

5 LIFE-CHANGING IDEAS FROM IKIGAI

What Is Ikigai?

Ikigai: the Japanese term for a person's reason for existing, or life purpose.

The Japanese believe that each of us has a different ikigai.

Your ikigai could center on a sport, your job, or anything else. You may also have more than one.

Look for Flow

What activities help you achieve flow—the state in which you're so immersed in an experience that you lose track of time?

If you don't know, try doing one task at a time and seeing where it takes you.

The activities in which you naturally experience flow may be your ikigai.

Limit Distractions

The more time you spend in flow-generating ikigai, the happier you'll be.

Create distraction-free environments, which are conducive to entering flow.

- Limit your non-essential technology usage.
- Train yourself to return your attention to the present whenever you get distracted.

Follow Japan's 80% Rule

Follow hara hachi bu: Stop eating when you feel 80 percent full.

Eating fewer calories frees up energy that would otherwise go to digestion and protects you against negative health conditions like cardiovascular disease.

Try reducing your portion sizes or skipping dessert.

Embrace Wabi-Sabi

Wabi-sabi means finding beauty in imperfection and loveliness in things that are incomplete or flawed.

What in your life could you apply this attitude to?

Embracing wabi-sabi provides the resilience you need to pursue your ikigai through setbacks.
