

KAREN (contd)

(beat)

Okay. See you in the morning.

She hangs up.

ANGELA

Sounds like they're trying to get rid of you.

KAREN

They're going to get a fight if they try.

ANGELA

Karen, you ever been downtown? There's two big streets, one's called Kerr and one's called McGee and that's how I see it. They own this state, they own everybody in this state. They own practically everybody I work on.

She makes a final little embellishing touch on DOLLY.

ANGELA (contd)

(to Karen, indicating Dolly's face)

What do you think?

KAREN

What kind of makeup base do you use?

ANGELA

The kind I always use.

DREW comes into the kitchen. His banjo is hanging around his neck on a strap. He opens the icebox, takes out the only beer left. Scowls.

DREW

I don't mind somebody taking one of my beers if they replace it.

KAREN

You're making a big deal about everything lately.

DREW

Everything's going to hell around here.

Slams the icebox.

KAREN

Meaning you're out of beer?
