Two Films Sergei Eisenstein, Grigoriï Vasil'evich Aleksandrov, Petr Andreevich Pavlenko, 1984 Early Soviet Cinema David Gillespie, 2000 This text examines the aesthetics of Soviet cinema during its golden age of the 1920s against a background of cultural ferment and the construction of a new socialist society A History Of Russia Volume 2 Walter G. Moss, 2004-10-01 Moss has significantly revised his text and bibliography in this second edition to reflect new research findings and controversies on numerous subjects He has also brought the history up to date by revising the post Soviet material which now covers events from the end of 1991 up to the present day This new edition retains the features of the successful first edition that have made it a popular choice in universities and colleges throughout the US Canada and around the world A Knight at the Movies John Aberth, 2012-10-02 Imagining the Middle Ages is an unprecedented examination of the historical content of films depicting the medieval period from the 11th to the 15th centuries Historians increasingly feel the need to weigh in on popular depictions of the past since so much of the public's knowledge of history comes from popular mediums Aberth dissects how each film interpreted the period offering estimations of the historical accuracy of the works and demonstrating how they project their own contemporary era's obsessions and fears onto the past Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture David A. Gerstner, 2006-03-01 The Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture covers gay lesbian bisexual transgender and queer GLBTQ life and culture post 1945 with a strong international approach to the subject The scope of the work is extremely comprehensive with entries falling into the broad categories of Dance Education Film Health Homophobia the Int The 100 Most Influential Musicians of All Time Britannica Educational Publishing, 2009-10-01 Welcome to a veritable feast for readers eyes minds and by extension ears Filled with profiles of truly accomplished musicians across a broad spectrum of musical styles and genres this volume includes such varied musical artists as Ludwig von Beethoven Elvis Presley and hip hop artist Jay Z Cosmopolitan Film Cultures in Latin America, 1896-1960 Rielle Navitski, Nicolas Poppe, 2017-06-19 Cosmopolitan Film Cultures in Latin America examines how cinema forged cultural connections between Latin American publics and film exporting nations in the first half of the twentieth century Predating today's transnational media industries by several decades these connections were defined by active economic and cultural exchanges as well as longstanding inequalities in political power and cultural capital The essays explore the arrival and expansion of cinema throughout the region from the first screenings of the Lumi re Cin matographe in 1896 to the emergence of new forms of cinephilia and cult spectatorship in the 1940s and beyond Examining these transnational exchanges through the lens of the cosmopolitan which emphasizes the ethical and political dimensions of cultural consumption illuminates the role played by moving images in negotiating between the local national and global and between the popular and the elite in twentieth century Latin America In addition primary historical documents provide vivid accounts of Latin American film critics movie audiences and film industry workers experiences with moving images produced

Hollywood Pride Alonso Duralde, 2024-05-14 For generations members of the LGBTQ community in Hollywood needed to be discreet about their lives but make no mistake they were everywhere both in front of and behind the camera On the eve of the twentieth century in Thomas Edison's laboratory one of the earliest attempts at a sound film depicted two men dancing together as a third plays the violin It's only a few minutes long but this cornerstone of early cinema captured a queer moment on film It would not be the last With Hollywood Pride renowned film critic Alonso Duralde presents a history spanning from the dawn of cinema through the pansy craze of the 1930s and the New Queer Cinema of the 1990s all the way up to today He showcases the hard working actors writers directors producers cinematographers art directors and choreographers whose achievements defined the American film industry and charts the evolution of LGBTQ storytelling itself the way mainstream Hollywood decided it would portray or erase their lives and the narratives created by queer filmmakers who fought to tell those stories themselves Along the way readers will encounter a fascinating cast of characters such as the first generation of queer actors including J Warren Kerrigan Ramon Novarro and William Haines Early cinema pioneers like Alla Nazimova and F W Murnau helped shape the new medium of moving pictures The sex symbols both male Rock Hudson Tab Hunter and Anthony Perkins and female Elizabeth Scott and Greta Garbo lived under the threat of their private lives undermining their public personas Underground filmmakers Kenneth Anger and John Waters made huge strides in LGBTQ representation with their off off Hollywood productions in the 1960s and 70s These screen legends paved the way for every openly queer figure in Hollywood today Illustrated with more than 175 full color and black and white images Hollywood Pride points to the bright future of LGBTQ representation in cinema by revealing the story of the community's inclusion and erasure its visibility and invisibility and its triumphs and tragedies

History and Popular Memory Paul A Cohen, 2014-05-13 When people experience a traumatic event such as war or the threat of annihilation they often turn to history for stories that promise a positive outcome to their suffering During World War II the French took comfort in the story of Joan of Arc and her heroic efforts to rid France of foreign occupation To bring the Joan narrative more into line with current circumstances popular retellings modified the original story so that what people believed took place in the past was often quite different from what actually occurred Paul A Cohen believes this interplay between story and history is a worldwide phenomenon found in countries of radically different cultural religious and social character He focuses on Serbia Israel the Soviet Union China Great Britain and France all of which experienced severe crises in the twentieth century and in response appropriated age old historical narratives that resonated with what was happening in the present to serve a unifying restorative purpose A central theme in the book is the distinction between popular memory and history Although vitally important to historians this distinction is routinely blurred in people's minds and the historian's truth often cannot compete with the power of a compelling story from the past even when it has been seriously distorted by myth or political manipulation Cohen concludes by suggesting that the patterns of interaction he probes given their near universality may well be rooted in certain human propensities that transcend cultural difference
