sanjeev sareen, We all are on a spiritual journey called the journey to God The journey starts from I as various ego identifications and gets completed when we realize ourselves as we truly are It starts when the soul after coming from the Spirit starts its outward journey in the illusionary materialistic world During the journey juggling through the maze of Maaya illusions it forgets its true identity and starts assuming many false identifications with name fame forms caste color status etc But a stage comes when not getting permanent happiness after suffering in many incarnations a spiritual awakening comes We the individual souls then start looking for spiritual direction We shift focus and start our inward journey looking for The Spirit our own true identity This book describes in detail the whole journey and how it matters to us Various Questions about life then start emerging A small voice within begins to question Who am I who is God why God made the world what is my relationship with God what is the purpose of my creation Who am I and why do I matter The Search for the meaning of life thus begins These questions appear quite often in our lifetime but we turn away from them There are many moments we are provoked to ask these We feel since childhood a vague nostalgia for more a divine longing In many ways it is the central struggle of every human life And whether you are 7 or 70 or someplace in between you need to know these This book came to life when in one of my meditation classes I was asked to answer the question of who I am the most profound and deepest question of all the time the first question in all philosophies Sometimes we avoid discovering what we are It is mainly because inquiring earnestly could mean the death of something we hold onto like the idea we have of ourselves the personality ego and all that comes with it Though it took around 60 days to complete this book it contains 60 years of my introspection on these soul searching questions I have tried to share my knowledge on these questions in a very simple structured way with a number of examples stories poems experiments inferred deductions and Vedic explanations The book will surely attract sufficient attention and stretch of mind in certain places to understand the subtle subject After realization the journey gets completed and the soul merges back with the spirit from which it came We feel oneness with God and everything This journey normally is a very long one involving many incarnations with all the pains and pleasures which life throws before us But as the masters say we can complete the journey in one lifetime reaching the ultimate realization called Nirvana Moksha In that stage as Vivekananda says I has all become and all is I Oneness in all beings All beings in self and self in all beings That is freedom from suffering and sorrow Journey with me know about you and find the purpose of life The journey through this book will transform you from a limited I to an infinite Self You are already that The book will bring up to

Spirituality in Young Adult Literature Patty Campbell, 2015-06-24 In a time when almost any gritty topic can be featured in a young adult novel there is one subject that is avoided by writers and publishers Faith and belief in God seldom appear in traditional form in novels for teens The lack of such ideas in mainstream adolescent literature can be interpreted by teens to mean that these matters are not important Yet a significant part of growing up is struggling with issues of spirituality The underlying problem of course is that there are so few writers who are willing to talk to teenagers about God even indirectly or who themselves have the religious literacy for the task Spirituality in Young Adult Literature The Last Taboo tackles a subject rarely portrayed in fiction aimed at teens In this volume Patty Campbell examines not only realistic fiction but young adult literature that deals with mysticism apocalyptic end times and even YA novels that depict the Divine Encounter Campbell maintains that fantasy works are inherently spiritual because the plots nearly always progress toward a showdown between good and evil As such the author surmises that the popularity of fantasy among teens may represent their interest in the mystical dimensions of faith and the otherworldly In this study Campbell examines works of fiction that express perspectives from Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism Hinduism and Sikhism Distinguished YA novelist Chris Crowe provides a chapter on Mormon values and Mormon YA authors and how their novels integrate those values into their books By looking at how spirituality is represented in novels aimed at teens this book asks what progress if any has been made in slaying the taboo Although most of the books discussed in this study are recent an appendix lists YA books from Giving Christianity Back to Agape Love Matthew Carriker, 2022-05-09 How could a church that has been plagued by anti-Semitism, the killing of the Crusades and the violence of the Inquisition to name a few, be redeemed of these evils? Quite simply, it has always returned to Jesus. When you return to Jesus, you return to the heart of his message: agape. Agape is a Greek word in the New Testament referring to a love that is without limits and beyond conditions. Agape is the love that God has for us and that we are called to have towards one another. This book centers around this one assumption: God loves us unconditionally. Our task individually and as communities is to be instruments of that love. This book reenvision's traditional Christian beliefs including sin, the Bible, salvation, homosexuality, pluralism, Jesus and atonement theology through the lens of agape love. What would the Christian life look like if we embodied the good news in community as contemplatives in action? In a time when churches are dying and failing, giving Christianity back to agape love has the power to bring life into a religion that feels old, worn out and over institutionalized. To return Christianity to Jesus is to give the church universal back to a love that is boundless, free and unconditional; to a love that finds its heart in service, peacemaking and radical transformation; to a love that will set the world on fire.
