Giles Of Romes On Ecclesiastical Power:

Giles of Rome's On Ecclesiastical Power Giles (of Rome, Archbishop of Bourges), 2004 Written at the turn of the 14th century Giles of Rome s De ecclesiastica potestate is a papal tract written at the height of Pope Boniface VIII s conflict with De ecclesiastica potestate of Aegidius Romanus Giles (of Rome, Archbishop of Bourges), R. W. King Philip IV of France Authorities in the Middle Ages Sini Kangas, Mia Korpiola, Tuija Ainonen, 2013-04-30 Medievalists Dyson, 1986-01-01 reading and writing about and around authority related themes lack clear definitions of its actual meanings in the medieval context Authorities in the Middle Ages offers answers to this thorny issue through specialized investigations This book considers the concept of authority and explores the various practices of creating authority in medieval society In their studies sixteen scholars investigate the definition formation establishment maintenance and collapse of what we understand in terms of medieval struggles for authority influence and power The interdisciplinary nature of this volume resonates with the multi faceted field of medieval culture its social structures and forms of communication The fields of expertise include history legal studies theology philosophy politics literature and art history The scope of inquiry extends from late antiquity to the mid fifteenth century from the Church Fathers debating with pagans to the rapacious ghosts ruining the life of the living in the Sagas There is a special emphasis on such exciting but understudied areas as the Balkans Iceland and the eastern fringes of Scandinavia Encyclopedia of Political Theory Mark Bevir, 2010-03-18 Looking at the roots of contemporary political theory this three volume set examines the global landscape of all the key theories and the theorists behind them and provides concise to the point definitions of key concepts ideas schools and figures Patterns Legitimizing Political Violence in Transcultural Perspectives Bettina Koch, 2015-05-19 This volume explores theoretical discourses in which religion is used to legitimize political violence It examines the ways in which Christianity and Islam are utilized for political ends in particular how violence is used or abused as an expedient to justify political action. This research focuses on premodern as well as contemporary discourses in the Middle East and Latin America identifying patterns frequently used to justify the deployment of violence in both hegemonic and anti hegemonic discourses In addition it explores how premodern arguments and authorities are utilized and transformed in order to legitimize contemporary violence as well as the ways in which the use of religion as a means to justify violence alters the nature of conflicts that are not otherwise explicitly religious It argues that most past and present conflicts even if the discourses about them are conducted in religious terms have origins other than religion and or blend religion with other causes namely socio economic and political injustice and inequality Understanding the use and abuse of religion to justify violence is a prerequisite to discerning the nature of a conflict and might thus contribute to conflict resolution Readings in the History of Christian Theology, Volume 1, Revised Edition William C. Placher, Derek R. Nelson, 2015-08-19 William C Placher and Derek Nelson compile significant passages written by the most important Christian thinkers from the early church through the Middle Ages and up to the beginning of the sixteenth century

Illustrating the major theologians controversies and schools of thought Readings in the History of Christian Theology is an essential companion to the study of church history and historical theology Excerpts are preceded by the editors introductions allowing the book to stand alone as a coherent history This revised edition expands the work's scope with the addition of many new texts especially those from the voices of women and others who have been marginalized from the theological tradition This valuable resource brings together the writings of major theologians from the church's history for a new The Zurich Connection and Tudor Political Theology W. J. Torrance Kirby, 2007 The book generation of students investigates and interprets the influence of the political theology of Heinrich Bullinger and Peter Martyr Vermigli in mid Tudor England and especially on the theory implementation and consolidation of the Elizabethan constitutional and religious settlement of 1559 Readings in the History of Christian Theology: From its beginnings to the eve of the Reformation William Carl Placher, 1988-01-01 Discusses Gnosticism the School of Alexandria the Trinitarian controversies Eastern theology Saint Augustine and theologians of the Middle Ages The Birth of Territory Stuart Elden, 2022-12-22 Political theory professor Stuart Elden explores the history of land ownership and control from the ancient to the modern world in The Birth of Territory Territory is one of the central political concepts of the modern world and indeed functions as the primary way the world is divided and controlled politically Yet territory has not received the critical attention afforded to other crucial concepts such as sovereignty rights and justice While territory continues to matter politically and territorial disputes and arrangements are studied in detail the concept of territory itself is often neglected today Where did the idea of exclusive ownership of a portion of the earth's surface come from and what kinds of complexities are hidden behind that seemingly straightforward definition The Birth of Territory provides a detailed account of the emergence of territory within Western political thought Looking at ancient medieval Renaissance and early modern thought Stuart Elden examines the evolution of the concept of territory from ancient Greece to the seventeenth century to determine how we arrived at our contemporary understanding Elden addresses a range of historical political and literary texts and practices as well as a number of key players historians poets philosophers theologians and secular political theorists and in doing so sheds new light on the way the world came to be ordered and how the earth's surface is divided controlled and administered. The Birth of Territory is an outstanding scholarly achievement a book that already promises to become a classic in geography together with very few others published in the past decades Political Geography An impressive feat of erudition American Historical Review

Freedom's Progress? Gerard Casey, 2021-10-04 In Freedom's Progress Gerard Casey argues that the progress of freedom has largely consisted in an intermittent and imperfect transition from tribalism to individualism from the primacy of the collective to the fragile centrality of the individual person and of freedom Such a transition is he argues neither automatic nor complete nor are relapses to tribalism impossible. The reason for the fragility of freedom is simple the importance of individual freedom is simply not obvious to everyone Most people want security in this world not liberty Libertarians writes Max Eastman used to tell us that the love of freedom is the strongest of political motives but recent events have taught us the extravagance of this opinion The herd instinct and the yearning for paternal authority are often as strong Indeed the tendency of men to gang up under a leader and submit to his will is of all political traits the best attested by history The charm of the collective exercises a perennial magnetic attraction for the human spirit In the 20th century Fascism Bolshevism and National Socialism were Casey argues each of them a return to tribalism in one form or another and many aspects of our current Western welfare states continue to embody tribalist impulses Thinkers you would expect to feature in a history of political thought feature in this book Plato Aristotle Machiavelli Locke Mill and Marx but you will also find thinkers treated in Freedom's Progress who don't usually show up in standard accounts Johannes Althusius Immanuel Kant William Godwin Max Stirner Joseph Proudhon Mikhail Bakunin Pyotr Kropotkin Josiah Warren Benjamin Tucker and Auberon Herbert Freedom's Progress also contains discussions of the broader social and cultural contexts in which politics takes its place with chapters on slavery Christianity the universities cities Feudalism law kingship the Reformation the English Revolution and what Casey calls Twentieth Century Tribalisms Bolshevism Fascism and National Socialism and an extensive Pseudo-Dionysius Paul Rorem, 1993-02-25 Dionysius the Areopagite is the biblical name chapter on human prehistory chosen by the pseudonymous author of an influential body of Christian theological texts dating from around 500 C E The Celestial Hierarchy The Ecclesiastical Hierarchy The Divine Names and The Mystical Theology offer a synthesis of biblical interpretation liturgical spirituality and Neoplatonic philosophy Their central motif which has made them the charter of Christian mysticism is the upward progress of the soul toward God through the spiritual interpretation of the Bible and the liturgy Dionysius continually reminds his readers however that all human concepts fall short of the transcendence of God and must therefore be abandoned in negotiations and silence In this book Rorem provides a commentary on all of the Dionysian writings chapter by chapter and examines especially their complex inner coherence The Dionysian influence on medieval theology is introduced in essays on specific topics hierarchy biblical symbolism angels Gothic architecture liturgical allegory the scholastic doctrine of God and the mystical theology of the western Middle Ages Rorem's book makes these texts more accessible to both scholars and students and includes a comprehensive bibliography of secondary sources to James of Viterbo Antoine Côté, Martin Pickavé, 2018-04-10 Ten leading scholars team up to produce the first book length treatment of the philosophical thought of James of Viterbo one of the key thinkers at Paris in the late thirteenth century The book examines all major areas of James's philosophical thought exploring his connections with other important masters of the time and highlighting his originality in the context of late medieval philosophy Contributors are Antoine C t Stephen D Dumont R W Dyson Mark D Gossiaux Mark Henninger Thomas Osborne Jr Martin Pickav Eric L Saak Jean Luc Sol re and New Worlds and the Italian Renaissance, 2012-08-17 This volume aims to assess the longstanding Gianpiero Tavolaro debate over the role played by the Italian Renaissance in the history of European intellectual culture The authors engage in an interpretative conversation with thinkers such as Jacob Burckardt Ernst Cassirer Eugenio Garin Paul Oskar Kristeller whose works have influenced critical discourse on modernity and Renaissance Humanism over the last one hundred and fifty years The studies presented in this collection contribute to this discussion from a variety of perspectives scientific theological political and literary The result is a multifaceted illumination of the intellectual history of the Italian Renaissance English Public Theology Joan Lockwood O'Donovan, 2023-11-16 This study commends the public theology of the English Reformation as a fruitful though neglected resource for a critical analysis of the contradictions of freedom that riddle late modern liberal democracies and a constructive response to them Drawn from the key legal liturgical homiletic and confessional elements of the English Reformation this foundational Anglican tradition provides a theological vantage point for understanding current moral and political impasses in the western legacy of natural rights The extensive development of natural rights in pre modern scholastic theory and practice and its continuity with theoretical development from the 17th century onward make the Reformers criticisms of scholastic moral political and ecclesial thought germane to identifying the problematic features of the prevailing modern tradition and to furnishing a theological alternative to them These features are an individualistic and voluntarist conception of moral agency a regulative and juridical orientation to human relationships and an anthropocentric concentration on human rather than on divine right judgement and freedom The humanity they portray is detached from its created ordering to Christological perfection and bound within a self enclosed ethical and political self understanding This is effectively countered by the English reformers presentation of the salvation of creation in Christ faith working through love the spiritual fellowship of the church and the provisional character of political jurisdiction
