Radicals, Secularists, and Republicans Edward Royle,1980 Ideas of Education Christopher Brooke,Elizabeth Frazer,2013-07-18 There has always been a strong relationship between education and philosophy especially political philosophy Renewed concern about the importance and efficacy of political education has revived key questions about the connections between the power to govern and the power to educate Although these themes are not always prominent in commentaries political writings have often been very deeply concerned with both educational theory and practice This invaluable book will introduce the reader to key concepts and disputes surrounding educational themes in the history of political thought The book draws together a fascinating range of educational pioneers and thinkers from the canon of philosophers and philosophical schools from Plato and Aristotle down to Edward Carpenter and John Dewey with attention along the way paid to both individual authors like Thomas Hobbes and Mary Wollstonecraft as well as to intellectual movements such as the Scottish Enlightenment and the Utopian Socialists Each thinker or group is positioned in their historical context and each chapter addresses the structure of the theory and argument considering both contemporaneous and current controversies A number of themes run throughout the volume an analysis of pedagogy socialisation schooling and university education with particular relation to public and private life and personal and political power references to the historical and intellectual context an overview of the current reception understanding and interpretation of the thinker in question the educational legacy of the theories or theorists This book will be of interest to students researchers and scholars of education as well as students and teachers of political theory the history of political thought and social and political philosophy

Women, Nationalism, and Social Networks in the Habsburg Monarchy, 1848-1918 Marta Verginella, 2023-12-15 Women Nationalism and Social Networks in the Habsburg Monarchy 1848 1918 focuses on the lives of women in Southeastern Europe during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries exploring the intersection of gender and nationalism By looking at a wide range of sources and employing rich historiography this collection investigates the currents of women s emancipatory efforts in a climate of conflicting assumptions relating to nationhood and nationalization This book sheds light on a time when both women and nations were working to assert themselves and how women promoted the national cause in an attempt to assume stronger roles in the public sphere The volume studies areas that were nationally mixed and linguistically plural thus pointing to the dynamic role of peripheries and pluralism affecting women s approaches to and experience of nationalization These essays speak to women s agency as individuals and members of the social networks and their roles in cultural ethnic and political movements in pluralistic societies of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries thereby arguing that they enacted borders and were not simply acted on by them while also elucidating the ways they transgress the borders

A Genealogy of Islamic Feminism Etin Anwar, 2018-03-28 A Genealogy of Islamic Feminism offers a new insight on the changing relationship between Islam and feminism from the colonial era in the 1900s to the early 1990s in Indonesia The book juxtaposes both colonial and postcolonial sites to show the changes and the patterns of the encounters between Islam and feminism within the global and local nexus Global forces include Dutch colonialism developmentalism transnational feminism and the United Nations institutional bodies and their conferences Local factors are comprised of women s movements adat customs nationalism the politics underlying the imposition of Pancasila ideology and maternal virtues and variations of Islamic revivalism Using a genealogical approach the book examines the multifaceted encounters between Islam and feminism and attempts to rediscover egalitarianism in the Islamic tradition a concept which has been subjugated by hierarchical gender systems The book also systematizes Muslim women's encounters with Islam and feminism into five phases: emancipation, association, development, integration, and proliferation eras. Each era discusses the confluence of global and local factors which shape the changing relationship between Islam and feminism and the way in which the discursive narrative of equality is debated and contextualized, progressing from biological determinism to the ethico-spiritual argument. Islamic feminism contributes to the rediscovery of Islam as the source of progress, the centering of women's agency through spiritual equality and the reworking of the private and public spheres. This book will appeal to anyone with interest in international women's movements, interdisciplinary studies, cultural studies, women's studies, post-colonial studies, Islamic studies, and Asian studies.
