

BARE BACK AND BOW

An instant top for sunny days. If you choose to make this idea with bright cotton and wild prints then it is perfect for the beach and garden. Worn with a sarong it would make a cool outfit for hot, sticky days.

In a very different mood the same arrangement could be made for evening using a soft chiffon or silk scarf to wear with wide trousers or long, draped sarong shaped skirt. It could also look stunning worn under an evening jacket so that just the folded fabric showed at the front. For a more enclosed look a wide cummerbund sash could cover the midriff.

You can vary this arrangement slightly by wrapping the scarf round the neck, crossing it then tying it behind the waist. This works well with a stretchy knitted fabric scarf.

1 With the middle of the scarf at the center of the lower back bring the scarf forward.

2 Cross the scarf at the front and pull tightly up to the neck.

3 Tie the scarf ends behind your neck into a double knot. Tighten or loosen knot for comfort.
