Finding My Way Autobiography Of An Optimist:

Finding My Way Evelyn Stefansson Nef, 2002 Reading Evelyn Stefansson Nef's autobiography is like watching time lapse photographs of a rose in the process of blooming Each petal in random sequence breaks free from the bud and stretches out in all directions The intricately textured flower in full bloom gives little hint of its humble beginning Born in 1913 the child of Hungarian Jewish immigrants Evelyn grew up in Brooklyn Her memories of her early years are dominated by a sense of joylessness a remote and fragile mother and a father she adored who died suddenly when she was thirteen While studying art at high school in Manhattan Evelyn frequently visited a Greenwich Village restaurant called Romany Marie's a popular gathering place for artists and writers Among her new acquaintances was the futurist inventor and architect Buckminster Fuller who became an intimate friend As a bright talented and attractive young woman Evelyn moved freely within New York's theatrical and literary worlds of the 1930s Under the tutelage of master puppeteer Bil Baird with whom she had a passionate but short lived marriage she became accomplished in the art of marionettes

Finding My Way Duncan Brown, 2023-12-01 This book reflects on South African literature from the perspective of 2020 It emerges from Duncan Brown's experiences of three decades of working in this field of writing and scholarship It is a personal intellectual exploration and an engagement with the institutional history of literary studies in South Africa and elsewhere Finding My Way also attempts to find more creative engaging and intriguing modes of writing about literature and the humanities universally It seeks to recover a sense of the imaginative the literary and the affective not only as things to value in the literary texts we read but also as ways of understanding and reading texts as ways of writing criticism of registering how books make us feel as well as how they make us think Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa

The Longevity Revolution Robert N. Butler, 2009-09-08 Pulitzer prize winning author Dr Robert Butler coined the term ageism and made Alzheimer's a familiar word Now he brings his formidable knowledge and experience in aging issues to a recent and unprecedented achievement the extension of human life expectancy by thirty years As Butler shows our society had not yet adapted to this change The U S has not made a research investment in aging Only eleven medical schools out of 145 have geriatrics departments compared to England where geriatrics is the number two specialty We have not solidified private pension plans or strengthened Social Security to ensure that people do not outlive their resources In this urgent and ultimately optimistic book Dr Butler shows why and how we must re-examine our personal and societal approach to aging right now so that the boomers and the generations that follow may have a financially secure vigorous and healthy final chapter life

Travelling Passions Gísli Pálsson, 2005 Vilhjálmur Stefansson is widely known for his groundbreaking Canadian Arctic explorations of the early 1900s He acquired a reputation almost larger than life with his discovery of the Copper Inuit a hitherto unknown people his insistence on living as the local people did and with Natkusiak his Inuit co-explorer his adventurous forays onto barren ice for months at a time He was a fixture in the New York Greenwich Village scene and later in his life taught at Dartmouth College However despite his detailed field diaries and the frenzy of publicity that followed his every move his private life has remained largely unknown Then in 1987 an accidental discovery in a flea market of hundreds of private letters and documents proved to be those belonging to Stefansson and they told a story of private relationships in particular with two southern women Orpha Cecil Smith to whom Stefansson was engaged and the novelist Fannie Hurst with whom Stefansson was involved for many years Moreover letters between some of Stefansson's friends as well as his own field diaries alluded to an important relationship Stefansson had with an Inupiat woman in the Arctic Pannigabluk and to their son Alex Gisli Palsson has followed the trail of these sources and conducted many interviews with Stefansson's northern descendants uncovering a complex and perhaps torn personality In Travelling Passions we have a much more complete picture of the man who figured so largely in the imagination of the early twentieth century

BOOK JACKET A Cold Colonialism Tina Adcock, 2025-06-01

Exploration has long been pivotal to southern engagements with northern Canada but it is most often associated with the nineteenth century or earlier A Cold Colonialism offers the first extended examination of twentieth century exploration in the Canadian North Modern exploration helped southerners establish and maintain distinctive kinds of colonial and settler colonial power over northern Indigenous homelands Who explored the North between 1918 and 1965 What forms did exploration take What did it mean to explorers and others affected by it Tina Adcock focuses on four representative explorers with richly documented careers mining engineer George Douglas surveyor Guy Blanchet ethnologist Vilhjalmur Stefansson and filmmaker Richard Finnie Despite limited experience in and knowledge of the Canadian North these explorers helped southern militaries industries and governments exert control over northern peoples and their lands Each also claimed belonging in and authority over the North in ways that still resonate among southern settlers in Canada today

Future Remains Gregg Mitman, Marco Armiero, Robert S. Emmett, 2018-04-20

What can a pesticide pump a jar full of sand or an old calico print tell us about the Anthropocene the age of humans Just as paleontologists look to fossil remains to infer past conditions of life on earth so might past and present day objects offer clues to intertwined human and natural histories that shape our planetary futures In this era of aggressive hydrocarbon extraction extreme weather and severe economic disparity how might certain objects make visible the uneven interplay of economic material and social forces that shape relationships among human and nonhuman beings Future Remains is a thoughtful and creative meditation on these questions The fifteen objects gathered in this book resemble more the tarots of a fortuneteller than the archaeological finds of an expedition they speak of planetary futures Marco Armiero Robert S Emmett and Gregg Mitman have assembled a cabinet of curiosities for the Anthropocene bringing together a mix of lively essays creatively chosen objects and stunning photographs by acclaimed photographer Tim Flach The result is a book that interrogates the origins implications and potential dangers of the Anthropocene and makes us wonder anew about what exactly human history is made of

A Spirit that Impels M. Gerard Fromm, 2018-05-01

This volume brings together some of the papers presented by leading scholars artists and psychoanalysts at an annual Creativity Seminar organised by the Erikson Institute of the Austen Riggs Center Looking at creativity through a psychoanalytic lens and very importantly vice versa the authors examine great works such as Nathaniel Hawthorne s The Scarlet Letter Mahler s Eighth Symphony and William Gibson s The Miracle Worker as well as great artists such as Van Gogh and Lennon and McCartney for what we might learn about the creative process itself Deepening this conversation are a number of clinical studies and other reflections on the creative process in sickness and in health so to speak A central theme is that of deep play the level at which the artist may be unconsciously playing out on behalf of all of us the deepest dynamics of human emotion in order that we may leave the encounter not only emotionally spent but profoundly informed as well Low Book One: Deluxe Edition Rick

Living in the Shadow of the Freud Family Sophie Freud, 2007-04-30 I had to do something to escape Hitler's clutches writes Esti Freud Yet she waits with her then 16 year old daughter Sophie in Paris until German canons can be heard in the distance before deciding to escape by bicycle across France as Sophie keeps looking back to see whether German tanks will overtake them Both women survive and in their own ways come to feel a need to keep a personal record of those tumultuous times Thus in a memoir written at age 79 Esti Freud daughter in law of Sigmund Freud and wife of his oldest son Martin looks back on her life starting before the 20th century lived on three continents and stretched through two world wars and the Holocaust Twenty years after her mother's death daughter Sophie turned to Esti's memoir as the scaffold for this book expanding it through family letters archival material and her own diary penned as a teenager Out of these documents Sophie Freud has created a many voiced mosaic including letters and insights from a wide cast of characters who tell the story of a famous family and of a century This work gives an insider's in law view of the family Freud its foundations and flaws The relationship between Esti daughter of a wealthy Vienna attorney and her husband Martin Freud is foreshadowed by the young lovers fathers At first meeting Esti Sigmund told his son the glamorous woman was too beautiful for the clan meaning her splendor belied a lifestyle not conducive to the frugal Freud ways And Esti's father on hearing of her love for Martin expressed regret she was involved with a man who was not a financially favorable linkage and that his family was not respectable since patriarch Sigmund was just another psychiatrist and one who writes pornography books at that Thus begins the ill fated relationship that would rock two families and a generation of children to come Sophie weaves into the text letters she inherited including letters from Martin while he was a prisoner of war and excerpts from her own diary kept as an adolescent The resulting mosaic will fascinate and perhaps disturb readers interested in Freud and psychoanalysis as well as those intrigued by relationships and family
