1900-and-something) Alfonsina Storni, 2004 This English translation of Alfonsina Storni gives scholars and students in the fields of Latin American literature, women's studies, and world theater the opportunity to study rare examples of theater written by a woman on very controversial and progressive issues at the beginning of the twentieth century. The translation is furnished with an introduction that reviews the whole theatrical production of Storni in relation to the historical and social developments of her time and places her work within the context of the literature and theater of Argentina and the Southern Cone. Handbook of Latin American Studies, Vol. 60 Lawrence Boudon, 2005-02-01 The one source that sets reference collections on Latin American studies apart from all other geographic areas of the world. The Handbook has provided scholars interested in Latin America with a bibliographical source of a quality unavailable to scholars in most other branches of area studies. Latin American Research Review Beginning with volume 41, 1979, the University of Texas Press became the publisher of the Handbook of Latin American Studies, the most comprehensive annual bibliography in the field. Compiled by the Hispanic Division of the Library of Congress and annotated by a corps of more than 130 specialists in various disciplines, the Handbook alternates from year to year between social sciences and humanities. The Handbook annotates works on Mexico, Central America, the Caribbean, and the Guianas, Spanish South America, and Brazil, as well as materials covering Latin America as a whole. Most of the subsections are preceded by introductory essays that serve as biannual evaluations of the literature and research under way in specialized areas. The Handbook of Latin American Studies is the oldest continuing reference work in the field. Lawrence Boudon of the Library of Congress Hispanic Division has been the editor since 2000, and Katherine D. McCann has been assistant editor since 1999. The subject categories for Volume 60 are as follows: Art History, including ethnohistory; Literature, including translations from the Spanish and Portuguese; Music; Philosophy; Latin American Thought. The Imaginary in the Writing of Latin American Author Amanda Labarca Hubertson (1886-1975) Sandra M. Boschetto-Sandoval, 2004 This thematic study is the only in-depth investigation into the fictional and testimonial literature of Amanda Labarca Hubertson, Chilean educator, reformer, and promoter of women's rights. These imaginary writings include such little-known works as her semi-autobiographical novel En tierras extrañas (1915), the short novel La lámpara maravillosa (1921), the collection of short stories entitled Cuentos a mi señor, the testimonial Meditaciones and Meditaciones breves (1928, 1931), and the marginal journal fragments Desvelos en el alba (1945). A preliminary chapter also addresses the controversy surrounding her published literary thesis La novela castellana de hoy (sic) (1906). The study corrects some interpretive errors regarding earlier scholarship on Labarca's perceived feminist writings by examining the sexual gendered complexities that imprint themselves in Labarca's fictional work and literary criticism. While she may be criticized for omitting any materialist analysis of power in her literature, Labarca attempted to effect change in the social order by pointing out its contradictions. Paradoxically, a close reading of Labarca's dangerously contradictory and yet amorous Carlos Fuentes's Terra Nostra and the Kabbalah (Sheldon Penn, 2003) rather than treating the Jewish Kabbalah as merely one heretical doctrine among others in Fuentes's novel Terra Nostra, Penn (Spanish U of Leicester) argues that examining its presence is vital for understanding both the theme and style. He draws on 20th century scholarship showing links between Jewish mysticism and theories of history and textuality and literary implementations of the Kabbalah by writers who significantly influenced Fuentes such as Alejo Carpentier and Jorge Luis Borges. His discussion of the Kabbalistic concept of language and its operation in the novel Celestina as metaphysical woman, Kabbalistic time, and a novelistic historiography. The text is double spaced.
