Finding Our Way Home:

Finding Our Way Home Charlene Baumbich, 2012 After ballet dancer Sasha Davis suffers a severe injury and returns home to Minnesota to recover and deal with her mother's death she forms an unexpected bond with her live-in aide Evelyn who helps Sasha face life with a renewed purpose

Finding Our Way Home Nikki Simpson, 2018-06-13 Finding Our Way Home Women's Accounts of Being Sent to Boarding School shares the personal stories of sixteen women all of whom were sent away to board at an early age Their accounts delve into the depths of long suppressed emotions and feelings and the lifelong impact that the early separation from their families has had Much has been written about the impact of boarding school syndrome on male boarders but less about their female counterparts This book is the first to explore the experience from a purely female perspective and offers an intriguing insight into the world of boarding schools and the upbringing of girls born in the mid to late 20th century Finding Our Way Home is a book for everyone who ever attended boarding school as well as psychotherapists and counsellors working with boarding school survivors

Finding Our Way Home Gerald G. Jampolsky, Gerald Jampolsky and Diane V. Cirincione, 2010-06 In a deeply heartfelt way Jerry Jampolsky and Diane Cirincione share stories of their spiritual journey detours they've taken and people who have impacted them along their life trail Using the Hawaiian tradition of talking story Jerry and Diane demonstrate the daily application of spiritual principles and practical spirituality Individually and together they weave their journey for us as it continues to evolve from the influences around them They inspire us to embrace and share our own stories of peaks and valleys that make up our journeys The authors' honest and vulnerable style of communicating continues to reveal their life purposes in the choices they make and the lessons they've learned Each day still provides challenges and circumstances that call to those parts of us that want to judge others or ourselves they write What is different now is that we more quickly recognize when we're lost and the choice we have to return to the path of unconditional love Once we remember that our purpose is service and helping others as well as letting go of our judgments and grievances by practicing forgiveness the path is easier the direction clearer and the destination of peace achievable

Finding Our Way Home Myke Johnson, 2016-11-25 In this time of ecological crisis all that is holy calls us into a more intimate partnership with the diverse and beautiful beings of this earth In Finding Our Way Home Myke Johnson reflects on her personal journey into such a partnership and offers a guide for others to begin this path Lyrically expressed it weaves together lessons from a chamomile flower a small bird a copper beech tree a garden slug and a forest fern along with insights from Indigenous philosophy environmental science fractal geometry childhood Catholic mysticism the prophet Elijah fairy tales and permaculture design This eco-spiritual journey also wrestles with the history of our society's destruction of the natural world and its roots in the original theft of the land from Indigenous peoples Exploring the spiritual dimensions of our brokenness it offers tools to create healing Finding Our Way Home is a ceremony to remember our essential unity with all of life
