Giants For Justice Bethune Randolph And King:

Giants for Justice Beth P. Wilson, 1978 Biographical sketches of three outstanding black leaders who did much to pave the way toward dignity and freedom for their people in education labor and civil rights Historical Dictionary of Women's Education in the United States Linda Eisenmann, 1998-07-17 The history of women's education in the United States presents a continuous effort to move from the periphery to the mainstream and this book examines both formal and informal opportunities for girls and women Through an introductory essay and nearly 250 alphabetically arranged entries this reference book examines institutions persons ideas events and movements in the history of women's education in the United States The volume spans the colonial era to the present exploring settings from formal institutions such as schools and colleges to informal associations such as suffrage groups and reform organizations where women gained skills and used knowledge A full picture of women's educational history presents their work in mainstream institutions sex segregated schools and informal organizations that served as alternative educational settings Educational history varies greatly for women of different races classes and ethnicities The experience of some groups has been well documented Thus entries on the Seven Sisters women's colleges and the reform organizations of the Progressive Era convey wide historical detail Other women have been studied only recently Thus entries on African American school founders or women teachers present considerable new information that scholars interpret against a wider context Finally some women's history has yet to be adequately explored Hispanic American women and Catholic teaching sisters are discussed in entries that highlight historical questions still remaining Each entry is written by an expert contributor and concludes with a brief bibliography The volume closes with a timeline of women's educational history and a list of important general works for further reading Ebony Jr., 1978-11 Created by the publishers of EBONY During its years of publishing it was the largest ever children focused publication for African Americans The March for Justice Dorothy Swygert, 1996 Contains an original play by the author designed for school performance dramatizing the bus boycott and early role of Dr Martin Luther King Jr in the civil rights movement Also included are reprinted materials about the civil rights movement and questions and activities designed for classroom use Portraits of Famous American Women Robert Henkes, 1997-01-01 The portrait is one of the most pure collaborative efforts in the art world The artist is the creator but she or he is wholly dependent on the sitter for inspiration and stimulus When the subject is famous the artist must often compromise true expression for the vanity of the person being painted Though that would seemingly make the portrait less appealing artistically in truth the collaborative nature of the portrait often makes it artistically unique a blending of the artist's style with the desires of the sitter This work takes a fresh look at the portraits of 13 American women Marian Anderson Clara Barton Mary McLeod Bethune Pearl Buck Mary Cassatt Isadora Duncan Marianne Moore Georgia O Keeffe Eleanor Roosevelt Gertrude Stein Harriet Beecher Stowe Harriet Tubman and Martha Washington and the artists who created them In examining the work of such artists as Abraham Walkowitz John Graham Betsy Graves Reyneau Michael Alexander Werboff and Brenda Putnam one comes to see the unique combination of the personality of the sitter and the style of the artist      Democratic Education for Social Studies Anna S.

Ochoa-Becker,2006-12-01 In the first edition of this book published in 1988 Shirley Engle and I offered a broader and more democratic curriculum as an alternative to the persistent back to the basics rhetoric of the 70s and 80s This curriculum urged attention to democratic practices and curricula in the school if we wanted to improve the quality of citizen participation and strengthen this democracy School practices during that period reflected a much lower priority for social studies Fewer social studies offerings fewer credits required for graduation and in many cases the job descriptions of social studies curriculum coordinators were transformed by changing their roles to general curriculum consultants The mentality that prevailed in the nation s schools was back to the basics and the basics never included or even considered the importance of heightening the education of citizens We certainly agree that citizens must be able to read write and calculate but these abilities are not sufficient for effective citizenship in a democracy This version of the original work appears at a time when young citizens teachers and schools find themselves deluged by a proliferation of curriculum standards and concomitant mandatory testing In the 90s virtually all subject areas including United States history geography economic and civics developed curriculum standards many funded by the federal government Subsequently the National Council for the Social Studies issued the Social Studies Curriculum Standards that received no federal support Accountability captured in the No Child Left Behind Act passed by Congress has become a powerful political imperative that has a substantial and disturbing influence on the curriculum teaching and learning in the first decade of the 21st century      American Women Civil Rights Activists Gayle J. Hardy,1993 Ranging from such pioneers as Elizabeth Blackwell Mary L Bonney Kate Barnard Mariana Bracetti and Amelia Stone Quinton to contemporary figures such as Iola M Pohocsucut Hayden Rosa Parks Angela Davis and Shirley Chisholm these 68 women have worked passionately for civil rights in the United States The issues that they have championed have been as varied as the women themselves African Americans Latino Americans Native Americans children lesbians and gays adoptees older adults differently abled persons prisoners education political reform health issues and many others Many have been active in women s rights and suffrage issues A short biographical sketch of each woman is provided listing place of birth schools important events and achievements children parents siblings and individuals who had a significant influence on her work The second part of each entry is an extensive bibliography of works by and about the activist Included are print and nonprint sources as well as dissertations theses manuscript materials and personal papers The work is thoroughly indexed      Ebony ,1978-12 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine      National Union Catalog ,1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases      Making Freedom Primary Source, Inc,2004 Outstanding curriculum resource with clear objectives and meaningful activities Each volume has an accompanying CD ROM in a separate folder that is packed with primary source documents      Subject Catalog, 1978 Library of Congress, 1978      Martin Luther King, Jr., 1986-06-12 Product information not available      Whitaker's Cumulative Book List, 1978      Her Way Mary-Ellen Siegel, 1984 A two part bibliography of over 1700 biographies of more than 1100 notable women throughout history Part one is arranged alphabetically by subject and includes a short profile of each woman cited part two consists of collective biographies      The Georgia Librarian, 1985      The Negro Almanac, 1967      Catalog of Copyright Entries, Fourth Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1978      The Black World in Literature for Children Joyce White Mills, 1975      Ebony, 1978-11      Freedomways, 1979
