administrators will find invaluable guidance on employing transformational leadership to fortify their programs The book delves into transformative theory leadership methodologies models for experiential and transformational learning and the nuts and bolts of designing immersive courses From global experiential learning with a social justice lens to fostering partnerships for community restoration the book navigates a vast sea of topics leaving no stone unturned in the quest for educational excellence Step into the realm of academic transformation and unlock the full potential of experiential learning American Monthly Review of Reviews, 1893 Trans Rights and Wrongs Isabel C. Jaramillo, Laura Carlson, 2021-06-23 This book maps various national legal responses to gender mobility including sex and name registration access to gender modification interventions and anti discrimination protection or lack thereof and regulations The importance of the underlying legislation and history is underlined in order to understand the law s functions concerning discrimination exclusion and violence as well as the problematic nature of introducing biology into the regulation of human relations and using it to justify pain and suffering The respective chapters also highlight how various governmental authorities as well as civil society have been integral in fostering or impeding the welfare of trans persons from judges and legislators to medical commissions and law students A collective effort of scholars scattered around the globe this book recognizes the international trend toward self determination in sex classification and a generous guarantee of rights for individuals expressing diverse gender identities The book advocates the dissemination of a model for the protection of rights that not only focuses on formal equality but also addresses the administrative obstacles that trans persons face in their daily lives In addition it underscores the importance of courts in either advancing or obstructing the realization of individual rights

Security, Education and Development in Contemporary Africa M. Raymond Izarali,Oliver Masakure,Edward Shizha,2016-12-01 This volume delineates the critical link among security education and development in Africa and provides a multidisciplinary framework of analyses and possible solutions Africa has had a long history that embodies layers of mass scale criminality and exploitation not merely from neocolonial and apartheid policies but also from political greed This has impacted adversely on security education and development in a way that deprivation of education and underdevelopment in turn re creates security issues The volume aims firstly to help augment scholarly inquiry into the nexus among in security education and development through the multidisciplinary framework of analyses secondly to provide policymakers and educators with tools and a framework to comprehend the complexity and magnitude of the issues to which they ought to be sensitive and respond and finally to provide caregivers and childcare agencies of the state a comprehensible framework of underlying multifaceted sources of trauma experienced by children in extraordinary circumstances It is organized in four sections theoretical conceptualization on security and development country cases on security and development security and educational development and country cases on security and education Serving as a significant compass to understand and respond to the complex interplay and impact of security education and development in Africa it is of great use to graduates and scholars interested in Africa Politics IPE security studies and development studies Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law Charles J. Russo,2013-07-11 The Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law addresses legal issues from institutions of higher learning in seventeen countries on all six inhabited continents in a reader friendly manner All chapters follow the same outline on institutional issues faculty rights student rights and emerging issues so that similarities and differences can be compared An introductory chapter provides an overview on the legal status of higher education as selected in various international covenants In addition a concluding chapter draws the themes addressed throughout the book together and centers on the concept of best practice management This book serves as valuable resource for educational practitioners in higher education insofar as it provides them with an enhanced awareness of strategies that are being used to manage problems commonly faced in multiple educational settings The Law, Policy and Politics of the UN Human Rights Council Bertrand G. Ramcharan,2015-05-19 The UN Human Rights Council is the leading human rights organ of the United Nations and ten years after it was established it has attracted commendation as well as severe criticism Its universal periodic review is widely recognized as a valuable process of international cooperation to advance the universal implementation of human rights However it has been criticized for not acting effectively and fairly in dealing with situations of shocking violations of human rights in many parts of the world It is an international organ with the highest responsibilities to uphold universal values but at the same time it is a political organ of United Nations Member States and it shows the characteristics of both a values based body and a theatre of political drama It is the merit of this book to present the Human Rights Council in terms of its mandates roles and organization while seeking to remind the membership and the international community at large that the Council must be anchored in the modern human rights law of the Charter of which the author gives a superb presentation The book then proceeds to make the case that human rights are part of international constitutional law and this is exceedingly important at a time when universal values have come under stress from various quarters including from terrorist formations The argument of the book is essentially that the modern human rights law of the Charter and the human rights provisions of international constitutional law must take precedence for everyone everywhere The Teaching Profession A. Reis Monteiro,2014-11-03 This volume contributes to debates about the teaching profession by reviewing international and national reports on its status as well as on reforms of various education systems It proposes a global approach to the quality of the teaching profession as a decisive ingredient of education quality including a conception of its identity and a vision of its future Moreover it is suggested that professional self regulation may be the best way to achieve higher professional and social status for teachers since it allows educators collectively to assume the culture of the values that comprise the
