The King of the Wood James George Frazer, 1911 Frazer's series which attempted to define the shared elements of religious belief and scientific thought discussing fertility rites human sacrifice the dying god the scapegoat and many other symbols and practices whose influences had extended into 20th century culture His thesis is that old religions were fertility cults that revolved around the worship and periodic sacrifice of a sacred king Frazer proposed that mankind progresses from magic through religious belief to scientific thought Interpreting Deposits A. votive deposit at the main shrine of Satricum Peter Attema presents in his paper evidence of a recent survey in the area around Sezze ancient Setia The paper by Marjan Gaestlin discusses Roman coin hoards in the Netherlands The last paper not related to the central topic of this issue is by Patricia Roncoroni who studies children's graves in Latium during the early Iron Age
