Fire from Heaven Michael Harrison, 1978 Fire from Heaven Michael Harrison, 1990 Offers authenticated examples of spontaneous combustion and challenges everyone to look again at theories which hitherto have been considered freakish weird and crackpot Isak Dinesen and Narrativity Centre TADAC., 1994 Responding to recent Dinesen scholarship and public exposure in such films as Out of Africa and Babette's Feast these fourteen original essays discuss and reveal the aesthetic subtlety and philosophical complexity of Dinesen's art Mysteries of the Unexplained Richard Marshall, 1982 How ordinary men and women have explained the strange the uncanny and the incredible Subtitle on dust jacket

American Twilight Kristopher Woofert, Will Dodson, 2021-06-01 A master of gritty horror Tobe Hooper captured on screen an America in constant crisis and upended myths of prosperity to reveal the country's internal decay Tobe Hooper's productions which often trespassed upon the safety of the family unit cast a critical eye toward an America in crisis Often dismissed by scholars and critics as a one hit wonder thanks to his 1974 horror classic The Texas Chain Saw Massacre Hooper nevertheless was instrumental in the development of a robust and deeply political horror genre from the 1960s until his death in 2017 In American Twilight the authors assert that the director was an auteur whose works featured complex monsters and disrupted America's sacrosanct perceptions of prosperity and domestic security American Twilight focuses on the skepticism toward American institutions and media and the articulation of uncanny spaces so integral to Hooper's vast array of feature and documentary films made for television movies television episodes and music videos From Egg Shells 1969 to Poltergeist 1982 Djinn 2013 and even Billy Idol's music video for Dancing with Myself 1985 Tobe Hooper provided a singular directorial vision that investigated masculine anxiety and subverted the idea of American exceptionalism The World of Lore: Wicked Mortals Aaron Mahnke, 2018-05-29 A chilling lavishly illustrated who's who of the most despicable people ever to walk the earth featuring stories from the Lore podcast now a streaming television series including Black Stockings Half Hanged and The Castle as well as rare material Some monsters are figments of our imagination Others are as real as flesh and blood humans who may look like us who may walk among us often unnoticed occasionally even admired but whose evil deeds and secret lives once revealed mark them as something utterly wicked In this illustrated volume from the host of the hit podcast Lore you'll find tales of infamous characters whose veins ran with ice water and whose crimes remind us that truth can be more terrifying than fiction Aaron Mahnke introduces us to William Brodie a renowned Scottish cabinetmaker who used his professional expertise to prey on the citizens of Edinburgh and whose rampant criminality behind a veneer of social respectability inspired Robert Louis Stevenson's classic novella Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Then there's H H Holmes a relentless and elusive con artist who became best known as the terror of Chicago's 1893 World's Fair when unwitting guests were welcomed into his hotel of horrors never to be seen again And no rogues gallery could leave out Bela Kiss the Hungarian tinsmith with a taste for the occult and a collection of gasoline drums with women's bodies

inside Brimming with accounts of history's most heinous real life fiends this riveting best of the worst roundup will haunt your thoughts chill your bones and leave you wondering if there are mortal monsters lurking even closer than you think The World of Lore series includes MONSTROUS CREATURES WICKED MORTALS DREADFUL PLACES Elemental Tim James, 2019-03-26 If you want to understand how our world works the periodic table holds the answers When the seventh row of the periodic table of elements was completed in June 2016 with the addition of four final elements nihonium moscovium tennessine and oganesson we at last could identify all the ingredients necessary to construct our world In Elemental chemist and science educator Tim James provides an informative entertaining and quirkily illustrated guide to the table that shows clearly how this abstract and seemingly jumbled graphic is relevant to our day to day lives James tells the story of the periodic table from its ancient Greek roots when you could count the number of elements humans were aware of on one hand to the modern alchemists of the twentieth and twenty first centuries who have used nuclear chemistry and physics to generate new elements and complete the periodic table In addition to this he answers questions such as What is the chemical symbol for a human What would happen if all of the elements were mixed together Which liquid can teleport through walls Why is the medieval dream of transmuting lead into gold now a reality Whether you're studying the periodic table for the first time or are simply interested in the fundamental building blocks of the universe from the core of the sun to the networks in your brain Elemental is the perfect guide

Anomalous Propagation Robert Cheatham, 2008-06-25 anomalous propagation those false returns on the radar screen on your consciousness the wiggles seen out of the corner of the eye there but not there the material world brought to life zombie like the conscious world put to sleep zombie like meeting in the middle we exist somewhere between transmission and false return Nothing to do but dance that mess around The Spirits of America Eric Burns, 2004 In The Spirits of America Burns relates that drinking was the first national pastime and shows how it shaped American politics and culture from the earliest colonial days He details the transformation of alcohol from virtue to vice and back again and how it was thought of as both scourge and medicine He tells us how the great American thirst developed over the centuries and how reform movements and laws sprang up to combat it Burns brings back to life such vivid characters as Carrie Nation and other crusaders against drink He informs us that in the final analysis Prohibition the culmination of the reformers quest had as much to do with politics and economics and geography as it did with spirituous beverage

Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Miracles Charles Raymond Dillon, 2000-11 Most of the stories in this book are outside the scope of our everyday experience many unbelievable yet many have been validated by observers as being authentic There are stories of weeping and mobile statues incorruptible flesh of the dead and spontaneous combustion of human bodies Other stories concern ecstasy levitation visions healing and other mysterious events The concept of miracles have been attacked by rationalist philosophers who argue that they would be a violation of the common course of nature thus the events could not happen Saint Augustine answered such critics by defining miracles as being events that are unknown in nature not as something opposed to it This book contains a collection of wondrous events that have been reported at have occurred at different times in diverse places and among all peoples of the world These wonderful events may be called miracles frauds coincidences or what ever you may choose Many have been investigated and determined to have been fraud The intent is to present the information and to let you decide if they are real miracles or not Towards a Science of Belief Systems E.
