Queen of Sorrows Bianca M. Lopez, 2024-09-15 Queen of Sorrows takes an original approach to both late medieval Italian history and the history of Christianity using quantitative and qualitative analyses of a remarkable archive of 1 904 testaments to determine patterns in giving to the Virgin of Loreto shrine in the late fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries Bianca M Lopez argues that in central Italy as elsewhere the cult of the Virgin Mary gained new prominence at this time of unprecedented mortality Individuals gave to Santa Maria di Loreto which houses the structure in which Mary is believed to have lived as an expression of their grief in the hope of strengthening family lineages beyond death and to care for loved ones believed to be languishing in purgatory Lopez establishes statistical correlations between different social groups and their donations to Loreto over time uncovering informative new historical patterns such as the prominence of widow and migrant donors in the notarial record The testaments also provide a social history of Recanati revealing how its denizens venerated Mary as a saint with unrivaled spiritual power and uniquely sympathetic to grief having lost her own son Jesus In the fourteenth century plague survivors transformed their anguish into Marian devotion The devastation of the plague brought the Virgin out of noble courts and monasteries and onto city streets As Queen of Sorrows details however the popularity and growing wealth of Loreto's Marian shrine attracted the attention of the papacy and peninsular seigneurial lords who eventually brought Santa Maria di Loreto under the control of the Church Eliza's Babes, Or, The Virgin's Offering (1652) L. E. Semler, 2001 Eliza's enthusiasm literally being in the spirit is its own assurance and leads to the production of literary offspring The Languages of Gift in the Early Middle Ages Wendy Davies, Paul

Fouracre, 2010-09-02 This book is a collection of original essays on gift in the early Middle Ages from Anglo Saxon England to the Islamic world Focusing on the languages of gift the essays reveal how early medieval people visualized and thought about gift and how they distinguished between the giving of gifts and other forms of social economic political and religious exchange The same team largely that produced the widely cited The Settlement of Disputes in Early Medieval Europe Cambridge University Press 1986 has again collaborated in a collective effort that harnesses individual expertise in order to draw from the sources a deeper understanding of the early Middle Ages by looking at real cases that is at real people whether peasant or emperor The culture of medieval gift has often been treated as archaic and exotic in this book by contrast we see people going about their lives in individual down to earth and sometimes familiar ways H.D., 2021-10-05 In this complete unabridged edition of H D s visionary memoir The Gift Jane Augustine makes available for the first time the text as H D wrote it and intended it to be read including H D s coda to the book her Notes never before published in its entirety Written in London during the blitz of World War II The Gift re creates the peaceful childhood of Hilda Doolittle in Bethlehem Pennsylvania where she was born in 1886 As an antidote to war s destructiveness H D invokes the mystical Moravian heritage of her mother's family to convey an ideal world peace and salvation that would come through the spiritual power of women a power that also endowed her with the gift of her own art The Gift is key to intertextual studies of H D s wartime oeuvre and to an understanding of the religious and gender concerns pervading her later work especially the women centered poems Trilogy and Helen in Egypt Augustine's introduction and annotations based on extensive research in Moravian archives provide a biographical and historical context to make this the definitive edition of The Gift essential to students and scholars of H D modernism and feminist literature The Gift of Morning Star Thomas Aguinas Devlin, 1992

Beauchamp Jean Antoine Dubois,1899 A Gift of Angels, 2010-09-20 It rises suddenly out of the Sonoran Desert landscape towering over the tallest tree or cactus a commanding building with a sensuous dome elliptical vaults and sturdy bell towers There is nothing else like it around nor does it seem there should be This incongruity of setting is what strikes first time visitors to Mission San Xavier del Bac This great church is of another place and another time while its beauty is universal and timeless Mission San Xavier del Bac is a two century old Spanish church in southern Arizona located just a few miles from downtown Tucson a metropolis of more than half a million people in the American Southwest A National Historic Landmark since 1963 the mission s graceful baroque art and architecture have drawn visitors from all over the world Now Bernard Fontana the leading expert on San Xavier and award winning photographer Edward McCain team up to bring us a comprehensive view of the mission as we ve never seen it before With 200 stunning full color photographs and incisive text illuminating the religious historical and motivational context of these images A Gift of Angels is a must have for tourists scholars and other visitors to San Xavier From its glorious architecture all the way down to the finest details of its art Mission San Xavier del Bac is indeed a gift of angels The Gift of Oneself Joseph Schryvers, 2008-11 The Gift of Oneself will be for many a fresh new approach to spirituality an appeal to generous souls to offer themselves to God as a gift that is at once fitting since He has given us all we are and have and complete for we thereby hold back nothing for ourselves And in return Almighty God in a special way concerns Himself with the sanctification of our souls and the care of our temporal needs Jesus will work wonders in a soul so given over to Him for He is the best of all spiritual directors and He knows exactly the place in the Mystical Body that a consecrated soul should occupy This gift of oneself to God is easy for all we have to do is love Him In return for the gift of oneself God responds by giving Himself What more could we want or need Those who read this book derive a great feeling of peace and security from it The Gift of Oneself will be a surprise and a delight to those generous souls who are ready to embark upon a secure and rewarding spiritual life God, the Gift, and Postmodernism John D. Caputo, Michael J. Scanlon, 1999-12-22 Pushing past the constraints of postmodernism which cast reason andreligion in opposition God the Gift and Postmodernism seizes the opportunity to question the authority of the modern and open the limits of possible experience including the call to religious experience as a new millennium approaches Jacques Derrida the father of deconstruction engages with Jean Luc Marion and other religious philosophers to entertain questions about intention givenness and possibility which reveal the extent to which deconstruction is structured like religion New interpretations of Kant Heidegger Husserl and Derrida emerge from essays and discussions with distinguished philosophers and theologians from the United States and Europe The result is that God the Gift and Postmodernism elaborates a radical phenomenology that stretches the limits of its possibility and explores areas where philosophy and religion have become increasingly and surprisingly convergent Contributors include John D Caputo John Dominic Crossan Jacques Derrida Robert Dodaro Richard Kearney Jean Luc Marion Françoise Meltzer Michael J Scanlon Mark C Taylor David Tracy Merold Westphal and Edith Wyschogrod
