The 5 Patterns of Extraordinary Careers James M. Citrin,Richard Smith,2003-08-05 What is different about the careers of people like Lou Gerstner the acclaimed recently retired chairman and CEO of IBM Or Senator Elizabeth Dole Yahoo COO Dan Rosensweig and Tom Freston chairman and CEO of MTV Networks Why did they ascend to the top and prosper why did they have extraordinary careers while others equally talented never reached their potential or aspirations Jim Citrin and Rick Smith of Spencer Stuart the world's most influential executive search firm set out to explore this question The result based on in depth original research is sure to be the most important and useful book for anyone seeking to crack the code of how to build a rewarding personally satisfying career Like weather systems and financial markets careers contain patterns What Citrin and Smith found from their research and extensive experience is that people with extraordinary careers are guided by five straightforward patterns that can be harnessed and used by everyone These individuals Understand the value of you by translating their knowledge and experience into action building their personal value over each phase of their career Practice benevolent leadership by not clawing their way to the top but by being carried there Solve the permission paradox the dilemma of not being able to get a job without experience and not getting the experience without the job Differentiate using the 20/80 principle of performance by storming past their defined jobs to create breakthrough ideas and deliver unexpected impact Do not micromanage their careers but macromanage them by gravitating toward the things they are best at and have a passion for and working with people they like and respect No one manages your career for you But with Citrin and Smith as your guide you'll be able to understand and act on the root causes of success And what better source for strategic career advice than Spencer Stuart the firm that over the past ten years has conducted more than 60 percent of the searches for Fortune 1000 CEOs Finding a Career That Works for You Wilma Fellman, Wilma R.

Fellman, 2007-09 Updated with the latest research this guide is essential for people who are in the process of choosing a career and finding a job By teaching how to better understand one's interests aptitudes personality and goals practical tips are provided on how to find a job in a chosen field where to search for available jobs the best ways to prepare a resume how to write a cover letter and how to make the best impression during a job interview Filled with personal stories of people who have found work they love despite potentially overwhelming challenges this book is a road map to finding the perfect career

Monthly Bulletin League for Business Opportunities for Women, New York, 1916 Wipe My Tears, O Ghana Laura Kathleen K. Lawson, 2017-09-05 This story is of a young Ghanaian girl Kabuki who is suffering an extreme case of depression because she cannot live her dreams which is to exploit all of her potentials and experience the kind of freedom others like herself enjoy in other developed countries is frustrated and disappointed because Ghana is facing deep unlimited challenges that directly affect her and her inability to live her life and she sees no sign of these problems going away anytime soon Her uncountable attempts at living her dreams at all cost through time draws her to the painful realization of various challenges that limit her growth in Ghana leaving her broken in faith with a deep threat to throw her dreams to the curb Despite the decade of research work combined with her proposed solutions she is always turned away by the units that matter and taken for granted by the people who have what it takes to help her situation On her journey to discover what it takes to develop potentials she encounters millions of Ghanaians holding on to broken dreams and defining wrong outlets to pour their frustrations One sleepless and frustrated night she wakes up in tears and pours out her heart on paper to her Psychologist She pinpoints her personal opinion on problems in Ghana analyzes them and offers strategies to combat the challenges Wipe my tears O Ghana is a wakeup call to our leaders political parties and influencers of society It is time we all pause reflect and take a critical look at what the needs of the people in the nation are which is the only ingredient required to grow the nation
