Enright Donal Ryan Claire Kilroy Kevin Barry Gerard Donovan Danielle McLaughlin Trisha McKinney Billy O Callaghan and Colum McCann In light of writing by geographers anthropologists and philosophers like Doreen Massey Tim Ingold Giorgio Agamben and Jeff Malpas this book examines metamorphoses of place and landscape in fiction in the aftermath of a crisis with deep economic and cultural consequences It shows what place and landscape representations reveal of the past and how boundedness openness and emergence can contribute to designing future landscapes

The Sea Richard Hamblyn, 2021-10-13 Sailing across time and geography the imaginary and the real The Sea chronicles the many physical and cultural meanings of the watery abyss This book explores the sea and its meanings from ancient myths to contemporary geopolitics from Atlantis to the Mediterranean migrant crisis Richard Hamblyn traces a cultural and geographical journey from estuary to abyss beginning with the topographies of the shoreline and ending with the likely futures of our maritime environments Along the way he considers the sea as a site of work and endurance of story and song of language leisure and longing By meditating on the sea as both a physical and a cultural presence the book shines new light on the sea and its indelible place in the human imagination

Irish Contemporary Landscapes in Literature and the Arts M. Mianowski, 2011-12-06 Looking at representations of the Irish landscape in contemporary literature and the arts this volume discusses the economic political and environmental issues associated with it questioning the myths behind Ireland's landscape from the first Greek descriptions to present day post Celtic Tiger architecture

Conversations with Colum McCann Earl G. Ingersoll, Mary C. Ingersoll, 2017-07-13 Conversations with Colum McCann brings together eighteen interviews with a world renowned fiction writer Ranging from his 1994 literary debut Fishing the Sloe Black River to a new and unpublished interview conducted in 2016 these interviews represent the development as well as the continuation of McCann's interests The number and length of the later conversations attest to his star power Let the Great World Spin earned him the National Book Award and promises to become a major motion picture His most recent novel TransAtlantic has awed readers with its dynamic yoking of the 1845-1846 visit of Frederick Douglass to Ireland the 1919 first nonstop transatlantic flight of Alcock and Brown and Senator George Mitchell's 1998 efforts to achieve a peace accord in Northern Ireland An extensive interview by scholar Cecile Maudet is included here as is an interview by John Cusatis who wrote Understanding Colum McCann the first extensive critical analysis of McCann's work An author who actually enjoys talking about his work McCann's 1965 offers insights into his method of writing what he hopes to achieve as well as the challenge of writing each novel to go beyond his accomplishments in the novel before Readers will note how many of his responses include stories in which he himself is the object of the humor and how often his remarks reveal insights into his character as a man who sees the grittiness of the urban landscape but never loses faith in the strength of ordinary people and their capacity to prevail

Irish Literature in the Celtic Tiger Years 1990 to 2008 Susan Cahill, 2011-04-01 When Irish culture and economics underwent rapid changes during the Celtic Tiger Years Anne Enright Colum McCann and his N

Dhuibhne began writing Now that period of Irish history has closed this study uncovers how their writing captured that unique historical moment By showing how N Dhuibhne s novels act as considered arguments against attempts to disavow the past how McCann s protagonists come to terms with their history and how Enright s fiction explores connections and relationships with the female body Susan Cahill s study pinpoints common concerns for contemporary Irish writers the relationship between the body memory and history between generations and between past and present Cahill is able to raise wider questions about Irish culture by looking specifically at how writers engage with the body In exploring the writers concern with embodied histories related questions concerning gender race and Irishness are brought to the fore Such interrogations of corporeality alongside history are imperative making this a significant contribution to ongoing debates of feminist theory in Irish Studies

The Lives of the Saints Sebastian Barry, 2022-04-05 OLD GOD S TIME MARCH 2023 SEBASTIAN BARRY S STUNNING NEW NOVEL AVAILABLE TO PRE ORDER NOW From A Long Long Way his Booker shortlisted novel about the Irish soldiers who fought for Britain during the First World War to his Donal McCann starring hit play The Steward of Christendom from his first Costa Book of the Year winning novel The Secret Scripture to his second Days Without End a decade later Sebastian Barry s writing career has been as long and varied as it has extraordinary Intimate revealing and generous of heart these three lectures written and delivered as part of his three year tenure as the Laureate for Irish fiction reflect on his life and career so far and some of the formative moments and people he s met along the way

Ireland and the Americas Philip Coleman, James Byrne, Jason King, 2008-02-01 This work is a distinctive multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the cultural political economic musical and literary impact that Ireland and the nations of the Americas have had on one another since the time of Brendan the Navigator Ireland and the Americas Culture Politics and History aims to broaden the traditional notion of Irish American beyond Boston New York and Chicago In addition to full coverage of Irish culture in those settings it reveals the pervasive Irish influence in everything from the settling of the American West to the spread of Christianity throughout the hemisphere to Irish involvement in revolutionary movements from the American colonies to Mexico to South America In addition the encyclopedia shows the profound impact of Irish Americans on their homeland in everything from art and literature informed by the emigrant experience to efforts by Irish Americans to influence Irish politics Ranging from colonial times to the present and informed by the surge of academic interest in the past 30 years Ireland and the Americas is the definitive resource on the profound ties that bind the cultures of Ireland the United States Canada and Latin America

This Side of Brightness Susan Cahill, Eóin Flannery, 2012 The concepts of Ireland and Irishness are in constant flux in the wake of an ever increasing reappraisal of the notion of cultural and national specificity in a world assailed from all angles by the forces of globalisation and uniformity Reimagining Ireland interrogates Ireland s past and present and suggests possibilities for the future by looking at Ireland s literature culture and history and subjecting them to the most up to date critical appraisals associated with sociology literary theory historiography and pure life force on every page of Let the Great World Spin that you'll find yourself giddy, dizzy, overwhelmed. Dave Eggers' stunning elegiac glimpse of hope is a novel rooted firmly in time and place. It vividly captures New York at its worst and best. But it transcends all that. In the end, it's a novel about families, the ones we're born into and the ones we make for ourselves. USA Today: The first great 9/11 novel. We are all dancing on the wire of history and even on solid ground we breathe the thinnest of air. Esquire: Mesmerizing. A Joycean look at the lives of New Yorkers changed by a single act on a single day. Colum McCann's marvelously rich novel weaves a portrait of a city and a moment dizzily satisfying to read and difficult to put down. The Seattle Times: Vibrantly whole. With a series of spare, gorgeously wrought vignettes, Colum McCann brings 1970s New York to life. And as always, McCann's heart-stoppingly simple descriptions wow. Entertainment Weekly: An act of pure bravado, dizzily proving that to keep your balance you need to know how to fall. O, The Oprah Magazine: The Broadview Introduction to Literature: Short Fiction Lisa Chalykoff, Neta Gordon, Paul Lumsden, 2013-08-09. Designed for courses taught at the introductory level in Canadian universities and colleges, this new anthology provides a rich selection of literary texts. In each genre, the anthology includes a vibrant mix of classic and contemporary works. Each work is accompanied by an author biography and by explanatory notes, and each genre is prefaced by a substantial introduction. Pedagogically current and uncommon in its breadth of representation, The Broadview Introduction to Literature invites students into the world of literary study in a truly distinctive way. The short fiction volume of The Broadview Introduction to Literature gathers 39 important short stories from Edgar Allan Poe to Sherman Alexie. Examples of microfiction, illustrated fiction, and formally innovative stories are included along with classics of the genre. Understanding Contemporary Irish Fiction and Drama Margaret Hallissy, 2016-08-01. A study of the key themes and events essential to understanding Irish fiction and drama. In Understanding Contemporary Irish Fiction and Drama, Margaret Hallissy examines the work of a cross-section of important Irish writers of the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries who are representative of essential issues and themes in the canon of contemporary Irish literature. Included are early figures John Millington Synge and James Joyce, dramatists Brian Friel, Conor McPherson, and Tom Murphy, and prize-winning contemporary fiction writers such as Edna O'Brien, Joseph O'Connor, William Trevor, Roddy Doyle, and Colum McCann. Each chapter focuses on one significant representative piece of contemporary Irish fiction or drama by filling in its cultural, historical, and literary background. Hallissy identifies a key theme or key event in the Irish past essential to understanding the work. She then analyzes earlier literary compositions with the same theme and, through a close reading of the contemporary work, provides context for that background. The chapters are organized chronologically by relevant historical events, with thematic discussions interspersed. Background pieces were chosen for their places in Irish literature and the additional insight they provide into the featured works. Twist Colum McCann, 2025-03-25. A propulsive novel of rupture and repair in the digital age, delving into a hidden world deep under the ocean from the New York Times bestselling author of Apeirogon and Let the Great World Spin. The spirit of Joseph Conrad hovers over the text but here the heart of darkness lies at the bottom of the ocean Salman Rushdie Everything gets fixed and we all stay broken Anthony Fennell an Irish journalist and playwright is assigned to cover the underwater cables that carry the world's information The sum of human existence words images transactions memes voices viruses travels through the tiny fiber optic tubes But sometimes the tubes break at an unfathomable depth Fennell's journey brings him to the west coast of Africa where he uncovers a story about the raw human labor behind the dazzling veneer of the technological world He meets a fellow Irishman John Conway the chief of mission on a cable repair ship The mysterious Conway is a skilled engineer and a freediver capable of reaching extraordinary depths He is also in love with a South African actress Zanele who must leave to go on her own literary adventure to London When the ship is sent up the coast to repair a series of major underwater breaks both men learn that the very cables they seek to fix carry the news that may cause their lives to unravel At sea they are forced to confront the most elemental questions of life love absence belonging and the perils of our severed connections Can we in our fractured world reweave ourselves out of the thin broken threads of our pasts Can the ruptured things awaken us from our despair Resoundingly simple and turbulent at the same time Twist is a meditation on the nature of narrative and truth from one of the great storytellers of our times

Fictions of Migration in Contemporary Britain and Ireland Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2020-04-30 This book examines how the transcultural and transnational migration of people texts and ideas has transformed the paradigm of national literature with Britain and Ireland as case studies The study questions definitions of migration and migrant literature that focus solely on the work of authors with migrant backgrounds and suggests that migration is not extraneous but intrinsic to contemporary understandings of national literature in a global context The fictional work of authors such as Caryl Phillips Colum McCann Abdulrazak Gurnah Rose Tremain Elif Shafak and Evelyn Conlon is analysed from a variety of perspectives including transculturality cosmopolitanism and Afropolitanism so as to emphasise how their work fosters an understanding of national literature as well as of individual and collective identities based on transborder interconnectivity

Representing the Troubles in Irish Short Fiction Michael L. Storey, 2004-05 Representing the Troubles in Irish Short Fiction offers a comprehensive examination of Irish short stories written over the last eighty years that have treated the Troubles Ireland's intractable conflict that arose out of its relationship to England
