issue a dozen new films every year and his impressive filmography have earned him the titles of shlockmeister and the King of the B s among film journalists On the other hand he became the youngest American director to be given a film retrospective at the prestigious Cin mat que Fran aise in Paris one of his directorial efforts House of Usher was selected for preservation in the National Film Registry by the Library of Congress and the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences awarded him with an Academy Honorary Award for his rich engendering of films and filmmakers This book investigates this duality and explores whether Corman is indeed a shlockmeister or an artist whose works are worthy of the highest cinema awards The scope of analysis is limited to his directorial efforts only still encompassing 50 features excluding the 400 films he produced The methodology adopted here is based on the auteur theory in its structuralist version by Geoffrey Nowell Smith and Peter Wollen and focuses on three areas of interest work ethic personal elements in the films personal control over and commitment to the production process outside direction themes topics and concerns common for many of the films regardless of the genre and style recurring stylistic motifs and elements in the camerawork editing and framing

Wild Beyond Belief! Brian Albright, 2015-01-27 Exploitation filmmakers played a significant role in revolutionizing American cinema during the 1960s and early 1970s churning out a string of independent Westerns biker films nudie cuties and horror flicks in record times and often on shoestring budgets With titles like Horror of the Blood Monsters Cycle Savages and The Incredible 2 Headed Transplant these films pushed the boundaries of acceptable on screen violence and nudity and kept the American theater industry afloat as several major studios teetered on the brink of financial collapse This work tells the story of that other Hollywood through interviews with 16 directors performers screenwriters and stuntmen who helped bring these zero budget films to the screen against incredible odds The interviews give insights into exploitation filmmaking from the perspectives of pioneering directors Al Adamson and Jack Hill actors Jenifer Bishop and Robert Dix and stuntmen Gary Kent and Gary Littlejohn and others The work includes more than 50 photographs including many rare behind the scenes images of the filmmakers on set Gone with the Glory Brian Steel Wills, 2011-10-16 From Birth of a Nation to Cold Mountain hundreds of directors actors and screenwriters have used the Civil War to create compelling cinema However each generation of moviemakers has resolved the tug of war between entertainment value and historical accuracy differently Historian Brian Steel Wills takes readers on a journey through the portrayal of the war in film exploring what Hollywood got right and wrong how the films influenced each other and ultimately how the movies reflect America s changing understandings of the conflict and of the nation Patterns of Bias in Hollywood Movies John W. Cones, 2012 It s pretty broadly recognized that Hollywood movies contain patterns of bias but it s not just people of color or women who are hurt by this Many groups within America s multicultural society have complained over the years about negative and stereotypical portrayals of their own group members in motion pictures produced or released through the Hollywood based studios Yet as an expert on the U S film industry points out such complaints have had little impact on consistent patterns of bias in movies This book takes a broader look at the nature of negative and stereotypical movie portrayals and tracks patterns of such one sided depictions over a longer period time As a result the patterns of bias and the source the problem become more clear The problem appears to be that most of the people who have green light authority in the U S film industry for either the production and or distribution of a motion picture share a common ethnic religious cultural background Thus the stories of their cohort and those of all other ethnic religious and or cultural groups whose members seldom achieve positions of power Hollywood are being filtered through the cultural sensibilities of a single group John Cones suggests that the solution could lie in increasing diversity at the highest levels in the U S film industry This work grew out of the observed frustration of film industry critics who have pointed out examples of bias and stereotyping in specific movies over the years only to be rebuffed by the simplistic studio arguments that such films reflect the real world and that moviegoers vote with their pocket books It can be shown that there is a consistent pattern to the choices Hollywood studio executives make with respect to the movies produced and released and the specific content of those movies and it becomes obvious that Hollywood is selectively portraying reality Movie goers only have limited options among all of the possibilities that could be portrayed on the silver screen This book differs from other studies touching on bias in motion pictures Most such books focus on the treatment of a single ethnic religious cultural racial or other readily identifiable interest group but this study attempts to provide an overview and to identify patterns over time When the patterns of bias in motion picture content are sufficiently demonstrated and documented it becomes easier to identify the source of the bias and to explain why such bias exists The Psychotronic Video Guide To Film Michael Weldon,1996 The bible of B movies is back and better than ever From Abby to Zontar this book covers more than 9 000 amazing movies from the turn of the century right up to today s Golden Age of Video all described with Michael Weldon s dry wit More than 450 rare and wonderful illustrations round out thie treasure trove of cinematic lore an essential reference for every bad film fan Obituaries in the Performing Arts, 2017 Harris M. Lentz III,2018-05-14 The entertainment world lost many notable talents in 2017 including iconic character actor Harry Dean Stanton comedians Jerry Lewis and Dick Gregory country singer Glen Campbell playwright Sam Shepard and actor singer Jim Nabors Obituaries of actors filmmakers musicians producers dancers composers writers animals and others associated with the performing arts who died in 2017 are included Date place and cause of death are provided for each along with a career recap and a photograph Filmographies are given for film and television performers
