King, 2020-03-03 In the vein of Girlboss and Nice Girls Don t Get the Corner Office discover how to thrive at work from the head of the Global Innovation Coalition for Change at UN Women with this passionate practical roadmap for addressing inequality and finally making our workplaces work for women Arianna Huffington For years we ve been telling women that in order to succeed at work they have to change themselves first lean in negotiate like a man don t act too nice or you ll never get the corner office But after sixteen years working with major Fortune 500 companies as a gender equality expert Michelle King has realized one simple truth the tired advice of fixing women doesn t fix anything The truth is that workplaces are gendered they were designed by men for men Because of this most organizations unconsciously carry the idea of an ideal worker typically a straight white man who doesn't have to juggle work and family commitments Based on King's research and exclusive interviews with major companies and thought leaders The Fix reveals why denying the fact that women are held back just because they are women what she calls gender denial is the biggest obstacle holding women back at work and outlines the hidden sexism and invisible barriers women encounter at work every day Women who speak up are seen as pushy Women who ask for a raise are seen as difficult Women who spend hours networking don t get the same career benefits as men do Because women don't look like the ideal worker and can't behave like the ideal worker they are passed over for promotions paid less and pushed out of the workforce not because they aren t good enough but because they aren t men In this fascinating and empowering book King outlines the invisible barriers that hold women back at all stages of their careers and provides readers with a clear set of takeaways to thrive despite the sexist workplace as they fight for change from within Gender equality is not about women and it is not about men it is about making workplaces work for everyone Together we can fix work not women Fatherhood, Authority, and British Reading Culture, 1831-1907 Melissa Shields Jenkins, 2016-04-15 During a period when the idea of fatherhood was in flux and individual fathers sought to regain a cohesive collective identity debates related to a father's authority were negotiated and resolved through competing documents Melissa Shields Jenkins analyzes the evolution of patriarchal authority in nineteenth century culture drawing from extra literary and non narrative source material as well as from novels Arquing that Victorian novelists reinvent patriarchy by recourse to conduct books biography religious manuals political speeches and professional writing in the fields of history and science Jenkins offers interdisciplinary case studies of Elizabeth Gaskell George Meredith William Makepeace Thackeray George Eliot Samuel Butler and Thomas Hardy Jenkins s book contributes to our understanding of the part played by fathers in the Victorian cultural imagination and sheds new light on the structures underlying the Victorian novel Stop Trying to Fix Policing Tony Gaskew,2020-12-16 In Stop Trying to Fix Policing Lessons Learned from the Front Lines of Black Liberation Tony Gaskew guides readers through the phenomena of police abolition using the cultural lens of the Black radical tradition The author weaves an electrifying combination of critical race theory spiritual inheritance decolonization self determination and armed resistance into a critical autoethnographic journey that illuminates the rituals of revolution required for dismantling the institution of American policing Stop Trying to Fix Policing is an essential work for anyone who wants to go beyond the rhetoric of police reform to the next step contributing to the formation of a world without policing

Lost in Space Marleen S. Barr, 2017-11-01 Archaeologists and anthropologists discover other civilizations science fiction writers invent them In this collection of her major essays Marleen Barr argues that feminist science fiction writers contribute to postmodern literary canons with radical alternatives to mainstream patriarchal society Because feminist science fiction challenges male centered social imperatives it has been marginalized and dismissed from the canon thus lost in space Moving beyond feminist science fiction itself Barr goes on to examine other literary genres from the perspective of feminist fabulation a term she has coined to encompass science fiction fantasy utopian literature and mainstream literature that critiques patriarchal fictions Discussing the works of such writers as Margaret Atwood Joanna Russ Salman Rushdie Paul Theroux Ursula Le Guin Herman Melville Saul Bellow Edgar Allan Poe and Marge Piercy Barr illuminates feminist science fiction's connections to other literary traditions and contemporary canons Her critical analysis yields a new and expanded understanding of feminist creativity Confessing the Flesh Lesley Higgins, 2025-06-26 A new theoretical reading of the renowned poet and Jesuit priest Confessing the Flesh is an expansive interdisciplinary analysis of how aesthetic and religious discourses function in dialogue in the work of Gerard Manley Hopkins the celebrated Victorian era poet and Catholic priest Through Hopkins Lesley Higgins reveals how religion was expressed lived and debated in the nineteenth century Both a comprehensive analysis of innovative Victorian poetry and a cultural history of confession this book builds on previous Hopkins criticism by adopting a new approach informed by feminist and Foucauldian theory With its analysis of the cultural conditions and power relations that sustained religious belief and poetic expression in the Victorian age Confessing the Flesh offers new insights on the perennial question of Hopkins's religious commitments And with its examination of everything from theological treatises to Punch cartoons Higgins's exploration of Hopkins's confessional modes uncovers the ways that gender and nation become implicated in confessional controversies and fleshly entanglements If It Ain't Woke, Don't Fix It Ben Shapiro, 2022-11 We all know 2021 and 2022 have been hard on Americans and the radical Left hasn t missed a single opportunity to scold everyday Americans who don't subscribe to an ideology that inaccurately brands itself as the vanguard of social justice In this collection of syndicated columns Ben Shapiro expertly refutes the fictions the Left depends on to survive From demonizing dissent to outright lying this collection compiles the greatest sins of the pious Left and gives conservatives the tools to fight back Novel Science Adelene Buckland, 2022-12-22 Novel Science is the first in depth study of the shocking groundbreaking and sometimes beautiful writings of the gentlemen of the heroic age of geology and of the contribution these men made to the literary culture of their day For these men literature was an essential part of the practice of science itself as important to their efforts as mapmaking fieldwork and observation. The reading and writing of imaginative literatures helped them to discover imagine debate and give shape and meaning to millions of years of previously undiscovered earth history Borrowing from the historical fictions of Walter Scott and the poetry of Lord Byron they invented geology as a science discovered many of the creatures we now call the dinosaurs and were the first to unravel and map the sequence and structure of stratified rock As Adelene Buckland shows they did this by rejecting the grand narratives of older theories of the earth or of biblical cosmogony theirs would be a humble science faithfully recording minute details and leaving the big picture for future generations to paint Buckland also reveals how these scientists just as they had drawn inspiration from their literary predecessors gave Victorian realist novelists such as George Eliot Charles Kingsley and Charles Dickens a powerful language with which to create dark and disturbing ruptures in the too seductive sweep of story

The Lyric in Victorian Memory Veronica Alfano, 2017-11-11 This book is a study of nineteenth century poems that remember yearn for fixate on and forget the past Reflecting the current critical drive to reconcile formalist and historicist approaches to literature it uses close readings to trace the complex interactions between memory as a theme and the often memorable formal traits such as brevity stanzaic structure and sonic repetition that appear in the lyrics examined This book considers the interwoven nature of remembering and forgetting in the work of four Victorian poets It uses this theme to shed new light on the relationship between lyric and narrative on the connections between gender and genre and on the way in which Victorians represented and commemorated the past The Marriage of Minds Rachel Ablow, 2007 The Marriage of Minds examines the implications of the common Victorian claim that novel reading can achieve the psychic ethical and affective benefits also commonly associated with sympathy in married life Through close readings of canonical texts in relation to the histories of sympathy marriage and reading The Marriage of Minds begins to fill a long standing gap between eighteenth century philosophical notions of sympathy and twentieth century psychoanalytic concepts of identification It examines the wide variety of ways in which novels were understood to educate or reform readers in the mid nineteenth century Finally it demonstrates how both the form of the Victorian novel and the experience supposed to result from that form were implicated in ongoing debates about the nature purpose and law of marriage Reading Sexualities Donald E. Hall, 2012-08-06 Reading Sexualities confronts the reigning practices priorities and preoccupations of queer theory and sexuality studies Looking at a range of texts from novels to travel narratives to internet porn Donald E Hall deftly weaves the theoretical with the literary in order to examine the vexed ethical critical and political questions arising from sexual consumerism and cross cultural encounters read the changing landscape of sexual identity finding great cause for optimism and enthusiastic engagement urge readers to embrace a far reaching dialogic practice as a mechanism for furthering radical social change Reading Sexualities shows how our sexual desires and bases for identification are being widely challenged and changed Drawing on hermeneutic theory and the work of Hans Georg Gadamer Hall argues that by approaching sexual diversity with openness and humility we become active participants in the politically urgent process of reading the self through the perspective of the other Palgrave Advances in Charles Dickens Studies R. This is the first book ever published to document and critically interrogate a range of needlework made by men It reveals that since medieval times men have threaded their own needles stitched and knitted woven lace handmade clothes as well as other kinds of textiles and generally delighted in the pleasures and possibilities offered by all sorts of needlework Only since the dawn of the modern age in the eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries did needlework become closely aligned with new ideologies of the feminine Since then men s needlework has been read not just as feminising but as queer In this groundbreaking study Joseph McBrinn argues that needlework by male artists as well as anonymous tailors sailors soldiers convalescents paupers prisoners hobbyists and a multitude of other men and boys deserves to be looked at again Drawing on a wealth of examples of men's needlework as well as visual representations of the male needleworker in museum collections from artist s papers and archives in forgotten magazines and specialist publications popular novels and children's literature and even in the history of photography film and television he surveys and analyses many of the instances in which needlemen have contested resisted and subverted the constrictive ideals of modern masculinity This audacious original carefully researched and often amusing study demonstrates the significance of needlework by men in understanding their feelings agency identity and history Plots and Proposals Karen Tracey, 2000 Boy meets girl Boy proposes to girl Girl refuses proposal Then what This provocative scenario provides the frame for a significant countertradition in popular nineteenth century women s novels the double proposal plot in which the heroine rejects and later accepts proposals from the same suitor Exploring the

American wing of this movement through the novels of Carolyn Hentz Augusta Evans Laura I Curtis Bullard E D E N Southworth and Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Karen Tracey investigates how each of these writers is constrained by her historical circumstances and how she uses her fiction to critique those circumstances Pioneered in Britain by Jane Austen Charlotte Bront and Elizabeth Barrett Browning the double proposal plot dislodges the myth of Mr Right and questions the all powerful notions of true love and happily ever after When the heroine rejects her suitor s initial proposal she opens up the possibility of renegotiating the terms of the relationship and exploring alternative roles By considering two possible marriages between the same set of partners the double proposal plot interrogates the role of middle class women in courtship and in public life as well as the quality of married life and the influence a woman potentially brings to it Tracey charts the genre s evolution from novels that seek answers within renegotiated marriages to those that challenge the efficacy of marriage itself Reconstructing some of the cultural circumstances that would have influenced the writing publishing and reading of the novels Plots and Proposals examines how changing notions of love and romance both inform and are critiqued by this Gilbert and Sullivan Carolyn Williams, 2012 An examination of Gilbert and Sullivan's comic operas and renegade fiction how parody was used in the culture wars of late nineteenth century England Queer Theories Donald E. Hall,2017-03-07 This essential introductory guide explores and aggressively expands the provocative new field of sexual identity studies It explains the history of sexual identity categories such as gay and lesbian covers the reclamation of gueer as a term of radical self identification and details recent challenges to sexual identity studies posed by transgender and bisexual theories Donald E Hall offers concrete applications of the abstract theories he explores with imaginative new readings of such works as The Yellow Wallpaper Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Orlando and The Color Purple Throughout Hall urges the reader to grapple with the changing nature of sexual identity in the twenty first century and asks searching questions about how we might identify ourselves differently given new technologies and new possibilities for sexual experimentation To students theorists and activists alike Queer Theories issues a challenge to continue to disrupt narrow traditional notions of sexual normality and to resist setting up new and confining categories of true sexual identity Nineteenth-Century Narratives of Contagion Allan Conrad Christensen, 2007-04-11 This intriguing book examines the ways contagion or disease inform and shape a wide variety of nineteenth century texts and contexts Christiensen dissects the cultural assumptions concerning disease health impurity and so on before exploring different perspectives on key themes such as plague nursing and the hospital environment and focusing on certain key texts including Dicken's Bleak House Gaskell's Ruth and Zola's Le Docteur Pascal

Allegories of Union in Irish and English Writing, 1790-1870 Mary Jean Corbett,2000-09-14 In this book Mary Jean Corbett explores fictional and non fictional representations of Ireland's relationship with England throughout the nineteenth century Through postcolonial and feminist theory she considers how cross cultural contact is negotiated through tropes of marriage and family and demonstrates how familial rhetoric sometimes works to sustain sometimes to contest the structures of colonial inequality Analyzing novels by Edgeworth Owenson Gaskell Kingsley and Trollope as well as writings by Burke Carlyle Engels Arnold and Mill Corbett argues that the colonizing imperative for reforming the Irish in an age of imperial expansion constitutes a largely unrecognized but crucial element in the rhetorical project of English nation formation By situating her readings within the varying historical and rhetorical contexts that shape them she revises the critical orthodoxies surrounding colonial discourse that currently prevail in Irish and English studies and offers a fresh perspective on important aspects of Victorian culture
