PhD EdD or MPhil Methods in Educational Research Marguerite G. Lodico, Dean T. Spaulding, Katherine H. Voegtle, 2010-05-17 Methods in Educational Research is designed to prepare students for the real world of educational research. It focuses on scientifically based methods, school accountability, and the professional demands of the twenty-first century, empowering researchers to take an active role in conducting research in their classrooms, districts, and the greater educational community. Like the first edition, this edition helps students, educators, and researchers develop a broad and deep understanding of research methodologies. It includes substantial new content on the impact of No Child Left Behind legislation, school reform, quantitative and qualitative methodologies, logic modeling, action research, and other areas. Special features to assist the teaching and learning processes include vignettes illustrating research tied to practice, suggested readings at the end of each chapter, and discussion questions to reinforce chapter content. Praise for the Previous Edition: A new attempt to make this subject more relevant and appealing to students. Most striking is how useful this book is because it is really grounded in educational research. It is very well written and quite relevant for educational researchers or for the student hoping to become one. PsycCRITIQUES, American Psychological Association. I applaud the authors for their attempt to cover a wide range of material. The straightforward language of the book helps make the material understandable for readers. Journal of MultiDisciplinary Evaluation Qualitative Research in Education Marilyn Lichtman, 2023-01-31 The fourth edition of this reader-friendly book offers an accessible introduction to conducting qualitative research in education. The text begins with an introduction to the history, context, and traditions of qualitative research and then walks readers step by step through the research process. Lichtman outlines research planning and design as well as the methodologies, techniques, and strategies to help researchers make the best use of their qualitative investigation. Throughout, chapters touch on important issues that impact this research process, such as ethics and subjectivity and making use of technology. The fourth edition has been thoroughly revised and updated, featuring new examples, an increased focus on virtual and digital data collection, and the latest approaches to qualitative research. Written in a practical, conversational style and full of real-world scenarios drawn from across education, this book is a practical compendium on qualitative research in education, ideal for graduate and advanced undergraduate research methods courses and early career researchers alike. Hear Marilyn discuss what inspired her to write this fourth edition and what readers can expect. In this podcast episode of The Qualitative Report, she discusses the various types of qualitative research and what defines quality and rigor as well as current issues in education and how qualitative research methods can be used to address them. Finally, she shares her thoughts about technology and the future of qualitative research. Foundations of Mixed Methods Research Abbas Tashakkori, R. Burke Johnson, Charles Teddlie, 2020-09-10 This highly anticipated second edition gives students a comprehensive overview of mixed methods from philosophical roots and traditions through designing, conducting, and disseminating a study. Research Methods in Education and Psychology Donna M. Mertens, 1998 It not only covers two of the standard paradigms postpositivist and interpretive constructivist but discusses a relative newcomer the emancipatory paradigm that is inclusive of the perspectives of feminists ethnic racial minorities and persons with disabilities In each chapter Donna M Mertens carefully explains a step of the research process from the literature review to types of research method to analysis and reporting of quantitative or qualitative approaches Education Research Burke Johnson,2000
