El Ejido Terre De Non Droit:

Migration and Agriculture Alessandra Corrado, Carlos de Castro, Domenico Perrotta, 2016-07-28 In recent years Mediterranean agriculture has experienced important transformations which have led to new forms of labour and production and in particular to a surge in the recruitment of migrant labour The Mediterranean Basin represents a very interesting arena that is able to illustrate labour conditions and mobility the competition among different farming models and the consequences in terms of the proletarianization process food crisis and diet changes Migration and Agriculture brings together international contributors from across several disciplines to describe and analyse labour conditions and international migrations in relation to agri food restructuring processes This unique collection of articles connects migration issues with the proletarianization process and agrarian transitions that have affected Southern European as well as some Middle Eastern and Northern African countries in different ways The chapters present case studies from a range of territories in the Mediterranean Basin offering empirical data and theoretical analysis in order to grasp the complexity of the processes that are occurring This book offers a uniquely comprehensive overview of migrations territories and agro food production in this key region and will be an indispensable resource to scholars in migration studies rural sociology social geography and the political economy of agriculture

Urban Regionalisation Processes Francesco Lo Piccolo, Marco Picone, Vincenzo Todaro, 2021-01-28 This book explores the issues of transformation phenomena of the urban dimension regionalization processes that traditional scientific literature fails to describe appropriately So far scholars have adopted a widespread dominant perspective that proved unable to grasp the essence of post modern complexities that urban spaces imply The book provides a taxonomy in order to describe the rules of these new and peculiar cities by using the living dimension as a device for the epistemological breaking down of traditional socio spatial analyses After a thorough theoretical introduction it describes two Sicilian case studies that prove particularly relevant to the construction of a new alternative urban regionalization theory These two areas Palermo and South Eastern Sicily are described through several aspects such as the role of migrants and migrations in defining urban regionalization the power of fiction and the new urban forms that are slowly emerging in Sicily Overall this book provides a refreshing view of what Sicily has been and is becoming by deconstructing most of its clichés and suggesting theoretical perspectives grounded in both quantitative and qualitative analyses
