Kornfeld, 1995-10 Written for the terminally ill their families and others involved in the care of the dying Life to Death introduces the technique of co meditation a method to help a patient maintain a clear mind and peaceful heart during the process of dying A script for co meditation sessions with relaxation and visualization techniques is included

7 Paths to God Joan Z. Borysenko, 1999-01-08 Just as many rivers lead to the sea there are many paths to God Each of the seven primary energy centers of the human body the chakras corresponds to a specific path In this book Joan Borysenko tells you how a mystical moment can strike at any time when you are fully present in the moment when looking at a beautiful full moon a sunset walking in nature or looking into the eyes of a child When you are fully present in the moment you will be filled with a sense of awe and beauty and feel fully connected with the universe This book outlines the 7 paths complete with spiritual exercises giving the reader a sense of the most fruitful direction for their journey You will learn that you don t have to go to Nepal or go climb a mountain to have a mystical moment but in learning how to be fully present in your everyday life you will find that mystical moments can be found in the mundane the ordinary or also in the extraordinary

The Five Ways We Grieve Susan A. Berger, 2011-03-08 In this new approach to understanding the impact of grief Susan A Berger goes beyond the commonly held theories of stages of grief with a new typology for self awareness and personal growth She offers practical advice for healing from a major loss in this presentation of five basic ways or types of grieving These five types describe how different people respond to a major loss The types are Nomads who have not yet resolved their grief and don t often understand how their loss has affected their lives

Memorialists who are committed to preserving the memory of their loved ones by creating concrete memorials and rituals to honor them Normalizers who are committed to re creating a sense of family and community Activists who focus on helping other people who are dealing with the same disease or issues that caused their loved one s death Seekers who adopt religious philosophical or spiritual beliefs to create meaning in their lives Drawing on research results and anecdotes from working with the bereaved over the past ten years Berger examines how a person s worldview is affected after a major loss According to her findings people experience significant changes in their sense of mortality their values and priorities their perception of and orientation toward time and the manner in which they fit in society The five types of grieving she finds reflect the choices people make in their efforts to adapt to dramatic life changes By identifying with one of the types readers who have suffered a recent loss or whose lives have been shaped by an early loss find ways of understanding the impact of the loss and of living more fully
