The Layperson's Library Robert A. Yost, 2020-12-30 In the spirit of Cyril Barber's classic work from the 1970s The Minister's Library and the author's 2017 book The Pastor's Library Robert Yost provides the same expert guidance now for a lay audience. Finally, laypersons who desire to study the Bible have an invaluable resource for the acquisition of research tools as well as general Christian reading. From general reference works such as Bible atlases and concordances, commentaries, devotional works, and theological studies to Christian biography and fiction, this book is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that just seem to keep rolling off the presses. Overwhelmed by the proliferation of Christian books on the shelves, this handy guide is the book for you.

Stronger Than You Think Kim Gaines Eckert, 2013-03-05 Kim Gaines Eckert has spent years helping women tackle the issues life throws their way. At the heart of their struggle, she believes, is not the desire to be perfect but the desire to be whole. Finding Our Way Home Myke Johnson, 2016-11-25 In this time of ecological crisis, all that is holy calls us into a more intimate partnership with the diverse and beautiful beings of this earth. In Finding Our Way Home, Myke Johnson reflects on her personal journey into such a partnership and offers a guide for others to begin this path. Lyrically expressed, it weaves together lessons from a chamomile flower, a small bird, a copper beech tree, a garden slug, and a forest fern, along with insights from Indigenous philosophy, environmental science, fractal geometry, childhood, Catholic mysticism, the prophet Elijah, fairy tales, and permaculture design. This eco-spiritual journey also wrestles with the history of our society's destruction of the natural world and its roots in the original theft of the land from Indigenous peoples. Exploring the spiritual dimensions of our brokenness, it offers tools to create healing. Finding Our Way Home is a ceremony to remember our essential unity with all of life.

Finding Our Way Home Nikki Simpson, 2018-06-13 Finding Our Way Home: Women's Accounts of Being Sent to Boarding School shares the personal stories of sixteen women, all of whom were sent away to board at an early age. Their accounts delve into the depths of long-suppressed emotions and feelings and the lifelong impact that the early separation from their families has had. Much has been written about the impact of boarding school syndrome on male boarders, but less about their female counterparts. This book is the first to explore the experience from a purely female perspective and offers an intriguing insight into the world of boarding schools and the upbringing of girls born in the mid to late 20th century. Finding Our Way Home is a book for everyone who ever attended boarding school, as well as psychotherapists and counsellors working with boarding school survivors.

The Language of the Soul Jeff Crosby, 2023-05-23 For over fifteen years, writer Jeff Crosby has been searching for a language of the soul, a way to articulate our deepest longings. Through the years, he gathered clues from within global music styles, from different cultures, from his own Christian tradition, and its sacred texts, and from deep within himself. A lover of words, he sought not only to translate our longings into words but to understand why these seemingly universal yearnings have long remained unnamed Now in these pages Crosby gifts us with those so often untranslatable desires of our hearts guiding us to finally find the words and luminous insights for our own longings for home for friendship for forgiveness and for transformation and how God meets us in the midst of these longings Eschewing easy answers Crosby begins the naming process helping us to make connections and to recognize within ourselves and our faith our heart's true home
