Lucey,James D.

Laney,2012-06-01 Scholarship related to financial and consumer education largely concerns itself with the acquisition management and growth of financial resources In a global setting that witnesses increasing competition for natural resources along with diminishing appreciation for human rights a challenge for financial and consumer educators involves developing foundation for bettering individual wealth in manners that respect all members of a global society Reframing Financial Literacy fills this need by providing literature that examines a broad view of financial literacy by connecting financial practice with issues of citizenship along with personal and professional identity It relates these issues to educational theory and practice to provide the reader with information about the relevance of improving social worth while bettering financial wealth Boasting 14 previously unpublished chapters from an international slate of authors and classroom adaptable lesson plans for each chapter Reframing Financial Literacy will interest both teachers and researchers with its exciting classroom activities and its provocative content This is a must work that no education professional should be without

Reconstructing the Lifelong Learner Clive Chappell,Carl Rhodes,Nicky Solomon,Mark Tennant,Lyn Yates,2003-12-16 How is adult learning used to produce personal organisational and social change This interesting examination of adult learning for change illustrates through diverse case studies and theoretical perspectives that personal change is inextricably linked to broader organisational and social change The authors explore how theorising education as a vehicle for self change is relevant to the practices of educators learning specialists and others concerned with promoting learning for change The book examines the relationship between pedagogy identity and change and illustrates this through a range of case studies focusing on the following Self help books Work based learning Corporate culture training AIDS education Gender education Sex offender education A concluding chapter discusses how writing an academic text is itself a pedagogical practice contributing to the identities of authors This unique text will be of interest to students of education sociology cultural studies and change management as well as teachers educators and professionals involved in lifelong learning or change management in any way

Educational Futures Ivana Milojevic,2005-05-19 This book provides an overview and analysis of current tensions debates and key issues within OECD nations particularly Australia the USA Canada and the UK with regard to where education is and should be going Using a broad historical analysis it investigates ideas and visions about the future that are increasingly evoked to support arguments about the imminent demise of the dominant modern educational model Focusing neither on prediction nor prescription this text suggests the goal is an analysis of the ways in which the notion of the future circulates in contemporary discourse Five specific discourses are explored globalisation new information and communications technologies feminist indigenous and spiritual The book demonstrates the connections between particular approaches to time visions of the future and educational visions and practices The author asserts that every approach to educational change is inherently based on an underlying image of the future Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women Cheris Kramarae,Dale Spender,2004-04-16 For a full list of entries and contributors sample entries and more visit the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women website Featuring comprehensive global coverage of women s issues and concerns from violence and sexuality to feminist theory the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women brings the field into the new millennium In over 900 signed A Z entries from US and Europe Asia the Americas Oceania and the Middle East the women who pioneered the field from its inception collaborate with the new scholars who are shaping the future of women s studies to create the new standard work for anyone who needs information on women related subjects

Governing the Child in the New Millennium Kenneth Hultqvist, Gunilla Dahlberg, 2013-01-11 The contributors and editors of this volume begin from the assumption that the changes wrought by globalization compel us to reflect upon the status of the child and childhood at the end of the 20th century Their essays consider what techniques and technologies are used to govern the child what role the family plays what is global and what is culturally specific in the changes and how the subject is constructed and construed

Working with Children and Young People Lindsay O'Dell, Stephen Leverett, 2018-06-26 Traditional ways of working with children and young people are giving way to new practices Where practice solutions previously tended to be imposed on children and young people professionals are now looking to engage them as vital partners in actively negotiated and co constructed models of working Combining social ecological and social constructionist perspectives drawn from a range of academic and practice disciplines Working with Children and Young People explores and interrogates how ideas about childhood policy and professional discourses change over time and in turn affect the issues faced by young people and their families In particular this important text Develops a critical and reflective approach to knowledge and practice explored vividly across a wide range of practice settings Presents a new vision where the focus is centrally on the child or young person and where dominant ideas are challenged Explores how key concerns such as professional power and children s rights embed themselves in working relationships Working with Children and Young People provides an innovative critical framework for all students on vocational and professional courses involving work with children and young people It also offers illuminating reading for practitioners working with the 0 18 age group whether in the statutory voluntary or private sectors

Approaches to Gender and Spoken Classroom Discourse Helen Sauntson, 2015-12-11 Gender is a hotly debated topic in the field of education The role that language plays in educational contexts especially in the classroom has long been acknowledged Innovatively combining approaches in the analysis of classroom discourse this book offers rich empirical findings as well as being theoretically interesting and valuable

Undoing Privilege Professor Bob Pease, 2010-08-12 For every group that is oppressed another group is privileged In Undoing Privilege Bob Pease argues that privilege as the other side of oppression has received insufficient attention in both critical theories and in the practices of social change As a result dominant groups have been allowed to reinforce their dominance Undoing Privilege explores the main sites of privilege from Western dominance class elitism and white and patriarchal privilege to the less examined sites of heterosexual and able bodied privilege Pease points out that while the vast majority of people may be oppressed on one level many are also privileged on another He also demonstrates how members of privileged groups can engage critically with their own dominant position and explores the potential and limitations of them becoming allies against oppression and their own unearned privilege This is an essential book for all who are concerned about developing theories and practices for a socially just world Developing Effective Part-time Teachers in Higher Education Fran Beaton, Amanda Gilbert, 2013 This book drawing on the voices of part time teachers and the expertise of those who support them considers whole institution strategies to promote individual and collective professional development Amanda Gilbert from Victoria University of Wellington New Zealand
