The Japanese Enterprise System W. Mark Fruin, 1992 This volume merges four streams of inquiry and interpretation in a study of the evolution and emergence of Japan s leading industrial firms during the twentieth century First it is a historical study of how the industrial institutions of modern Japan appeared and matured Second it is an organization study of the basic forms of social and economic interaction in Japan Third it is a development study of how circumstances of rapid technical and economic change have shaped the Japanese business system It is also a strategy study of how Japanese managers have responded to and shaped these circumstances This fourfold synthesis offers a model of institutional development under conditions of late economic development and private initiative that falls somewhere between a capitalist development state and a free market economy Business policy rather than industrial policy is accentuated revealing asset of robust institutions and a dynamic to activate and interrelate them

Information Technology Management and Organizational Innovations Mehdi Khosrowpour,1996-01-01 Emerging information technologies of the past few decades are now providing organizations with new tools to develop innovative organizational concepts and applications This book is a collection of timely research and practical papers on the subject of IT management and its role in organizational innovation A Comparative Political Economy of Industrial Capitalism R.

Mascarenhas,2002-10-04 This comparative study of industrial capitalism is an examination of state economy relations in mixed economies ranging from the interventionist German and Japanese to the less interventionist Anglo American Following the postwar consensus that resulted in the golden age 1950 1973 and ended with the energy crisis the Anglo American economies adopted neoliberalism while Germany and Japan remained interventionist This resulted in the emergence of national types of capitalism While analyzing the increased competition between them R C Mascarenhas also notes the influence of globalization as well as alternative capitalism with the survival and re emergence of industrial districts
