John Banim, Michael Banim, 1838 Lob Lie-by-the-fire and Other Tales Juliana Horatia Ewing, 1896 Social Policy Reform in Hong Kong and Shanghai: A Tale of Two Cities Linda Wong, Lynn T. White, III, Gui Shixun, 2016-07-22

As the richest cities in the world's most populous nation Hong Kong and Shanghai have recently experienced dynamic growth spurred by more and better managed capital. These cities also have social problems whose solutions will cost money. Their urban populations are aging. Health finance at the level these First World cities demand threatens to consume a large portion of the municipal budgets. Eldercare and social security are now less well covered by traditional Chinese families. Education has become more complex and public tuition where it occurs brings with it official plans for schools. Immigrants have flocked to Shanghai from inland China and Hong Kong's border has become a protector of the former colony's high productivity jobs. Housing problems also have deeply affected both cities albeit in somewhat different ways. This book provides a comprehensive overview of the similarities and differences between social policies in the two cities. Each chapter covers a different issue: health finance, housing, education, labor, poverty, and social security, eldercare, and migration, and competitiveness. The contributors explore pertinent developments in each city and analyze the similarities and differences between the two cities' approaches to social policies. They focus on policy reform and the interface between social policy and its environment. One main theme throughout the book is the extent to which spending for capital accumulation is in conflict with spending for social policies.

Automotive Repair Industry United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly, 1969 The White Wolf and Other Fireside Tales Sir Arthur Thomas Quiller-Couch, 2020-09-28 Then Snorri let lower his boat and was rowed towards her and coming alongside gave a hail which was unanswered But from the frozen pile by the tiller there stuck out a man's arm ghastly to see Snorri climbed on board by the waist where her sides were low and a well reached aft from the mast to the poop There was a cabin beneath the poop and another and larger room under the deck forward between the step of the mast and the bows Into each of these he broke with axes and bars and in the one found nothing but some cooking pots and bedding but in the other that is the after cabin the door as he burst it in almost fell against a young man seated by a bed So life like was he that Snorri called aloud in the doorway but anon peering into the gloomy place perceived the body to be frozen upright and stiff and that on the bed lay another body of a lady slight and young and very fair She too was dead and frozen yet her cheeks albeit white as the pillow against which they rested had not lost their roundness Snorri took note also of her dress and of the coverlet reaching from the bed's foot to her waist that they were of silk for the most part and richly embroidered and her shift and the bed sheets about her of fine linen The man's dress was poor and coarse by comparison yet he carried a sword and was plainly of gentle nurture The sword Snorri drew from its sheath and brought away also he took a small box of jewels but little else could he find on the ship and no food of any kind His design was to leave the ship as he found it carrying away only these tokens that his story when he arrived at Brattahlid might be received with faith and to direct where the ship might be sought for But as he quitted the cabin some of his men shouted from the deck where they had discovered yet another body frozen in a drift This was an old man seated with crossed legs and leaning against the mast having an ink horn slung about his neck and almost hidden by his grey beard and on his knee a book which he held with a thumb frozen between two pages This was the book which Snorri had brought to Brattahlid and which the Bishop of Gardar read aloud to him that same afternoon translating as he went the ink being fresh the writing clerkly and scarcely a page damaged by the weather It bore no title but the Bishop who afterwards caused his secretary to take a copy of the tale gave it a very long one beginning God's mercy shown in a Miracle upon certain castaways from Jutland at the Feast of the Nativity of His Blessed Son our Lord in the year MCCCLVII whereby He made dead trees to put forth in leaf and comforted desperate men with summer in the midst of the Frozen Sea with much beside But all this appears in the tale which I will head only with the name of the writer The Cumulative Book Index ,1997 A world list of books in the English language ALOS and Other Tales from the Private Psychiatric Hospital* Daniel Shattuck,2002-07-04 A L O S and other tales from the private psychiatric hospital average length of stay is a short yet eventful journey through the painfully hilarious landscape of the private psychiatric hospital This collection of true tales exposes the madness of mental health mangled care corporate psychiatry and the day to day tribulations of psychiatric patients via the skillful storytelling and humor of teacher and therapist Dan Shattuck M Ed If you've ever worked in the private psychiatric field known a patient or been a patient yourself you won't want to miss this robust approach to sanity making The Land of Sunshine ,1894 We and the World Juliana Horatia Gatty Ewing,2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original We and the World by Juliana Horatia Gatty Ewing
