Packing Grandma's China Lana M. Tatom,2013-09 Somewhere along the way in life you start to listen to that little voice We are all on this journey together growing learning and changing As I stood in the kitchen of my dream home looking out on the still water of the pond I cried Warm salty tears streamed down my face as I told myself I could do this Just start with one box don t get overwhelmed Pack one box stay focused I started packing Grandma s china first As I packed the china set a flood of memories came of the countless times I had carefully wrapped up each piece and placed them into the box It was at that moment that I decided to write about this beautiful set of china all the experiences and lessons I have learned along my journey It is through my grandmother s journey that I have found my own strength and freedom Twenty years and thirteen moves later the china is the only set of dishes I own When was the last time you used your china What are you waiting for Don t leave it locked up waiting for a special occasion Make today the special occasion you have been waiting for In loving memory of my Grandma Veronica Billetz January 13 1922 December 13 2009

Glanzer,Jonathan P. Hill,Byron R. Johnson,2017-08-07 While the search for meaning and purpose appears to be a constant throughout human history there are characteristics about our current time period that make this search different from any other previous time particularly for college students In this book Perry L Glanzer Jonathan P Hill and Byron R Johnson explore college students search for meaning and purpose and the role that higher education plays To shed empirical light on this complex issue the authors draw on in depth interviews with four hundred college students from different types of institutions across the United States They also analyze three sets of national survey data the National Study of Youth and Religion College Students Beliefs and Values and their own Gallup conducted survey of 2 500 college students Their research identifies important social educational and cultural influences that shape students quests and the answers they find Arguing against a utilitarian view of education Glanzer Hill and Johnson conclude that colleges and universities can and should cultivate and aid students in their journeys and they offer suggestions for doing so
