Tras la conquista de las Filipinas 1565 la Corona española incorporó este archipiélago al virreinato de la Nueva España al iniciarse la comunicación transpacífica entre estos territorios surgió una continua y compleja migración asiática hacia el centro del virreinato en el continente americano. Esta migración fue definitivamente un proceso importante en el desarrollo de la Nueva España ya que miles de asiáticos de diversa procedencia identificados comúnmente como chinos se integraron como una pieza fundamental de la sociedad del centro del virreinato e influyeron significativamente en su formación económica social y cultural. En la historiografía relacionada con la Nueva España ha sido necesario un análisis integral y sistemático de la migración transpacífica de asiáticos y de su integración en la sociedad novohispana pues si no se considera a los chinos y chinas nuestra visión de la Nueva España es incompleta. Es el motivo de esta investigación que comprende un análisis de miles de documentos en diversos archivos de México y España.

Through new and focused scholarship the exhibition catalogue The Grandeur of Viceregal Mexico demonstrates that just the opposite is true. This landmark publication features extraordinary decorative and fine arts from the Mexican viceregal period 1521-1821. The lavishly illustrated catalogue is written in Spanish and English and for the first time presents to American audiences the rich artistic heritage of colonial Mexico. Five insightful essays by Mexican and American specialists explore the confluence of cultures that gives the arts of colonial Mexico a distinctive quality. This distinction which differentiates the works from the arts of both Spain and other Latin American countries is not widely understood in either the United States or Mexico.
