Economics And Politics Of Race An International Perspective:

The Economics and Politics of Race Thomas Sowell, 1983 The Politics of Race Theodore Rueter, 2016-09-16 A study of the relationship between race and American politics organised around the institutions and processes of American government It includes readings by individuals like Bill Clinton Charles Hamilton and Carol Swain across a wide variety of ideological perspectives The Economics and Politics of Race Thomas Sowell, 1985 Race and Multiraciality in Brazil and the United States G. Reginald Daniel, 2010-11-01 Race And Culture Thomas Sowell, 2025-04-01

Encompassing more than a decade of research around the globe this book shows that cultural capital has far more impact than politics prejudice or genetics on the social and economic fates of minorities nations and civilization Neoliberalism and Race Lars Cornelissen, 2025-10-14 Lars Cornelissen argues that the category of race constitutes an organizing principle of neoliberal ideology Using the methods of intellectual history and drawing on insights from critical race studies Cornelissen explores the various racial constructs that structure neoliberal ideology some of which are explicit while others are more coded Beginning in the interwar period and running through to recent developments Neoliberalism and Race shows that racial themes have always pervaded neoliberal thinking The book s key argument is that neoliberal thought is constitutively racialized its racial motifs cannot be extracted from neoliberalism without rendering it theoretically and politically incoherent The book aptly explores a wide variety of racial constructs through the structure of neoliberal ideology deconstructing the conceptualizations in the works of landmark thinkers such as Ludwig von Mises Friedrich Hayek Peter Bauer Thomas Sowell Charles Murray and others from the early twentieth century to the present In this original perhaps controversial critique Cornelissen asserts that neoliberal thinkers were not just the passive recipients of racial discourse but also directly impacted it Racialised Barriers Stephen Small, 2014-04-04 A systematic comparison of key differences and similarities in the experience of black people in the US and England amidst racial hostility Small argues for an approach to combatting this built on shared racial identities Culture Wars Roger Chapman, 2015-03-17 The term culture wars refers to the political and sociological polarisation that has characterised American society the past several decades This new edition provides an enlightening and comprehensive A to Z ready reference now with supporting primary documents on major topics of contemporary importance for students teachers and the general reader It aims to promote understanding and clarification on pertinent topics that too often are not adequately explained or discussed in a balanced context With approximately 640 entries plus more than 120 primary documents supporting both sides of key issues this is a unique and defining work indispensable to informed discussions of the most timely and critical issues facing America today The Origins and Demise of South African Apartheid Anton David Lowenberg, William H. Kaempfer, 1998 What motivated South Africa s former white leaders to hand over the reins of power to a black government Economist Anton D Lowenberg examines the economic interests that led to apartheid and the economic prospects for post apartheid South African society Racial

Conditions Howard Winant, Race in the Jury Box Hiroshi Fukurai, Richard Krooth, 2012-02-01 Race in the Jury Box focuses on the racially unrepresentative jury as one of the remaining barriers to racial equality and a recurring source of controversy in American life Because members of minority groups remain underrepresented on juries various communities have tried race conscious jury selection termed affirmative jury selection The authors argue that affirmative jury selection can insure fairness verdict legitimization and public confidence in the justice system This book offers a critical analysis and systematic examination of possible applications of race based jury selection examining the public perception of these measures and their constitutionality The authors make use of court cases their own experiences as jury consultants and jury research as well as statistical surveys and analysis The work concludes with the presentation of four strategies for affirmative jury selection

Race, Ethnicity, And Nationality In The United States Paul Wong, 2021-09-02 This book is intended for use in advanced undergraduate and graduate level courses on race and ethnicity and on diversity in America It was first conceived as a collective project of the Research and Resident Scholar Program in Comparative Race Relations at Washington State University which was established in 1994 with support from the Rockefeller Foundation A number of the participating authors are established scholars in racial ethnic studies and several have published award winning bestsellers Others are relative newcomers to the field who were invited to join the project because they were doing important work on less well covered topics such as relations between African Americans and Chicano Latino Americans

Caribbean New York Philip Kasinitz, 1992 Since 1965 West Indians have been emigrating to the United States in record numbers and to New York City in particular Caribbean New York shows how the new immigration is reshaping American race relations and sheds much needed light on factors that underlie some of the city's explosive racial confrontations Philip Kasinitz examines how two forces racial solidarity and ethnic distinctiveness have helped to shape the identity of New York's West Indian community He compares new post 1965 immigrants with West Indians who arrived earlier in the century and looks in detail at the economic political and cultural rules that Afro Caribbean immigrants have played in the city during each period

Learning History in America Lloyd S. Kramer, Donald Reid, William L. Barney, 1994-01-01 The essays in this book like all other texts have been written in a historical context that shapes both the themes and the prose styles of the authors A close reading of these texts would in fact lead to many overlapping contexts of politics social hierarchies modern communications and international relations but we want to focus briefly on two contextual influences that carry the most obvious connections to this book the wide ranging public debate about the proper curriculum for American schools and universities and the more specific debate among historians about new trends in historical scholarship

Civil Rights in the United States Hugh Davis Graham, 2010-11-01

Racial Classification and History E. Nathaniel Gates, 1997 Explores the concept of race The term race which originally denoted genealogical or class identity has in the comparatively brief span of 300 years taken on an entirely new meaning In the wake of the Enlightenment it came to be applied to social groups This ideological transformation coupled with a dogmatic insistence that the groups so designated were natural and not socially created gave birth to the modern notion of races as genetically distinct entities The results of this view were the encoding of race and racial hierarchies in law literature and culture How racial categories facilitate social control The articles in the series demonstrate that the classification of humans according to selected physical characteristics was an arbitrary decision that was not based on valid scientific method They also examine the impact of colonialism on the propagation of the concept and note that racial categorization is a powerful social force that is often used to promote the interests of dominant social groups Finally the collection surveys how laws based on race have been enacted around the world to deny power to minority groups A multidisciplinary resource This collection of outstanding articles brings multiple perspectives to bear on race theory and draws on a wider range of periodicals than even the largest library usually holds Even if all the articles were available on campus chances are that a student would have to track them down in several libraries and microfilm collections Providing of course that no journals were reserved for graduate students out for binding or simply missing This convenient set saves students substantial time and effort by making available all the key articles in one reliable source Authoritative commentary The series editor has put together a balanced selection of the most significant works accompanied by expert commentary A general introduction gives important background information and outlines fundamental issues current scholarship and scholarly controversies Introductions to individual volumes put the articles in context and draw attention to germinal ideas and major shifts in the field After reading the material even a beginning student will have an excellent grasp of the basics of the subject Also available individually by volume 1 The Concept of Race in Natural and Social Science 0 8153 2600 9 288 pages 2 Cultural and Literary Critiques of the Concepts of Race 0 8153 2601 7 3 Racial Classification and History 0 8153 2602 5 4 The Judicial Isolation of the Racially Oppressed 0 8153 2599 1
