History of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps Josiah Rhinehart Sypher, 1865 King's African Rifles Malcolm

Page, 2011-03-30 Whatever one may think about the rights and wrongs of colonial rule it is hard to deny that during the first half of the this century those African countries which then came under British administration enjoyed a period of stability which most now look back upon with a profound sense of loss Paradoxical though it may seem one of the bulwarks of that stability was each country s indigenous army Trained and officered by the British these force became a source of both pride and cohesion in their own country none more so than the King s African Rifles founded in 1902 and probably the best known of the East African forces In this the first complete history of the East African forces Malcolm Page who himself served in the Somaliland Scouts for a number of years has had access to much new material while researching the history of each unit from it s foundation to the time of independence Historians in several fields will be grateful to him for having put on record this very important period in the annals of both Great Britain and East Africa while the memories of many who served there were still fresh and they themselves will perhaps be most grateful of all for this lasting tribute to the men they served and who served them for in that shared sense of duty lay the true spirit of East African Forces Board of Contract Appeals

Thousands of people are reported missing each year yet very little is known about who they are why they disappear and what happens to them Although the predicament of runaways and other missing children has a higher profile the issue of missing adults has been neglected in research and policy Drawing on almost 2000 missing persons cases the report explores vbTab who goes missing vbTab why people choose to go missing and how people can become missing in other circumstances vbTab the experiences of missing people while they are away and the risks that they may encounter vbTab how missing episodes are resolved vbTab how further developments in policy and practice may assist missing people and their families This highly topical report demonstrates that the social problems underpinning the missing issue cut across many areas of social policy This book will therefore be essential reading for policy makers practitioners and academics in the fields of criminal justice child and family welfare health and social work The Master Painter , DC-10 Certification and Inspection Process

The Wars of the Lord Matthew J. Tuininga, 2025-03-13 The epic tragic story of the Puritan conquest of New England through the eyes of those who lived it Over several decades beginning in 1620 tens of thousands of devout English colonists known as Puritans came to America They believed that bringing Christianity to the natives would liberate them from darkness Daniel Gookin Massachusetts s missionary superintendent called such efforts a war of the Lord a war in which Christ would deliver captive souls from Satan s bondage When Puritan soldiers slaughtered hundreds of indigenous men women and children at Fort Mystic in 1637 during the Pequot War they believed they were doing God s will The same was true during King Philip s War perhaps the bloodiest war in American history The Puritan clergyman Increase Mather described this conflict too as a war of the Lord a war in which God was judging the enemies of his people Matthew J Tuininga argues that these two wars are inextricably linked Puritan Christianity he shows shaped both the spiritual and military conquests of New England from beginning to end It is not only that the people who did these things happened to be Christians it is that Christianity was the framework they used to guide interpret and defend every major act of peace or war They made sincere efforts to treat Natives according to Christian principles of love and justice as they understood them and their sustained missionary efforts demonstrate how serious they were about saving native souls Yet they appealed to Christianity just as confidently when they subjugated enslaved or killed native peoples in the name of justice A mission they saw as spiritual peaceful benevolent and just devolved into a military conquest that was virtually genocidal This book tells the story of how this happened from the perspective of those who lived it both colonists and Native Americans The Civil War and the Subversion of American Indian Sovereignty Joseph Connolly, 2017-11-21 The U S government s Indian Policy evolved during the 19th century culminating in the expulsion of the American Indians from their ancestral homelands Much has been written about Andrew Jackson and the removal of the Five Nations from the American Southeast to present day Oklahoma

Yet little attention has been paid to the policies of the Lincoln administration and their consequences. The Civil War was catastrophic for the natives of the Indian Territory. More battles were waged in the Indian Territory than in any other theater of the war and the Five Nations betrayal by the U S government ultimately led to the destruction of their homes, their sovereignty and their identity. Records and Briefs of the United States Supreme Court, 1832. The Cruel Slaughter of Adolf Hitler II karsten friedrich, Airmen of Arnhem Martin W. Bowman, 2020-01-19. A history of the airborne portion of Operation Market Garden during World War II from the perspective of the airmen fighting the battle. Martin Bowman presents an unparalleled account of events as they unfolded in the skies above Holland during Operation Market Garden in September 1944. Market Garden was a heroic failure conducted at great cost combined losses both airborne and ground forces in killed, wounded and missing amounted to more than 17 000. Market, the airborne part of the operation, spanned ten Allied lifts in a calamitous nine days of operations, often in foul weather. Over the course of Operation Market, 4 050 aircraft saw employment, most of them towed the 1 205 Hamilcar and Horsa gliders and were confronted by an unknown number of Luftwaffe aircraft. This narrative is punctuated with stories of individual heroism such as that of David Lord, a RAF Dakota pilot who was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross. There is no doubting the gallant and valorous contribution of the airmen of Arnhem, the RAF Dakota, Stirling, Halifax, Albemarle, Horsa, Hamilcar and Glider Pilot Regiment crews together with those of the USAAF C 47 Troop Carrier Groups of the IX U S Troop Carrier Command, the Waco and Horsa gliders and the B 24 Liberator resupply crews. All their incredible, illuminating and often understated accounts of extraordinary courage, camaraderie, shared terror and encounters with the enemy offer a more personalized view of Market and are complemented by the author's background information that give an overall picture of each air operation. 4 Group Bomber Command Chris Ward, 2012-12-19. During the immediate period before World War Two, the RAF modified its command structure to rationalize for rapid expansion. Bomber Command was divided into six operational groups, each flying the same type of aircraft, including Wellingtons, Stirlings and Lancasters. Chris Ward presents us here with the history of 4 Group Bomber Command, having previously acquainted us with the histories of 3, 5 and 6 Group Bomber Commands in three highly acclaimed volumes published by Pen and Sword. He continues with characteristic ease, quality of research and narrative pace to present us with an operational record of the group's activities during a particularly dramatic period of aviation history. The book contains individual squadron statistics, their commanding officers, stations and aircraft losses. It provides a detailed reference for one of the RAF's most important operational groups. Through a Land of Extremes Nicholas Clinch, Elizabeth Clinch, 2011-06-03. Teresa and St George Littledale were an unlikely British couple who explored Central Asia in the 1890s with their fox terrier. The Littledales were very well known in their time for their extensive travels and exceptional adventures but have been almost completely forgotten. This is the first book about their fascinating story. St George Littledale received the Patron's Medal from the Royal Geographical Society but Teresa was overlooked. For thirty years St George Littledale and his wife Teresa mounted expeditions in North America and Asia Through a Land of Extremes gives a taste for a bygone time of travel into uncharted unknown territory when adventurers lived by a combination of wit charm and luck Of independent means the Littledales began in the American Rockies Yellowstone and Alaska These trips were followed by expeditions in the late 1880s in the Caucasus the Pamirs Russian Central Asia and Mongolia Their greatest exploit was a 14 month journey to Tibet in 1895 They were attempting to reach the Forbidden City of Lhasa the great unmet goal of Central Asian explorers In order to minimize their chances of being discovered before they neared their goal St George selected a route across the desolate uninhabited Tibetan Plateau At a 19 000 foot pass they were finally blocked by 150 armed Tibetans The Tibetans allowed them to continue over the pass to a suitable stopping place The Littledales had come within 49 miles of Lhasa closer than any other foreigners since 1846 This title is part of our LEGENDS AND LORE series Click here to learn more
