The Hope of Liberation in World Religions Miguel A. De La Torre, 2008 Liberation theology emphasizes the Christian mission to bring justice to the poor and oppressed. As a part of Christian theology, liberation theology has been most frequently associated with the Catholic Church in Latin America. This groundbreaking work seeks to identify how the theological concepts of liberation theology might be manifested within other world faith traditions. This is thus the first book that attempts to find a common ground for liberation theology across religions. All of the contributors are scholars who share the religion or belief system they describe. Throughout, they endeavor to articulate liberationist concepts from the perspective of those who have been marginalized.

Norigae Kyung Ja Lee, Ky?ng-ja Yi, 2005 Mud, Blood and Bullets Edward Rowbotham, Janet Tucker, 2010-12-26 It is 1915 and the Great War has been raging for a year when Edward Rowbotham, a coal miner from the Midlands, volunteers for Kitchener's Army. Drafted into the newly formed Machine Gun Corps, he is sent to fight in places whose names will forever be associated with mud and blood and sacrifice: Ypres, the Somme, and Passchendaele. He is one of the lucky ones, winning the Military Medal for bravery and surviving more than two and a half years of the terrible slaughter which wiped out all but six of his original company. He wrote these memoirs fifty years later but found his memories of life in the trenches had not diminished at all. The sights and sounds of battle, the excitement, the
