Flash Afrique Photography From West Africa:

Flash Afrique! Gerald Matt, Thomas Miessgang, Barbara Schröder, 2002 Terra incognita Heart of darkness How about stylish continent as one magazine once wrote The gigantic landmass that is Africa over which a colonial shadow still looms is a territory of projections and misunderstandings The West African photographers presented in Flash Afrique including Philip Kwame Apagya Dorris Haron Kasco Seydou Keita Boubacar Tour Mand mory Bouna Medoune Seye and Malick Sidib tell stories about the tension between dreams and reality Elaborately arranged studio portraits reveal how Africa sees itself Documentary images comment on the sheer craziness of overpopulated cities and conversations with the photographers open up an art scene only recently begun to emerge from the shadows Photography in Portuguese Colonial Africa, 1860-1975 Filipa Lowndes Vicente, Afonso Dias Ramos, 2023-08-31 This edited collection presents the first critical and historical overview of photography in Portuguese colonial Africa to an English speaking audience Photography in Portuguese Colonial Africa 1860 1975 brings together sixteen scholars from interdisciplinary fields as varied as history anthropology art history visual culture and museum studies to consider some of the key aspects in the visual representation of the longest lasting European colonial empire in the African continent The chapters span over two centuries and cover five formerly colonial territories Angola Cabo Verde Guinea Bissau Mozambique and S o Tom and Pr ncipe deploying a range of methodologies to explore the multiple meanings and the contested uses of the photographic image across the realms of politics science culture and war This book responds to a marked surge of international interest in the relationship between photography and colonialism which has hitherto largely overlooked the Portuguese imperial context by delivering the most recent scholarly findings to a broad readership Photography in Africa Richard Vokes, 2012 Gives an ethnographic account of the complexities of the use of photography in Africa both historically and in contemporary practice This collection of studies in African photography examines through a series of empirically rich historical and ethnographic cases the variety of ways in which photographs are produced circulated and engaged across a range of social contexts In so doing it elucidates the distinctive characteristics of African photographic practices and cultures vis vis those of other forms of vernacular photography worldwide In addition these studies develop areflexive turn examining the history of academic engagement with these African photographic cultures and reflecting on the distinctive qualities of the ethnographic method as a means for studying such phenomena The volume critically engages current debates in African photography and visual anthropology First it extends our understanding of the variety of ways in which both colonial and post colonial states in Africa have used photography as a means for establishing and projecting their authority Second it moves discussion of African photography away from an exclusive focus on the role of the the studio and looks at the circulations through which the studios products the photographs themselves later pass as artefacts of material culture Last it makes an important contribution to our understanding of the relationship between photography and ethnographic research methods as these have been employed in

Africa RICHARD VOKES is Senior Lecturer in Anthropology and Development Studies at the University of Adelaide Australia and author of Ghosts of Kanungu Unfixed Jennifer Bajorek,2020-02-07 In Unfixed Jennifer Bajorek traces the relationship between photography and decolonial political imagination in Francophone west Africa in the years immediately leading up to and following independence from French colonial rule in 1960 Focusing on images created by photographers based in Senegal and Benin Bajorek draws on formal analyses of images and ethnographic fieldwork with photographers to show how photography not only reflected but also actively contributed to social and political change The proliferation of photographic imagery through studio portraiture bureaucratic ID cards political reportage and photojournalism magazines and more provided the means for west Africans to express their experiences shape public and political discourse and reimagine their world In delineating how west Africans embrace of photography was associated with and helped spur the democratization of political participation and the development of labor and liberation movements Bajorek tells a new history of photography in west Africa one that theorizes photography's capacity for doing decolonial work Arts of Being Yoruba Adélékè Adéèkó,2017-07-17 There is a culturally significant way of being Yorùbá that is expressed through dress greetings and celebrations no matter where in the world they take place Adéèkó documents Yorùbá patterns of behavior and articulates a philosophy of how to be Yorùbá in this innovative study As he focuses on historical writings If divination practices the use of proverbs in contemporary speech photography gendered ideas of dressing well and the formalities of ceremony and speech at celebratory occasions Adéèkó contends that being Yorùbá is indeed an art and Yorùbáness is a dynamic phenomenon that responds to cultural shifts as Yorùbá people inhabit an increasingly globalized world Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren,2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included

Imaging Culture Candace M. Keller,2021-07-06 Imaging Culture is a sociohistorical study of the meaning function and aesthetic significance of photography in Mali West Africa from the 1930s to the present Spanning the dynamic periods of colonialism national independence socialism and democracy its analysis focuses on the studio and documentary work of professional urban photographers particularly in the capital city of Bamako and in smaller cities such as Mopti and Ségou Featuring the work of more than twenty five photographers it concentrates on those who have been particularly influential for the local development and practice of the medium as well as its international popularization and active participation in the contemporary art market Imaging Culture looks at how local aesthetic ideas are visually communicated in the photographers art and argues that though these aesthetic arrangements have specific relevance for local consumers they transcend geographical and cultural boundaries to have value for contemporary global audiences as well Imaging Culture is an important and visually interesting book which will become a standard source for those who study African photography and its global impact

African Dress Karen Tranberg Hansen,D. Soyini Madison,2013-08-29 Dress and fashion practices in Africa and the diaspora are dynamic and diverse whether on the street or on the fashion runway Focusing on the dressed body as a performance site African Dress explores how ideas and practices of dress contest or legitimize existing power structures through expressions of individual identity and the cultural and political order Drawing on innovative interdisciplinary research by established and up and coming scholars the book examines real life projects and social transformations that are deeply political revolving around individual and public goals of dignity respect status and morality With its remarkable scope this book will attract students and scholars of fashion and dress material culture and consumption performance studies and art history in relation to Africa and on a global scale

Little Book of Contemplative Photography Howard Zehr,2005-03-01 Restorative justice pioneer Howard Zehr is also an accomplished photographer He begins his latest book with a confession I have written this book in part to encourage myself to slow down to heighten my imagination to renew myself while I gain a new view of the creation and the creator With this book Zehr makes a gift to anyone who would like to couple photography with seeing and thinking more deeply In each chapter he offers a Purpose a Problem and an Activity with a camera in order to practice mindfulness You ll not need a fancy camera but if you have one it won t hurt Zehr s chapter by chapter exercises are aimed at heightening visual awareness and imagination all while doing good and working for justice A title in The Little Books of Justice and Peacebuilding Series

Aso Ebi Okechukwu Charles Nwafor,2021-05-24 The Nigerian and West African practice of aso ebi fashion invokes notions of wealth and group dynamics in social gatherings Okechukwu Nwafor s volume Aso ebi investigates the practice in the cosmopolitan urban setting of Lagos and argues that the visual and consumerist hype typical of the late capitalist system feeds this unique fashion practice The book suggests that dress fashion aso ebi and photography engender a new visual culture that largely reflects the economics of mundane living Nwafor examines the practice s societal dilemma whereby the solidarity of aso ebi is dismissed by many as an ephemeral transaction A circuitous transaction among photographers fashion magazine producers textile merchants tailors and individual fashionistas reinvents aso ebi as a product of cosmopolitan urban modernity The results are a fetishization of various forms of commodity culture personality cults through mass followership the negotiation of symbolic power through mass produced images exchange value in human relationships through gifts and a form of exclusion achieved through digital photo editing Aso ebi has become an essential part of Lagos cosmopolitanism as a rising form of a unique visual culture it is central to the unprecedented spread of a unique West African fashion style that revels in excessive textile

Negative/Positive Geoffrey Batchen,2020-12-21 As its title suggests Negative Positive begins with the negative a foundational element of analog photography that is nonetheless usually ignored and uses this to tell a representative rather than comprehensive history of the medium The fact that a photograph is split between negative and positive manifestations means that its identity is always simultaneously divided and multiplied The interaction of these two components was often spread out over time and space and could involve more than one person giving photography the capacity to produce multiple copies of a given image and for that image to have many different looks sizes and makers This book traces these complications for canonical images by such figures as William Henry Fox Talbot Kusakabe Kimbei Dorothea Lange Man Ray Seydou Ke ta Richard Avedon and Andreas Gursky But it also considers a number of related issues crucial to any understanding of photography from the business practices of professional photographers to the repetition of pose and setting that is so central to certain familiar photographic genres Ranging from the daguerreotype to the digital image the end result is a kind of little history of photography partial and episodic but no less significant a rendition of the photographic experience for being so This book represents a summation of Batchen s work to date making it be essential

reading for students and scholars of photography and for all those interested in the history of the medium Art History and Fetishism Abroad Gabriele Genge, Angela Stercken, 2014-12-15 By focusing on the various modes and media of the fetishised object this anthology shifts the debates on thingness into a new global art historical perspective The contributors explore the attention given to those material images in both artistic and cultural practice from the heyday of colonial expansion until today They show that in becoming vehicles and agents of transculturality so called fetishes take shape in the 17th to 19th century aesthetics psychology and ethnography and furthermore inspire a recent discourse on magical practice and its secular meanings requiring altered art historical approaches and methods Portrait and Place Giulia Paoletti, 2024-03-05 Strategically located on the Atlantic Ocean at the westernmost point of the continent Senegal is well known as an epicenter of Africa's modernities modernisms and liberation movements It was also one of the countries where the daguerreotype first arrived in sub Saharan Africa before circulating inland and across the region At that time Senegal did not exist as a nation state local kingdoms were still in power and the French presence was limited to trading posts along the coast The pioneers of photography in the 1840s were not exclusively Europeans but also African African American and Asian entrepreneurs In the decades that followed amateurs and professionals working in rural areas continued to explore and expand photography's possibilities Senegal's photographic histories thrived as part of a global visual economy during and despite the colonial experience Its works emerged as an integral part of the history of this medium which unlike any other was a global enterprise from the very beginning Portrait and place offers the first history of photography in this important country from its first iterations photographers and patrons of the 1840s to photographers such as Oumar Ka b 1930 and Mama Casset 1908 1992 who were active in the 1960s during the transition from the colonial to the postcolonial era Giulia Paoletti presents close studies of photographs firmly anchoring these objects their authors and their consumers in a global context that extends across West Africa the Black Atlantic and the greater Islamic community in other words beyond the borders of colonial empire Based on over ten years of field and archival research in Senegal this book features almost exclusively new previously unpublished visual material and explores both professional and amateur artists working in a wide variety of genres from landscape to portraiture and in media such as daguerreotypes and glass paintings As the first book to focus exclusively on Senegal's photographic histories Portrait and place expands the notions of what the medium has been and can be from a Eurocentric model to one that is decidedly insistently larger and more inclusive African Arts ,2008 The British Journal of Photography ,2002
