

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a red brick building. On the left side, a black metal fire escape is visible, with its stairs and railings extending upwards. A window with multiple panes is situated above the fire escape. In the foreground, a large, vibrant red cloth is draped and billows across the lower half of the image, partially obscuring the building and the text below. The cloth has a soft, flowing texture and is a deep red color.

Getting Mad....and Even Joanna Carroll, 2012-08-16 Pit your detective skills against that of investigative journalist Meg Witt as she looks into a couple of stories one of them unfolding in her own Payson Arizona backyard A local property management company has gone from the brink of bankruptcy to seemingly an overnight success But unraveling the truths from the lies has Meg spinning in circles until a series of encouraging notes take her down pathways she never considered She uncovers a suicide and an accident that both have the pungent aroma of murder and the next one might be her own as the author of the notes becomes frustrated that the pathways she's chosen were not the ones intended Another story has her helping a detective in Arkansas sort through a web of clues stretching across the country and ending once again in her own backyard You will have more clues than she does as you look back in time to see the development of a serial killer as both plots intertwine Can you solve this mystery before she does
