Displacing Human Rights Adam Branch,2011-06-01 Today Western intervention is a ubiquitous feature of violent conflict in Africa Humanitarian aid agencies community peacebuilders microcredit promoters children s rights activists the World Bank the International Criminal Court the U S military and numerous others have involved themselves in African conflicts all claiming to bring peace and human rights to situations where they are desperately needed However according to Adam Branch Western intervention is not the solution to violence in Africa but instead can be a major part of the problem often undermining human rights and even prolonging war and intensifying anti civilian violence Based on an extended case study of Western intervention into northern Uganda s twenty year civil war and drawing on Branch s own extensive research and human rights activism there this book lays bare the reductive understandings motivating Western intervention in Africa the inadequate tools it insists on employing its refusal to be accountable to African citizenries and most important its counterproductive consequences for peace human rights and justice In short Branch demonstrates how Western interventions undermine the efforts Africans themselves are undertaking to end violence in their own communities The book does not end with critique however Motivated by a commitment to global justice it proposes concrete changes for Western humanitarian peacebuilding and justice interventions as well as a new normative framework for re orienting the Western approach to violent conflict in Africa around a practice of genuine solidarity A key strength of the book is its ability to analyse and reveal common patterns in seemingly disparate and complex empirical instances of counterproductive human rights interventions in Uganda This book should be required reading for all those working on various themes in Africa today The Journal of Modern African Studies This book provides a pessimistic but much needed critique of the history of foreign intervention in Northern Uganda Responsible discussions of foreign policy must consider the ways in which great power politics can hurt people in the name of protection this book is an excellent place to start that discussion The Christian Science Monitor Living on the Boundaries Carol Camp Yeakey, 2012-05-18 From the first chapter to the last this immensely insightful anthology richly details and informs us about the human condition from multidisciplinary perspectives about urban life in global contexts It examines the complex often controversial issues impacting those who live on the margins of society in our densely populated cities Institutions and Investment in Sudan Denu G. Berhanu, 2011 This book provides insights into the development of institutions during war and peace times in Sudan and presents an analysis of the impact of institutional variables on investment and economic growth The study combines a new institutional economics framework and a socioeconomic analysis of investment behavior with an analysis of the process of post conflict reconstruction and development in Sudan South Sudan The book contains a wealth of information for policymakers for the development aid community and for researchers based on the results of a cross country analysis of panel data for Sudan and the results of survey data on investment determinants in South Sudan An agenda for institutional reform is suggested for Sudan and South Sudan on the basis of the findings of the study It presents valuable discussions on policy relevant issues for Sudan and South Sudan and it also contains an agenda for economic cooperation between Sudan and independent South Sudan Series Institut fur Weltwirtschaft und Internationales Management Vol 18 The Administration of Debt Relief by the

Paying the Price Bethan Emmett, 2005 Main part of this report was written by Arabella Fraser Bethan Emmett wrote Part 4 Ack Second International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda, 2015-01-06 This handbook presents a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It provides an accessible practical and comparative source of current research that examines the intersecting and diverse discourses of this important issue Divided into two parts the handbook first examines globalisation and education policy reforms including coverage of main trends as well as specific policy issues such as gender equity minorities and human rights Next the handbook offers a comparative perspective that evaluates the ambivalent and problematic relationship between globalisation the state and education reforms globally It features coverage on curricula issues and education reforms in schools around the world as well as the curriculum in the global culture Now more than ever there is a need to understand and analyse both the intended and the unintended effects of globalisation on economic competitiveness educational systems the state and relevant policy changes all as they affect individuals the higher education sector schools policy makers and powerful corporate organisations across the globe By examining some of the major education policy issues particularly in the light of recent shifts in education and policy research this handbook offers readers a comprehensive picture of the impact of globalisation on education policy and reforms It will serve as a vital sourcebook of ideas for researchers practitioners and policy makers in education The American Economic Review, 2004 Economic Growth and Poverty in Kenya Naftali N. Wambugu, T. Nzioki Kibua, 2004 The Roots of African Conflicts Alfred G. Nhema, Paul Tiyambe Zeleza, 2008 This work along with The Resolution of African Conflicts clearly demonstrates the efforts by a wide range of African scholars to explain the roots routes regimes and resolution of African conflicts and how to re build post conflict societies Financing Pro-poor Growth in Africa: Seminar papers Matthew Martin, J. T. Karugia, Margaret Crouch, 2004 Accelerating Africa's Integration Through Micro-Regionalism: The Case of Zambia-Malawi-Mozambique Growth Triangle and Its Impact Kojo B. Asiedu, Olubanke King-Akerele, 2015-06-10 This book is about accelerating Africa's integration through the application of the growth triangle concept. Filled with rich experiences backed by research, this book is also a powerful account of how African countries border areas many of which largely marginalized and clash points of conflicts can be transformed into vibrant socio-economic security zones through local regional development efforts. This book equally creates a necessary kind of working environment where micro-regionalism is given a significant role to play in addressing some of the protracted challenges associated with our continent's larger groupings. A valuable piece of work and absolutely required reading for all of us: politicians, academics, private sector development practitioners, NGOs.
