Bradford, 2008-06-30 History of gay and lesbian literature Reader's advisory service Classics General fiction HIV AIDS and other health issues Historical fiction Romance Fantasy Science fiction Horror Mystery Graphic novels Drama Life stories biography autobiography and memoirs 2.5 Minute Ride and 101 Humiliating Stories Lisa Kron, 2000-05-01 This book collects Lisa Kron's two extraordinary solo performance works Best known for her ongoing work as a member of The Five Lesbian Brothers Kron's solo pieces are very personal examinations of both herself and her family history This is singularly clear in 2 5 Minute Ride where her writing deftly maneuvers between the tragic drama of the Holocaust and the wry comedy of her family's attempts to pursue pleasure at the local amusement park. This critically acclaimed work played to sold out audience for over six months at New York's Public Theatre. Also included is the riotous 101 Humiliating Stories which first premiered in 1993 and in fact only consists of seventeen tales but each as the author observes has several humiliations. It recounts the adventures and misadventures of a self-described Big Lesbian as she tests the boundaries of decorum in social and professional situations.

Retroactivism in the Lesbian Archives Jean Bessette, 2018 Winner 2018 Winifred Bryan Horner Outstanding Book Award. Grassroots historiography has been essential in shaping American sexual identities in the twentieth century. Retroactivism in the Lesbian Archives examines how lesbian collectives have employed retroactivist rhetorics to propel change in present identification and politics. By appropriating and composing versions of the past, these collectives question, challenge, deconstruct, and reinvent historical discourse itself to negotiate and contest lesbian identity. Bessette considers a diverse array of primary sources including grassroots newsletters, place-based archives, experimental documentary films, and digital video collections to investigate how retroactivists have revised and replaced dominant accounts of lesbian deviance. Her analysis reveals inventive rhetorical strategies leveraged by these rhetors to belie the alienating, dispersing effects of discourses that painted women with same sex desire as diseased and criminal. Focusing on the Daughters of Bilitis, the Lesbian Herstory Archives and the June L Mazer Archives and on historiographic filmmakers such as Barbara Hammer and Cheryl Dunye, Bessette argues that these retroactivists composed versions of a queer past that challenged then-present oppressions, joined together provisional communities, and disrupted static definitions and associations of lesbian identity. Retroactivism in the Lesbian Archives issues a challenge to feminist and queer scholars to acknowledge how historiographic rhetoric functions in defining and contesting identities and the historical forces that shape them.
