

For a Five-Year-Old

A snail is climbing up the window-sill into your room, after a night of rain.
You call me in to see, and I explain that it would be unkind to leave it there: it might crawl to the floor; we must take care that no one squashes it. You understand, and carry it outside, with careful hand, to eat a daffodil.

I see, then, that a kind of faith prevails: your gentleness is moulded still by words from me, who have trapped mice and shot wild birds, from me, who drowned your kittens, who betrayed your closest relatives, and who purveyed the harshest kind of truth to many another.
But that is how things are: I am your mother, and we are kind to snails.

Boethius' Consolation of Philosophy as a Product of Late Antiquity Antonio Donato,2013-09-12 In the last fifty years the field of Late Antiquity has advanced significantly Today we have a picture of this period that is more precise and accurate than before However the study of one of the most significant texts of this age Boethius Consolation of Philosophy has not benefited enough from these advances in scholarship Antonio Donato aims to fill this gap by investigating how the study of the Consolation can profit from the knowledge of Boethius cultural political and social background that is available today The book focuses on three topics Boethius social political background his notion of philosophy and its sources and his understanding of the relation between Christianity and classical culture These topics deal with issues that are of crucial importance for the exegesis of the Consolation The study of Boethius social political background allows us to gain a better understanding of the identity of the character Boethius and to recognize his role in the Consolation Examination of the possible sources of Boethius notion of philosophy and of their influence on the Consolation offers valuable instruments to evaluate the role of the text s philosophical discussions and their relation to its literary features Finally the long standing problem of the lack of overt Christian elements in the Consolation can be enlightened by considering how Boethius relies on a peculiar understanding of philosophy s goal and its relation to Christianity that was common among some of his predecessors and contemporaries

Ian Hanauer,2010 Elegantly written convincingly argued and interspersed with hauntingly beautiful and poignant poems written by his ESL students Hanauer s book draws attention to the unexplored potential of poetry writing in a second language classroom Aneta Pavelenko Temple University      Man'yōshū (Book 5) ,2011-01-25 This is the second volume to be published in the 20 volume set It includes 114 poems 104 tanka ten choka traditionally considered to be the zoka genre although some of them can be classified as benka since they deal with death and sorrow It also contains two poems in Chinese The volume has several long introductions all written in Chinese to the poems that follow All the poems in this volume were composed between AD 724 and 733 which represents a much greater homogeneity in comparison to books one to four Most of the poems were written by Yamanoue no Okura AD660-733 one of the greatest Manyōshū poets who was possibly a Korean from Kudara Paekche or at least a descendant of Kudara immigrants to Japan The spelling system in this volume is predominantly phonographic with only a few exceptions In addition the spelling system appears to reflect Early Western Old Japanese as demonstrated by Bentley 1997 2002 The same can be said about its overall grammatical features

--A Poet Or Nothing at All Richard C.
