Findings Journeys Journeys A Reading And Literature Program:

English Journal, 1994 Navigating the Doctoral Journey Amanda J. Rockinson-Szapkiw, Lucinda S.

Spaulding, 2014-06-11 This co edited book provides doctoral candidates with a practical cross discipline handbook for successfully navigating the doctoral process from initial program selection to the final dissertation defense and preparing for the faculty interview. Invited chapters from established higher education experts cover topics ranging from university and program selection preparing for comprehensive exams and dissertation research self care and self management strategies and recommendations for maintaining personal and professional support systems. Each chapter includes strategies for success and practical tips including how to create a study guide for the comprehensive examination how to create a professional support group how to talk to your family about the doctoral process how to select and work with a chair and committee how to identify an appropriate research design how to navigate the IRB process and how to master the research and writing process.

The Research Journey Sharon F. Rallis, Gretchen B. Rossman, 2012-03-29 This book is a product of our several decades of teaching about research conducting research ourselves advising graduate students who conducted research and of our reflections on the teaching and on the conduct of research. The book is structured to follow a teaching sequence in fact it maps neatly onto our syllabus for the course. Each chapter begins with a series of critical questions that we hope will guide reading and prompt further questions for discussion. These questions are followed by a dialogue among five graduate students whose journeys into inquiry are just beginning. Their challenges and joys are embedded in these dialogues as well as throughout the chapters. We also draw on other examples from our students over the years in several places. The chapters end with learning activities that we have used over the years and refined based on student feedback and our own critical reflections on how well they worked.

Sharing the Journey: Literature for Young Children David Yellin, 2017-05-12 This wonderful resource from two authors with an infectious enthusiasm for children's literature will help readers select and share quality books for and with young children. Specifically focused on infants through the third grade, Sharing the Journey contains descriptive book annotations, instructive commentary, and creative teaching activities tailored for those important years. Extensive book lists throughout will help readers build a library of quality children's literature. Books representing other cultures are included to help celebrate diversity as well as cultural connection. Genre chapters include poetry, fantasy, and realistic and historical fiction. A chapter on informational books demonstrates how young children can be introduced to and learn to enjoy nonfiction.

Finding the Narrow Way Michael A. Blomberg, 2012-02 There is a very narrow way which leads to life and there are few who find it. Finding the Narrow Way will share knowledge, wisdom, and insight to any human being with an open mind and seeing eyes. Author Michael has found the narrow way and is hoping to share his experiences and how he has found life. Understand yourself, life, and the world around you. Become the person you were created to be.
