Five Women Of Sennar Culture And Change In Central Sudan:

Five Women of Sennar Susan M. Kenyon, 1991 Sudan the largest country in Africa has become an increasingly familiar place in the last few years as television screens illustrate the political economic and ecological disasters that have overtaken many of its people The far west and the eastern provinces have been badly hit by the long drought while the central area has recently suffered from flooding Meanwhile political strife has been steadily tearing the south apart and developments such as rapid urban growth large scale population movements and monetary inflation have led to social unrest For Sudanese women especially times are changing and not only to their disadvantage Everywhere they are becoming more independent and confident and assuming new responsibilities as their menfolk leave to seek work abroad Susan Kenyon looks at the developments in Sudanese society through the eyes and words of five women from the town of Sennar in Blue Nile Province They talk about their families and homes their hopes and aspirations their work and their social lives Their accounts offer insight into contemporary life in a major developing country and the changing role of women within its society

Spirits and Slaves in Central Sudan Susan M. Kenyon, 2012-09-13 This historical ethnography from Central Sudan explores the century old intertwining of zar spirit possession with past lives of ex slaves and shows that despite very different social and cultural contexts zar has continued to be shaped by the experience of slavery

Transforming Displaced Women in Sudan Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf, 2009-08-01 Over twenty years of civil war in predominantly Christian Southern Sudan has forced countless people from their homes Transforming Displaced Women in Sudan examines the lives of women who have forged a new community in a shantytown on the outskirts of Khartoum the largely Muslim heavily Arabized capital in the north of the country Sudanese born anthropologist Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf delivers a rich ethnography of this squatter settlement based on personal interviews with displaced women and careful observation of the various strategies they adopt to reconstruct their lives and livelihoods Her findings debunk the myth that these settlements are utterly abject and instead she discovers a dynamic culture where many women play an active role in fighting for peace and social change Abusharaf also examines the way women's bodies are politicized by their displacement analyzing issues such as religious conversion marriage and female circumcision An urgent dispatch from the ongoing humanitarian crisis in northeastern Africa

Transforming Displaced Women in Sudan will be essential for anyone concerned with the interrelated consequences of war forced migration and gender inequality

Religion and the State Scott A. Merriman, 2009-07-14 This timely and authoritative resource combines both topical and country by country coverage to help readers understand the coexistence of church and state in nations around the world today At a time when faith based groups have become more politically active in the United States and with religious conflicts at the epicenter of many of the world s most dangerous hotspots Religion and the State An International Analysis of Roles and Relationships could not be more welcomed or timely Country by country faith by faith it unravels the historic underpinnings and long range effects of the relationship between religious principles and the operations of government in its many guises worldwide The work combines topical essays on significant developments in the confluence of religion and law throughout the world with short descriptions of each countries current treatment of religion Readers can investigate specific nations compare situations across nations and explore key issues in the pervasive often controversial relationship between religion and government The Sudanese Zār Ṭumbura Cult Gerasimos Makris,2023-11-30 This book offers a historically sensitive ethnography of the z r umbura spirit possession cult associated with descendants of African slaves who live mainly in the area of Greater Khartoum Sudan It considers the history and transformations of umbura from the 19th century slaving era to the present post Islamist autocracy The chapters examine the umbura spiritual universe and ceremonial life its relation to the more popular female cult of z r bor and to other now extinct forms of celebrating the z r spirit s as well as umbura s combination of possession sorcery ancestor worship and f piety Based on long term fieldwork the study shows how successive generations of subaltern cult devotees construct a positive self identity based on an alternative reading of Sudanese history The author explores the edges of Sudanese Islamic religiosity and probes the limits of anthropological classifications concerning religious experience Situating umbura in its wider context the book discusses subaltern modes of historicity in their articulation with dominant conceptions of history traces the legacy of slavery and the role of memory and invites comparisons with Middle Eastern Sahelian and even New World societies regarding stigmatised identities slavery race memory and history It will be of interest to scholars of anthropology history religious studies Islamic studies and African studies Slaves of Fortune Ronald M. Lamothe,2011 The Anglo Egyptian re conquest of Sudan Churchill s River War has been well chronicled from the British point of view but we still know little about its front line troops the Sudanese soldiers of the Egyptian Army Making use of unpublished primary sources and published material located in the United Kingdom and Sudan Slaves of Fortune provides an historiographic correction It argues that nineteenth century Sudanese slave soldiers were social beings and historical actors shaping both European and African destinies just as their own lives were being transformed by imperial forces Jacket Workers of the Empire, Unite Yann Béliard,Neville Kirk,2021-03-01 In most studies of British decolonisation the world of labour is neglected the key roles being allocated to metropolitan statesmen and native elites Instead this volume focuses on the role played by working people their experiences initiatives and organisations in the dissolution of the British Empire both in the metropole and in the colonies How central was the intervention of the metropolitan Left in the liquidation of the British Empire Were labour mobilisations in the colonies only stepping stones for bourgeois nationalists To what extent were British labour activists willing and able to form connections with colonial workers and vice versa Here are some of the complex questions on which this volume sheds new light Though convergences were fragile and temporary this book recapture the sense of uncertainty that accompanied the final decades of the British Empire a period when radical minorities hoped that coordinated efforts across borders might lead not only to the destruction of the British Empire but to that of capitalism and imperialism in general Exploiting rare primary sources and adopting a resolutely transnational approach our collection makes an original contribution to both labour history and imperial studies Islam's Perfect Stranger Edward

Thomas,2010-11-23 Can Sudan one of Africa s most diverse countries function as an Islamic state Mahmud Muhammad Taha posed an original answer to this question Taha was the charismatic leader of the Republican Brothers and Sisters a small group of Sudanese nationalists who called for a mystical inclusive reinterpretation of Islam that ended traditional legal discriminations against women and non Muslims Taha s followers pitched his sometimes controversial mix of law and mysticism on Sudanese street corners in the 1970s Sudanese Islamist politicians who used a more divisive interpretation of Islam opposed him vigorously When they gained control of the state in the chaotic 1980s Taha was executed In Taha s first biography Edward Thomas explores the life and ideas of an important Sudanese reformer who has become a symbol for resistance tolerance and human rights The Possessed and the Dispossessed Lesley A. Sharp,2023-11-15 This finely drawn portrait of a complex polycultural urban community in Madagascar emphasizes the role of spirit medium healers a group heretofore seen as having little power These women Leslie Sharp argues are far from powerless among the peasants and migrant laborers who work the land in this plantation economy In fact Sharp s wide ranging analysis shows that tromba or spirit possession is central to understanding the complex identities of insiders and outsiders in this community which draws people from all over the island and abroad Sharp s study also reveals the contradictions between indigenous healing and Western derived Protestant healing and psychiatry Particular attention to the significance of migrant women s and children s experiences in a context of seeking relief from personal and social ills gives Sharp s investigation importance for gender studies as well as for studies in medical anthropology Africa and Madagascar the politics of culture and religion and ritual This finely drawn portrait of a complex polycultural urban community in Madagascar emphasizes the role of spirit medium healers a group heretofore seen as having little power These women Leslie Sharp argues are far from powerless among the peasants a Traveling Spirit Masters Deborah Kapchan,2023-09-05 A group of ritual musicians and former slaves brought from sub Saharan Africa to Morocco the Gnawa heal those they believe to be possessed using incense music and trance But their practice is hardly of only local interest the Gnawa have long participated in the world music market through collaborations with African American jazz musicians and French recording artists In this first book in English on Gnawa music and its global reach author Deborah Kapchan explores how these collaborations transfigure racial and musical identities on both sides of the Atlantic She also addresses how aesthetic styles associated with the sacred come to inhabit non sacred contexts and what new amalgams they produce Her narrative details the fascinating intrinsic properties of trance including details of enactment the role of gesture and the body and the use of the senses and how they both construct authentic Gnawa identity and reconstruct historically determined relations of power Traveling Spirit Masters is a captivating and elucidating demonstration of how and why trance and indeed all sacred music is fast becoming a transnational sensation

Arabic Sociolinguistics Yasir Suleiman, 2013-12-16 A coherent and stimulating survey of current research Culture and Customs of Sudan Kwame Essien, Toyin Falola, 2008-11-30 Amid a Sudan s dark history saturated with conflicts and tragic current events lies a culture with deep roots going back as far as 8000 BC With several hundred ethnic groups and languages Sudan is one of the world s most diverse countries Learn how these cultures have blended and collided throughout the centuries and examine how traditions and customs are kept alive today Religious beliefs social customs arts literature and cuisine are among the topics discussed in this volume which is ideal for high school and undergraduate students Chapters include coverage on historical background religions and worldviews literature and media art and architecture cuisine and traditional dress gender roles marriage and family social customs and music and dance A timeline of key events and bibliographical essay including print and nonprint sources supplement the work Cities, Space and Power Amira Osman, 2020-12-31 The scholarly purpose of this manuscript is to provide a resource for academics and researchers looking into cities space and power in emerging economies It also takes into consideration the relationship between emerging economies and developing contexts as well as the lessons that may be shared between them This book presents a unique perspective and aims to highlight issues not addressed much in writing on the built environment Based on substantiation and references to numerous other sources and authors alternative theoretical frameworks for the study of the built environment are developed This is a very relevant contribution at this time especially as cities will most probably go through transformations in the post COVID 19 era Our first line of defense against this public health crisis will be in areas of poverty with people who have generally been excluded and urban practices that have been undocumented or labeled as informal The main thesis of the manuscript is that space and power are strongly linked in cities The research results prevalent in the book are original and while the authors consult widely across disciplines the themes are firmly rooted in the built environment fields with a focus on the architectural discipline Historical Dictionary of the Sudan Robert S. Kramer, Richard Andrew Lobban, Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, 2013 The Republic of the Sudan was long the largest country in Africa and according to the general consensus also one of the least successful in many ways This was not entirely its fault since it lay along the fault line between Muslim and Christian Africa and between the Nile Valley civilizations and African Sudanic cultures This partly explains the long and bloody warfare waged by the Southerners to achieve independence which they did in July 2011 So this hefty book actually covers not one but two states This fourth edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Sudan does so first through a lengthy and detailed chronology tracing its relatively few successes and numerous failures The introductory essay does an admirable job of putting it all in perspective But the most informative part is the dictionary with now over 700 entries for this fourth edition They deal with important personalities politics the economy society culture religion and inevitably the civil war There are also appendixes and an extensive bibliography Five Women of Sennar Susan M. Kenyon, 2004 In this second edition of the highly regarded original five Muslim women and their families from the town of Sennar Central Sudan update their life stories Halima the hairdresser Fatima the market woman Zachara the midwife Bitt al Jamil the faith healer and Naiema leader of tombura zar spirit possession each look back on their lives their families and their work in accounts that now span more than twenty years The women's own voices provide insight into how ordinary individuals deal with the challenges of making a living raising a family and leading a good life in twentieth century Sudan while Kenyon situates the narratives in the larger historical and ethnographic context ORIGINAL BOOK JACKET The Sacrificed Generation Lesley A. Sharp, 2002-09-03 This fascinating study grounded in vivid depictions of local life relates to larger questions about the postcolonial exercise of political and economic power when ostensibly sovereign states such as Madagascar are so profoundly controlled by international organizations unattached to any particular state Sharp asks how young people in these radically changing circumstances are taught and teach themselves to understand their past present and future Gillian Feeley Harnik author of A Green Estate Sharp's work is in the best tradition of classic anthropology extending the critiques of Fanon Mannoni Memmi and Freire by examining the effects of the socialist revolution the birth of Malagasy nationalism and the imposition of a postcolonial pedagogy on the minds of the sacrificed generation Her detailed ethnography is superb Nancy Scheper Hughes author of Death without Weeping Women's History in Global Perspective Bonnie G. Smith, 2004 The American Historical Association's Committee on Women Historians commissioned some of the pioneering figures in women's history to prepare essays in their respective areas of expertise This volume the first in a series of three collects their efforts Women's History in Global Perspective Volume 1 addresses the comparative themes that the editors and contributors see as central to understanding women's history around the world Later volumes will be concerned with issues that have shaped the history of women in particular regions The authors of these essays including Margaret Strobel Alice Kessler Harris and Mrinalini Sinha provide general overviews of the theory and practice of women's and gender history and analyze family history nationalism and work The collection is rounded out by essays on religion race ethnicity and the different varieties of feminism Incorporating essays from top scholars ranging over an abundance of regions dates and methodologies the three volumes of Women's History in Global Perspective constitute an invaluable resource for anyone interested in a comprehensive overview on the latest in feminist scholarship Missionary Impositions Hillary K. Crane, Deana Weibel, 2013 The essays composed in this book encompass ethnographic fieldwork in Muslim Christian Buddhist and other populations addressing such topics as the fluidity of the anthropologist's own religious identity objectivity versus subjectivity the issue of reflexivity in ethnogra Gender, Race, and Sudan's Exile Politics Nada Mustafa Ali, 2015-07-29

Gender Race and Sudan s Exile Politics examines the gendered and racialized discourses and practices of the Sudanese opposition in exile through the opposition movements of the 1990s and early 2000s and discusses the history through which these discourses evolved The military coup that brought the National Islamic Front NIF now National Congress Party NCP to power in 1989 not only forced most political parties trade unions and activists in Sudan into either exile politics or underground activism it also urged many of Sudan s political forces and activists to rethink the meaning of belonging and of the Old Sudan In the mid 1990s this involved a rethinking of the relationship between religion and politics acknowledging Sudan s diversity acknowledging the need to restructure Sudan s economy and politics to ensure equal access and participation for the historically marginalized and committing to self determination for the people of South Sudan The concept of the New Sudan broadly captured this rethinking This book interrogates the relationship between women s organizations and activism in exile on one hand and nationalist transformative and other political movements and processes on the other It further discusses transnational coalition building across difference including racial difference between women s organization seeking to transform gender relations in Sudan and South Sudan
