Written for Children John Rowe Townsend, 1996-05-01 This revised and updated edition provides children s and young adult librarians teachers literature classes and library school classes with an authoritative history and analysis of the best British and American children s literature through 1994 with a new 2003 postscript including such recent phenomenons as J K Rowling and Philip Pullman

Written for Children traces the development of children s literature from its origins through the beginnings of the multimedia revolution In effortless and entertaining style Townsend a world renowned authority in the field examines the changing attitudes toward children and their literature and analyzes the various strands that make up this important field While examining many well known American classics Townsend also looks at British works that American audiences may have overlooked With illustrations and bibliography The Fox-Hunting Controversy, 1781-2004 Allyson N. May, 2016-03-16 August 1781 saw the publication of a manual on fox hunting that would become a classic of its genre Hugely popular in its own day Peter Beckford's Thoughts on Hunting is often cited as marking the birth of modern hunting and continues to be quoted from affectionately today by the hunting fraternity Less stressed is the fact that its subject was immediately controversial and that a hostile review which appeared on the heels of the manual's publication raised two criticisms of fox hunting that would be repeated over the next two centuries fox hunting was a cruel sport and a feudal anachronistic one at that This study explores the attacks made on fox hunting from 1781 to the legal ban achieved in 2004 as well as assessing the reasons for its continued appeal and post ban survival Chapters cover debates in the areas of class and hunting concerns over cruelty and animal welfare party politics the hunt in literature and nostalgia By adopting a thematic approach the author is able to draw out the wider social and cultural implications of the debates and to explore what they tell us about national identity social mores and social relations in modern Britain The Ship that Flew Hilda Lewis, 1998 A children's adventure about a toy ship that has magic powers Unquiet Spirits K M Peyton, 2013-11-30 Mad is devastated when she is forced to move with her mother from London to a bleak rural wilderness until she gets a job restoring the local manor house Good Graces There among the ancient tapestries and furniture she meets the heir Simon But as Mad and Simon grow closer Mad realises her arrival has awoken the restless spirits of the old house One ghostly presence seems welcoming but the other is furious and they are both frighteningly powerful Mad's relationship with Simon soon spirals out of control as they are swept up in a tide of centuries old emotion and rage Marion's Angels K M Peyton, 2014-07-30 People come from all over the world to visit Marion's village and to see the beautiful fifteenth century church adorned with exquisitely carved angels Marion always an outsider almost feels she knows the angels and when the church is threatened with demolition she is desperate to save them A Pattern Of Roses K M Peyton, 2013-10-30 When Tim finds a strange old drawing hidden up the chimney in his crumbling new home he notices it's signed by someone with the initials T R I the same initials as his own In the local churchyard Tim stumbles across Tom Inskip's gravestone and begins to investigate his early death But the deeper Tim delves into the past the more Tom seems to come to life Is he sending a message Or is it a warning Recreating the Past Lynda G. Adamson, 1994-06-30 Spanning grades 1-10 this annotated bibliography of 970 recommended American and world titles published through early 1994 includes adult titles suitable for young readers at least 200 of the titles are award winners In support of interdisciplinary English and social studies curricula librarians and teachers can easily assemble a basic list of books on a geographical place and time period Geographical sections are divided into historical time periods within which entries are organized alphabetically by author Each entry contains both reading and interest grade levels a short incisive annotation about the historical event setting plot protagonist and theme current publication availability and awards won Seven reference appendices allow for easy searching These helpful appendices and an authors a titles and an illustrators index help to make this volume a critical professional tool

The Trouble with Donovan Croft Bernard Ashley,2002 Donovan Croft is sent to be fostered by Keith Chapman s family when Donovan s mother has to return to the West Indies But the trauma of leaving his parents is too much for Donovan and he becomes mute He won t talk to Keith or his family and he won t talk to the teachers at school The combination of Donovan s silence and the racist attitudes of both pupils and teachers at school means trouble and it s the growing bond between Donovan and Keith which helps them all find a way to resolution

A Midsummer Night's Death K M Peyton,2014-03-31 Jonathan doesn t like Robin the English master at his boarding school It s not his inability to control his classes that he dislikes nor even his incompetence as a teacher it s his complete indifference to the feelings of anyone but himself Nevertheless Jonathan is stunned when it s announced that Robin has been found dead drowned in the river close to the school The coroner rules that it was suicide but Jonathan soon comes to have reasons for doubting this

Children's Book Prizes Ruth Allen,2019-01-22 First published in 1998 this book is the first comprehensive survey of the awards made to children s books in the English speaking world The Volume covers nearly forty different prizes including well known and established ones such as the Newbury Award prizes instigated by the commercial sector such as the Smarties Prize as well as nationally sponsored awards and prizes for illustrators Detailed lists are provided of the winning titles and where appropriate the runners up in each year that the award has been given Ruth Allen also presents some fascinating and often entertaining insights into the motivations behind awards and how they are views by authors illustrators publishers librarians booksellers and potential purchasers The various criteria applied by judges of these awards are also examined with an assessment of whether they have always achieved the right result This Volume is both a useful guide for adults wishing to buy good books for children and an important tool for those researching the history of the children s book industry

A Tapestry of Reading Terry Zahniser McDermid,1995 Encourage children to become lifelong readers by exposing them to a variety of genres biography mystery drama fairy tale romance mythology and science fiction Each unit includes helpful background information key vocabulary words activities and a bibliography of suggested books An introductory unit teaches students to recognize propaganda and bias while a concluding unit walks them through the steps of writing a research paper Grades 4 6 Resources Illustrated

The Boy Who Wasn't There K M Peyton,2013-01-30 Thirteen year old Arnold is always getting into trouble but nowhere near as serious as when he sees a dead body floating in a lake He s the only witness to this crime and now someone is trying to kill him too

Firehead K M Peyton,2013-10-30 The invasion of the Norsemen is approaching and the people of Edmund Firehead s settlement must flee if they are to stand any chance of survival But people have always found Edmund s fiery red hair startling and the Norsemen are no exception Instead of killing Edmund on the spot they take him as a slave It s the beginning of a new life a life that leads Edmund into the heart of battle Now that the colour of his hair is no longer enough to save him it is time for Edmund

Firehead to fight for his life
