Reflecting with God Abigail Johnson, 2004-03-01 Untangling the day to day issues in our multifaceted lives can seem daunting Time to sit quietly and reflect is rare If we are fortunate we have good friends or close family members with whom to talk things through and find clarity but many times we feel isolated and lonely As people of faith we add another layer to our reflections when we wonder where God fits into our lives In a broad sense theological reflection happens any time that we wonder about God our faith our beliefs and our values In this book however Abigail Johnson offers a structured process for engaging in theological reflection by looking at a situation or event through a series of questions These questions are designed to help individuals and small groups think through situations with the eyes of faith Johnson provides detailed instructions for group facilitators making this book a valuable resource for any theological reflection leader She demonstrates how theological reflection will enrich the faith life of the individual and increase group members sense of belonging to God and to the whole people of God She also shows how small groups engaging in theological reflection affects the ongoing life of a congregation particularly in the community s worship and the members practice of spiritual disciplines

Earth Crammed with Heaven Elizabeth Dreyer, 1994 For too long says Elizabeth Dreyer the kind of spirituality taught to Christian lay people has been clerical and monastic It has not been grounded in the ways of living actually experienced by lay people incorporating sexuality childraising work the marketplace and the earth A major effort is being made in our day to reformulate spirituality in a way that makes sense to ordinary Christians More than anything else this new attitude proclaims that God is best discovered not in the withdrawal from everyday life but in the act of living it Earth Crammed with Heaven is a pioneering attempt to articulate the paradigm shift in attitudes toward lay spirituality It is written for persons who are on an intentional spiritual journey that has everyday existence and the entire world as its focal points It maintains that baptized Christians do not have to change their daily activities in order to become saints The potential for sainthood is located in the depth and intentionality of ordinary living
