Educating Zion John Woodland Welch, Don E. Norton, 1996-01-01      Educating the Empire Sarah Steinbock-Pratt, 2019-05-02 Examines the contested process of colonial education in the Philippines in the aftermath of the Spanish American War      Designing and Teaching the Secondary Science Methods Course Aaron J. Sickel, Stephen B. Witzig, 2017-04-13 The improvement of science education is a common goal worldwide Countries not only seek to increase the number of individuals pursuing careers in science but to improve scientific literacy among the general population As the teacher is one of the greatest influences on student learning a focus on the preparation of science teachers is essential in achieving these outcomes A critical component of science teacher education is the methods course where pedagogy and content coalesce It is here that future science teachers begin to focus simultaneously on the knowledge dispositions and skills for teaching secondary science in meaningful and effective ways This book provides a comparison of secondary science methods courses from teacher education programs all over the world Each chapter provides detailed descriptions of the national context course design teaching strategies and assessments used within a particular science methods course and is written by teacher educators who actively research science teacher education The final chapter provides a synthesis of common themes and unique features across contexts and offers directions for future research on science methods courses This book offers a unique combination of behind the scenes thinking for secondary science methods course designs along with practical teaching and assessment strategies and will be a useful resource for teacher educators in a variety of international contexts      Empowering 21st Century Learners Through Holistic and Enterprising Learning Geok Bee Teh, Siew Chee Choy, 2017-04-08 This book consists of a collection of selected papers presented at the TARC International Conference 2016 held from 17 to 18 October 2016 It offers a tool for empowering schools and teachers as a way forward for transforming education      Illinois Journal of Education , 1910      Conversation Analysis and Early Childhood Education Amanda Bateman, 2016-03-03 This book provides insight into the everyday activities co produced by teachers and young children demonstrating the fine details of teaching and learning as knowledge is shared through the everyday activities of talk in interaction Adopting an ethnomethodological perspective together with conversation analysis and membership categorisation analysis it reveals how teaching and learning are jointly accomplished during activities such as pretend play episodes during disputes managing illness and talking about the environment Through in depth studies of child teacher interactions the book explores the means by which knowledge is transferred and episodes of teaching and learning are co constructed by participants shedding light on the co production of social order the communication of knowledge and manner in which professional and relational identities are made relevant in interaction As such Conversation Analysis and Early Childhood Education will be of interest not only to scholars of ethnomethodology and conversation analysis but also to those working in the areas of early childhood studies and pedagogy      Religious Education , 1912 Available on microfilm from
