Lamplighters 2 Peter Wright, 2012-12-01 Many years ago before electric street lights the lamplighter was a man who was employed by the town to go round lighting all the street lamps at the onset of evening and minding them and keeping them lit throughout the night He would also put them out in the morning This book is a metaphorical look at lamplighting and instances where we can take steps to keep our mental lamps alight and the streets of our life well lit It takes a closer look at some of our cultural myths preconceptions and superstitions It examines some of the young wives tales that sneak via parlance into the fabric of our understanding of our world that world that our perceptions have often while we were looking the other way fashioned into being the real world
