Divining the Self Velma E. Love, 2015-06-29 Divining the Self weaves elements of personal narrative, myth, history and interpretive analysis into a vibrant tapestry that reflects the textured embodied and performative nature of scripture and scripturalizing practices. Velma Love examines the Odu the Yoruba sacred scriptures along with the accompanying mythology, philosophy and ritual technologies engaged by African Americans. Drawing from the personal narratives of African American Ifa practitioners along with additional ethnographic fieldwork conducted in Oyotunji African Village, South Carolina and New York City, Love's work explores the ways in which an ancient worldview survives in modern times. Divining the Self also takes up the challenge of determining what it means for the scholar of religion to study scripture as both text and performance. This work provides an excellent case study of the sociocultural phenomenon of scripturalizing practices.

Bronze Age Settlement and Land-Use in Thy, Northwest Denmark (Volume 1 & 2) Jens-Henrik Bech, Kristian Kristiansen, Berit Valentin Eriksen, 2018-06-04 This two-volume monograph about the region of Thy in the early Bronze Age provides a high-resolution archaeological and ecological model of the organisation of landscape settlements and households during the period 1500-1100 BC. Bordering the North Sea to the west and the calmer waters of the Limfjord to the east, the region of Thy in Denmark experienced four centuries of intense economic and demographic expansion. By combining results from environmental and economic research, pollen and palaeobotanical analyses with intensive field surveys and excavations of farmsteads with exceptional preservation, it has been possible to open a window to the changes that transformed Bronze Age society and its environment during a few centuries of exceptional expansion and wealth consumption. The results from this interdisciplinary venture made it possible to link together the histories of local farmsteads with the wider regional and global history of the Bronze Age in North-western Europe during this period. Here is much to feed on for students and researchers of the Bronze Age alike.
