Carnation Joseph Murphy, 2000-09-01 The story is a fast paced human drama High school is a time of innocence a time for fun when adolescents establish a set of values that will last a lifetime In 1957 teens were carousing all across the country as the 1950s were in full roar The Bronx New York was no different Relive the adventures of the in crowd at St Helenas Catholic high school as they learn the importance of friendship and the meaning of love On a lark four high school seniors celebrate an 18th birthday party in the school cafeteria The only problems were that the school was closed for the night and they brought along a keg of beer for the party The nuns living three floors above hear the commotion and think a rape is in process and phone the police causing all Hell to break loose The influence of the church and school seemed limitless Most of the clergy served as a maturing authority to guide their students along the straight and narrow path However one rouge administrator had his own interpretation of the Lords missive From this Brothers perspective it was the principle behind the punishment that mattered Responsible adults would be developed out of irresponsible boys His actions and excessive punishments aimed at breaking down a select few pranksters would only serve as a rallying point to unify the student body and faculty to support the targets of his vengeance The Circus Is in Town Lisa Doris Alexander, Joel Nathan

Cinema under National Reconstruction Hye Seung Chung, 2024-11-15 Cinema under National Reconstruction calls for a revisionist understanding of state film censorship during successive Cold War military regimes in South Korea 1961 1988 Drawing upon primary documents from the Korean Film Archive s digitized database and framing South Korean film censorship from a transnational perspective Hye Seung Chung makes the case that while political oppression repression existed inside and outside the film industry during this period film censorship was not simply a tool for authoritarian dictatorship Through such case studies as Yu Hyun mok s The Stray Bullet 1961 Ha Kil jong s The March of the Fools 1975 and Yi Chang ho s Declaration of Fools 1983 the author defines censorship as a dialogical process of cultural negotiations wherein the state the film industry and the public fight out a battle over the definitions and functions of national cinema In the context of Cold War Korea one cannot fully understand or construct film history without reassessing censorship as a productive feedback system where both state regulators and filmmakers played active roles in shaping the new narrative or sentiment of the nation on the big screen

G.O.A.T. - Tom Brady Bob Gurnett, 2021-08-17 Who is the greatest football player of all time This stunning book filled with color photographs and fascinating facts makes the case that it s Tom Brady G O A T stands for Greatest Of All Time and it takes lifelong dedication nonstop work and unbelievable talent to reach that pinnacle In football that honor goes to quarterback Tom Brady He has already led the New England Patriots to six Super Bowl victories one of only two players in history to do so and the only person to do that for a single team And Brady s still in the game at age 41 He s also received three league MVP awards bested any previous quarterback in helping his team win division titles and set records in passes and touchdowns Young fans will love discussing and debating Brady s place in football history

Caught Yapping Abhishek Mukherjee, 2025-06-30 I do not want to see you Mr Warner There are two teams out there one is trying to play cricket and the other is not There is a little bit of the whore in all of us gentlemen What is your price Thank you for making my tournament a success Girls don t play cricket Bodyline World Series Cricket and IPL all seminal events in the game s history and succinctly captured in the quotes above by Bill Woodfull Kerry Packer and Lalit Modi respectively And a casual comment made by a policeman to Rachael Heyhoe which spurred her on to become a cricketer and eventually organize the World Cup two years before the men s Caught Yapping takes a never trodden before route to narrate the history of cricket using the medium of quotes to do the talking Why quotes Cricket has inspired considerable literature and continues to do so Then there are words the people of cricket have spoken on the field in press conferences in commentary boxes and elsewhere These are tales that scorecards do not tell stories of heroes and villains rises and falls temptations and resistance inclusions and exclusions This book chronicles the history of cricket and history means little without the people And what better way to tell the story of the people than in their own words

Market Place, 1996 Black Women and Public Health Stephanie Y. Evans, Sarita K. Davis, Leslie R. Hinkson, Deanna J. Wathington, 2022-03-01 2022 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Black Women and Public Health creates an urgently needed interdisciplinary dialogue about issues of race gender and health An enduring history of racism sexism and dehumanization of Black women s bodies has largely rendered the health needs of the Black community inaudible and invisible Grounded in the lived experiences and expertise of Black women this collection bridges gaps between researchers practitioners educators and advocates Black women s public health work is a regenerative practice one that looks backward inward and forward to improve the quality of life for Black communities in the United States and beyond The three dozen authors in this volume offer analysis critique and recommendations for overcoming longstanding and contemporary challenges to equity in public health practices Shooting Ghosts Thomas J. Brennan USMC (Ret.), Finbarr O'Reilly, 2018-08-21 A majestic book Bessel van der Kolk MD author of The Body Keeps the Score A unique joint memoir by a U S Marine and a conflict photographer whose unlikely friendship helped both heal their war wounded bodies and souls The dueling piano spirit of SHOOTING GHOSTS works because its authors are so committed to transparency admitting readers into the dark crevices of their isolation Wall St Journal Through the unpredictability of war and its aftermath a decorated Marine sergeant and a world trotting war photographer became friends their bond forged as they patrolled together through the dusty alleyways of Helmand province and camped side by side in the desert But when Sergeant T J Brennan was injured during a Taliban ambush he and conflict photographer Finbarr O Reilly returned home each to face the fallout of war in their own way Their friendship offered them both a shot at redemption Shooting Ghosts looks at the horrors of war directly but then turns to a journey that draws on our growing understanding of what recovery takes charting the ways two survivors have found to calm the ghosts and reclaim a measure of peace Rising Above the Madness Laura Amato, 2019-03-19 THE MEN WHO MADE MARCH From its humble beginnings in 1895 to its modern day dominance over American culture for the entire month of March college basketball is often called madness and is well deserving of the title Most NCAA basketball coaches fail however the special few profiled in this book didn t just succeed where others failed they influenced the game changed it and altered its very course The ten men featured in this anthology went about coaching differently each bringing their own approach and mindset to the hardwood and their success is unprecedented John Wooden UCLA Bobby Knight Indiana University Adolph Rupp University of Kentucky Dean Smith University of North Carolina Phog Allen University of Kansas Mike Krzyzewski Duke University Jerry Tarkanian UNLV Jim Boeheim Syracuse University Lou Carnesecca St John s University Jim Calhoun University of Connecticut The US Sports Film: A Genre of American Dream Time Danny Gronmaier, 2022-12-05 Sports and film are media that create time They are temporal not only in the sense that they are defined and regulated by certain temporalities as a result of processes of social negotiation but also in the sense of modulating and intervening in these processes in the first place They are determined by multiple temporalities referring to

and aligning along perceptual corporeality but at the same time they also produce time through and along temporalities of bodily expression and perception. Thus as much as we perceive and understand sports and film by means of our culturally coded conceptions of time, this comprehension is itself already the product of these media's fabrication and modulation of certain audiovisual imaginations of time. This book examines these imaginations with regard to US team sports feature films, understanding the former as the latter's constitutive conflict which makes these films graspable as a genre in the first place. By addressing temporality as an ever new crystallization of a heroic past and an unattainable future in a saturated yet volatile present, this conflict connects substantially to the American Dream as an idea of community building historicity. Departing from a non-taxonomic approach in genre theory and such philosophical recognition of the American Dream as less an ideological narrative but more a social and socially effective imaginary embedded in an audiovisual discourse of time, this book demonstrates the interrelation of sports cinema and American subjectivization along close readings of the poetics of affect of five exemplary sports films: FIELD OF DREAMS, WE ARE MARSHALL, KNUTE ROCKNE: ALL AMERICAN, JIM THORPE: ALL AMERICAN MIRACLE. Trammell Todd Masters, 2016-12-09

For nearly two decades Alan Trammell displayed an all-around game as a fielder, hitter, and base runner that was rare for shortstops of his era. With second baseman Lou Whitaker, he formed one half of arguably the greatest double play combination in baseball history and was an integral piece of one of the signature teams of the 1980s. Trammell was a World Series hero and a central figure in one of the greatest pennant races in American League history. From his early days as a multi-sport prep star in the talent-rich San Diego area through a meteoric ascension up the minor league ladder and into the big leagues, Trammell won over doubters and overcame setbacks to become one of the top players in the Detroit Tigers' history. He joined Ty Cobb and Al Kaline as the only players to spend 20 seasons in Detroit and later served an ill-fated managerial stint with the franchise. This exhaustively researched biography provides the first book-length account of the life and career of one of the most well-known figures in Detroit sports history.
