therapy and microdosing applying elements of the psychedelic therapy model as a way of optimizing the conditions for sleep. He recommends thirteen natural ways we can drift into a deep and restorative sleep including hypnotherapy, Yoga Nidra, sophrology, progressive muscle relaxation, and white, pink, and grey noise, and provides scripts for five of these techniques. His successful sleep clinic provides online support in the form of short videos and audio meditations as well as exercises. In addition to the six-step program, the author guides you in discovering the factors inhibiting a good night's sleep and explores the difficulties of sleep phobia, sleep talking, sleep walking, and Exploding Head Syndrome. He also answers questions about the links between sleep and depression, sleep and obesity, and the value of sleep hacking and lucid dreaming. Helping you get a better night's sleep, this concise and simple guide shows you how to benefit from everything the night offers to body and soul.

McClure's Magazine, 1896 The Gift of White Roses James Cloyd Bowman, 1913 The Witchery of Sleep ..., 1903 The English Illustrated Magazine: "The Gift of the Sea", 1890 The Gift of Caring Marcy Cottrell Houle, Elizabeth Eckstrom, Jennie Chin Hansen, 2018-10-26

In a powerful blending of memoir and practical strategies from a medical doctor's perspective, The Gift of Caring: Saving Our Parents and Ourselves from the Perils of Modern Healthcare reveals the hidden side of modern healthcare practices for aging Americans. This ground-breaking book, co-written by award-winning author Marcy Houle and nationally recognized geriatrician and public health advocate Elizabeth Eckstrom MD MPH, sheds new light on aging by showing it from twin perspectives: the story of a daughter desperately seeking help for the parents she loves and a geriatrician who offers life-changing strategies that can protect our loved ones and ourselves. Today, for many older adults, the medical delivery system is confusing, fragmented, and ill-equipped to provide comprehensive, person-centered care. Under our current healthcare model, thousands of aging persons face unnecessary suffering, hospitalizations, and nursing home stays, and even preventable death. Seniors and families often feel powerless as they travel this sad journey. Not having knowledge of aging's changes, they resign themselves to believing there is nothing anyone can do to help, while some healthcare professionals simply write off symptoms seniors endure as just old age. But as Marcy Houle discovered in caring for her parents, many of the problems often are not just old age. Further, the real issue is not that the answers to ease suffering don't exist. Rather, what we need to know is generally not available to the general public. Even more concerning, many healthcare professionals have had little or no training in the care of older adults. The Gift of Caring hopes to change that. It is written to give empowerment to all older adults, family members, and healthcare professionals by sharing much-needed knowledge and practical strategies. The Gift of Caring shows the best ways to advocate for our parent's healthcare and our own by giving us the tools we need to insist upon the better way. Your parents and you deserve the best healthcare as you age. But there are so many reasons why that's not happening. You can change that.
