Finding Out About Victorian Schools:

Finding Out about Victorian Schools Amanda Clarke, 1983-01-01 The National Archives History Toolkit for Primary Schools Clare Horrie, Rachel Hillman, 2020-03-19 The ultimate companion to teaching history in primary schools With instant access to genuine historical sources that can be downloaded from a companion website accompanied by exciting lesson plans activities and photocopiable worksheets for both Key Stages 1 and 2 The National Archives History Toolkit for Primary Schools is the essential manual for teaching history in the primary classroom Teaching history using original sources is crucial to developing pupils critical thinking skills and understanding of what history is all about Each lesson in this go to guide is based on an original historical source from The National Archives that has never seen the light of day in standard school history textbooks This enables a unique enquiry based approach to teaching history that will fascinate and inspire pupils and develop their historical knowledge The historical sources can be previewed in the book and downloaded from a companion website allowing them to be flexible teaching tools Covering themes across the National Curriculum including events of national importance the lives of significant individuals the changing power of monarchs aspects of social history from past to present and significant turning points this toolkit makes it possible for all primary teachers to bring history to life throughout Key Stages 1 and 2 Scary Schools and Horrid Homework John Townsend, 2006 What did people write on before paper was invented What was school like in the 1800s How have teaching methods changed over the years Dramatic photos and illustrations as well as real life accounts will give readers a revealing snapshot of education throughout history

How Did Your Locality Change in Victorian Times? Jill Barber, 2006 Following on from the hugely successful Start Up History Step Up History has been created specifically to support the schemes of work in the History Curriculum at KS2 the next step up Highly illustrated with colour photographs and diagrams each spread addresses a particular topic Text is clear and divided into easily digestible paragraphs whilst key words are highlighted Suggestion boxes throughout each book provide activities and tips for the reader whilst a spread at the back for teachers and parents provides more activity suggestions and advice on how to use the book with children History 5 Rhona Whiteford, 2005-02 English 5-11 David Waugh, Wendy Jolliffe, 2013-02-11 English is central to the primary school curriculum since it permeates all subject areas Now fully updated English 5 11 provides comprehensive up to date and creative guidance on teaching English in the primary school Key areas covered include Communication language and literacy Grammar and punctuation Talk for learning Synthetic phonics Drama Reading and writing Fiction and poetry Creativity Teaching in a multilingual classroom Spelling ICT Assessment Written by highly experienced authors and former government advisors with frontline teaching school management and teacher training experience each manageable chapter provides the busy teacher with indispensable advice and guidance as well as opportunities to reflect upon current practice in the classroom This second edition reflects changes in government policy and gives greater attention to systematic synthetic phonics assessment drama and talk for writing and is closely related to the changing curriculum for primary English English 5 11 will be an invaluable resource to all trainee and practising teachers interested in teaching English in an accessible contemporary and dynamic way School Turnaround in Secondary Schools Coby V. Meyers, Marlene J. Darwin, 2019-12-01 In the continuing quest to turnaround the lowest performing schools rapid and sustainable reform or school turnaround seems most elusive for secondary schools Secondary schools are rife with challenges due to their wide ranging mission and organizational complexity With the continued emphasis on college and career readiness and the vast learning possibilities enhanced by technology our third book in this series Contemporary Perspectives on School Turnaround and Reform focuses on rapid school turnaround and reform in secondary schools In this edited volume researchers and scholars consider the doubly perplexing challenge of school turnaround or the rapid improvement of the lowest performing secondary schools Although there is some evidence that school turnaround policy can impact student achievement scores research across international contexts seldom identifies schools that substantially changed student learning trajectories and sustained them Separately many societies have found improving secondary schools a relatively intractable problem for multiple reasons including school size and complexity the micropolitics of teaching and leading within them and cumulative widening student achievement gaps In combination there are almost no examples of low performing secondary schools turning around The chapters in this book begin to offer some hope about how policymakers practitioners and researchers might begin to reconceptualize how they engage in and undertake the work of rapidly improving low performing secondary schools The authors provide theoretical and conceptual advancements offer lessons learned from both successful and unsuccessful initiatives and address practical issues with potentially accessible ways forward

Learning to Teach History in the Secondary School Terry Haydn, James Arthur, Martin Hunt, Alison M. Stephen, 2008 In some hands history can be an inspirational and rewarding subject yet in others it can seem dry and of little relevance The aim of this textbook is to enable trainee teachers to learn to teach history in a way that pupils will find interesting enjoyable and purposeful It incorporates a wide range of ideas about the teaching of history with practical suggestions for classroom practice This is the third edition of a textbook that has established itself as the leading text for student teachers of history It has been thoroughly updated with a revised chapter on the use of ICT in history teaching and major new sections in the areas of inclusion resources assessment and professional development It provides a wide range of references and materials that provide a sound theoretical foundation for the teaching of history including weblinks to a range of further resources A range of tasks enable students to put their learning into practice in the classroom The book also provides reference and access to a wide range of recent and relevant research in the field of history education which will be of use to student teachers pursuing courses which have a Masters level component In all it is an invaluable resource for trainee and beginning history teachers This book is without question the standard text for the history PGCE market Dr Ian Davies University of York on the first edition

Teaching Humanities in Primary Schools Pat

Hoodless, Elaine McCreery, Paul Bowen, Sue Bermingham, 2009-09-10 This book supports primary trainees in their learning and teaching approach to the core humanities subjects geography history and religion It promotes an integrated approach to these subject areas and encourages trainees to reflect on the links between subjects across the curriculum from the Early Years Foundation Stage through to Key Stage 2 This edition has been updated to incorporate the revised Professional Standards for the Award of QTS and addresses key initiatives such as Excellence and Enjoyment Every Child Matters and the Primary National Strategy for Literacy and Mathematics

School Space and its Occupation, 2018-09-06 School Space and its Occupation addresses the ongoing and pressing need for justification of education and environmental innovation Further the increasingly important work of evaluating the new learning spaces brings attention to the need for conceptual and methodological clarity The editors have assembled a collection of leading authors to explore the links between education and design progression of ideas in education and architecture as well as making sense of pedagogical trends and spatial and design relevance Post occupancy evaluation is capable of informing both educational and architectural questions to generate sustainable adaptations for educators and designers Part 2 focuses on the occupancy phase and examines the lived experience of schools to draw conclusions and make recommendations focused impacts and methodological progression
