are when someone else is describing their adventures on an Alien Planet And yet in 1988 I Richard Roots accidentally collided with the British Army There were triumphs and there were tears There was even some mud involved Here is a truth I was not a brilliant soldier I was not as good as I now think I was But I was according to Major M in his final interview with me second in the Troop rankings at the time of my departure and he was sweet enough to write Exemplary on my Discharge certificate So I wasn't a bad soldier either Another truth I served for 57 days 50 of them in basic training Mine was not a long military career As 30 years later I look back on my Army career I can't help but believe it was an adventure that was destined to happen to me A second puberty if you like I can come up with no other explanation for why I did what I did And why I abandoned it all so quickly
