Gilles Deleuze Key Concepts:

Gilles Deleuze Charles J. Stivale, 2005-06-16 One of the most radical philosophers of the twentieth century Gilles Deleuze has become hugely influential in philosophy cultural studies literature art and architecture Gilles Deleuze Key Concepts brings together leading specialists from a variety of different disciplines in an easy to access primer on Deleuze's work Deleuze's concepts such as assemblage the fold difference and repetition cinema and desire are key to understanding his philosophical approach they work to unsettle particular bodies of knowledge to open them up and link them to other concepts within and outside that body of knowledge The short and accessible chapters in this book each focus on a single concept offering a definition and showing what the concept does The contributors also consider how the concepts are engaged intersect and link and how they may deviate from other areas of postmodern thought Gilles Deleuze Charles J. Stivale, 2011 GILLES DELEUZE: KEY CONCEPTS; ED. BY CHARLES J. STIVALE., 2005 Surrealism: Key Concepts Krzysztof Fijalkowski, Michael Richardson, 2016-06-10 Emerging from the disruption of the First World War surrealism confronted the resulting crisis of consciousness in a way that was arguably more profound than any other cultural movement of the time The past few decades have seen an expansion of interest in surrealist writers whose contribution to the history of ideas in the twentieth century is only now being recognised Surrealism Key Concepts is the first book in English to present an overview of surrealism through the central ideas motivating the popular movement An international team of contributors provide an accessible examination of the key concepts emphasising their relevance to current debates in social and cultural theory This book will be an invaluable guide for students studying a range of disciplines including Philosophy Anthropology Sociology and Cultural Studies and anyone who wishes to engage critically with surrealism for the first time Contributors Dawn Ades Joyce Cheng Jonathan P Eburne Krzysztof Fijalkowski Guy Girard Raihan Kadri Michael Lwy Jean Michel Rabat Michael Richardson Donna Roberts Bertrand Schmitt Georges Sebbag Raymond Spiteri and Michael Stone Richards Gilles Deleuze's ABCs Charles J. Stivale, 2008-02-04 Friendship in its nature purpose and effects has been an important concern of philosophy since antiquity It was of particular significance in the life of Gilles Deleuze one of the most original and influential philosophers of the late twentieth century Taking L'Abc de Gilles Deleuze an eight hour video interview that was intended to be aired only after Deleuze's death as a key source Charles J Stivale examines the role of friendship as it appears in Deleuze's work and life Stivale develops a zigzag methodology practiced by Deleuze himself to explore several concepts as they relate to friendship and to discern how friendship shifts slips and creates movement between Deleuze and specific friends The first section of this study discusses the elements of creativity pedagogy and literature that appear implicitly and explicitly in his work The second section focuses on Deleuze's friendships with Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Claire Parnet and Félix Guattari and reveals his conception of friendship as an ultimately impersonal form of intensity that goes beyond personal relationships Stivale's analysis offers an intimate view into the thought of one of the greatest thinkers of our time

Exploring Deleuze's Philosophy of Difference David

Bright, 2020-02-06 The concept of difference occupies a central place in the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze In this work David Bright explores how Deleuze's difference can be put to work in critical qualitative research The book explores research and writing as a creative process of dynamically pursuing problems Following Deleuze's advice not to think of problems in terms of solutions the book offers important methodological insights into the ways the subjects objects and processes of research might be conceived and represented in writing exploring the problem of thinking and writing about difference in complex ways without reducing thought to static representations of identity Bright uses the example of foreign teachers and international schooling in Vietnam to show us how Deleuze's difference can be used in critical qualitative research demonstrating the limits of traditional ways of thinking about difference in learning and teaching Exploring Deleuze's Philosophy of Difference is a book that will interest all those with an interest in the application of Deleuze's philosophy to critical qualitative research Perfect for courses such as Critical Qualitative Research Qualitative Inquiry Post qualitative Inquiry Deleuze Difference Identity Ethnography English Language Teaching International Education Writing as a Method of Inquiry Understanding Theory Concepts Andrew D. Chapman, 2024-02-08

Theory in its broadest sense is a set of principles ideas or concepts that provide a framework for understanding interpreting and analyzing various aspects of the world The realm of theory encompasses a vast array of intellectual disciplines each contributing unique lenses through which we can examine critique and comprehend the complexities of human thought culture society and beyond Theories arise from the human quest to make sense of our surroundings experiences and existence proposing explanations interpretations and understandings that go beyond mere observation At its core theory is an endeavor to systematically develop knowledge It is about constructing and deconstructing ideas challenging assumptions and exploring new perspectives Theories are not just explanations but are tools for questioning a way to probe deeper into the underpinnings of various phenomena In academia theory provides the foundational structures upon which disciplines build their inquiries and insights Structure and Content of the Book Understanding Theory Concepts From Absurdism to Zeitgeist is a comprehensive guide designed to navigate the intricate and multifaceted world of theory This book caters to advanced undergraduates graduate students and intellectually curious individuals seeking a deeper understanding of the diverse and rich intellectual tradition that is theory The book is structured alphabetically encompassing 117 key theoretical concepts spanning various disciplines including philosophy literature sociology psychology cultural studies and more Each entry is a gateway into a specific theoretical idea offering a concise yet profound exploration of its origins development key proponents and critical applications Each of the 117 entries follows a consistent format for ease of understanding and comparison Concept Name and Proponent Originator The entry begins with the name of the concept and the theorists or intellectuals most closely associated with its development Relevant Texts This section lists foundational texts or significant writings that have shaped or contributed to the development of the

Resistance in Literary and Political Discourse Christian Beck,2021-11-11 Mobility Space and Resistance Transformative Spatiality in Literary and Political Discourse draws from various disciplines such as geography sociology political science gender studies and poststructuralist thought to posit the productive capabilities of literature in political action and at the same time show how literary art can resist the imposition and domination of oppressive systems of our spatial lives The various approaches topics and types of literature discussed in this volume display a concern for social issues that can be addressed in and through literature The essays address social injustice oppression discrimination and their spatial representations While offering interpretations of literature this collection seeks to show how literary spaces contribute to understanding changing or challenging physical spaces of our lived world Israeli Cinema Miri Talmon,Yaron

Peleg,2011-07-01 With top billing at many film forums around the world as well as a string of prestigious prizes including consecutive nominations for the Best Foreign Film Oscar Israeli films have become one of the most visible and promising cinemas in the first decade of the twenty first century an intriguing and vibrant site for the representation of Israeli realities Yet two decades have passed since the last wide ranging scholarly overview of Israeli cinema creating a need for a new state of the art analysis of this exciting cinematic oeuvre The first anthology of its kind in English Israeli Cinema Identities in Motion presents a collection of specially commissioned articles in which leading Israeli film scholars examine Israeli cinema as a prism that refracts collective Israeli identities through the medium and art of motion pictures The contributors address several broad themes the nation imagined on film war conflict and trauma gender sexuality and ethnicity religion and Judaism discourses of place in the age of globalism filming the Palestinian Other and new cinematic discourses The authors illuminating readings of Israeli films reveal that Israeli cinema offers rare visual and narrative insights into the complex national social and multicultural Israeli universe transcending the partial and superficial images of this culture in world media Untimely Affects Nadine Boljkovac,2015-04-29 In this first extensive analysis of Chris Marker and Alain Resnais s works Nadine Boljkovac draws on concepts and images from film and Deleuzian philosophy to show the ethical possibilities of post World War II cinema

Music's Immanent Future Sally Macarthur, Judy Lochhead, Jennifer Shaw, 2016-05-12 The conversations generated by the chapters in Music's Immanent Future grapple with some of music's paradoxes that music of the Western art canon is viewed as timeless and universal while other kinds of music are seen as transitory and ephemeral that in order to make sense of music we need descriptive language that to open up the new in music we need to revisit the old that to arrive at a figuration of music itself we need to posit its starting point in noise that in order to justify our creative compositional works as research we need to find critical languages and theoretical frameworks with which to discuss them or that despite being an auditory system we are compelled to resort to the visual metaphor as a way of thinking about musical sounds Drawn to musical sound as a powerful form of non verbal communication the authors include musicologists philosophers music theorists ethnomusicologists and composers The chapters in this volume investigate and ask fundamental questions about how we think converse write about compose listen to and analyse music The work is informed by the philosophy primarily of Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari and secondarily of Michel Foucault Julia Kristeva and Jean Luc Nancy The chapters cover a wide range of topics focused on twentieth and twenty first century musics covering popular musics art music acousmatic music and electro acoustic musics and including music analysis music's ontology the noise music dichotomy intertextuality and music listening ethnography and the current state of music studies The authors discuss their philosophical perspectives and methodologies of practice led research including their own creative work as a form of research Music's Immanent Future brings together empirical cultural philosophical and creative approaches that will be of interest to musicologists composers music analysts and music philosophers

Patient-Centred Medicine in Transition Alan Bleakley, 2014-01-27 This book challenges functional models for more aesthetic and ethical models where communication is grounded in values systems of cultures Here communication is treated as a distributed phenomenon involving networks of persons activities and artifacts and extends beyond doctor patient relationships to working in and across teams around patients The purpose of the book is to stimulate thinking about how patient care and safety may be improved through a focus upon the non technical work of doctors interpersonal communication teamwork and situation awareness in teams The focus is then not on the personality of the doctor but on the dynamics of relationships which form doctors multiple identities

Connections Jean Hillier, Jonathan Metzger, 2017-05-15 The professional practice as well as the academic discipline of planning has been fundamentally re-invented all over the world in recent decades In this astonishing transition the thinking and scholarship of Patsy Healey appears as a constantly recurring influence and inspiration around the globe The purpose of this book is to present discuss and celebrate Healey's seminal contributions to the development of the theory and practice of spatial planning The volume contains a selection of 13 less readily available but nevertheless key texts by Healey which have been selected to represent the trajectory of Patsy's work across the several decades of her research career 12 original chapters by a wide range of invited contributors take the ideas in the reprinted papers as points of departure for their own work tracing out their continuing relevance for contemporary and future directions in planning scholarship In doing so these chapters tease out the themes and interests in Healey s work which are still highly relevant to the planning project The title Connections symbolises relationality possibly the most outstanding element linking Patsy s ideas The book showcases the wide international influence of Patsy s work and celebrates the whole trajectory of work to show how many of her ideas on for instance the role of theory in planning processes of change networking as a mode of governance how ideas spread and ways of thinking planning democratically were ahead of their time and are still of importance

Cross-dressing in Turkish Cinema Burcu Dabak, 2021-05-06 As in western cinema cross dressing is a recurrent theme in Turkish film But what do these films whose characters typically cross dress in order to escape enemies or other threats tell us about the modern history of the Turkish Republic This book examines cross dressing in Turkish films in the context of formative events in modern Turkish political history arguing that this trope coincides with and is illustrative of trauma induced by Turkey's multiple coup d'etats periods of authoritarianism enforced secularism and modernization Burcu Dabak Ozdemir analyses five case study films wherein she reveals that cross dressing characters are able to escape persecutors and surveillance key instruments of oppression during Turkey's coups She shows how cross dressing in the films examined become a destabilising force a form of implicit resistance against state power both political and in terms of binaries of gender and identity and a means to register moments of national trauma The book historicises the concept of cross dressing in modern Turkey by examining what the author argues is a formative trauma worked through in the films examined the westernization policies of the Kemalist regime whose most immediate symbolic presence was worn the enforced adoption of western dress by citizens Of interest to scholars of gender queer film and trauma studies the book will also appeal to students and scholars of contemporary Turkish culture and society

Cold Rush Sari Pietikäinen, 2024-09-23 This book is an original study of Cold Rush an accelerated race for the extraction and protection of Arctic natural resources The Northernmost reach of the planet is caught up in the double developments of two unfinished forces rapidly progressing climate change and global economic investment working simultaneously in tension and synergy Neither process is linear or complete but both are contradictory and open ended This book traces the multiplicity of Cold Rush in the Finnish Arctic a high stakes ecological economic and political hotspot It is a heterogeneous space understood as indigenous land within local indigenous Sámi people politics the last frontier from a colonial perspective and a periphery under the modernist nation state regime It is now transforming into an economic hub under global capitalism intensifying climate change and unforeseen geopolitical changes Based on six years of ethnography the book shows how people struggle strategize and profit from this ongoing complex and multidirectional change The author offers a new theoretical approach called critical assemblage analysis which provides an alternative way of exploring the dynamics between language and society by examining the interaction between material discursive and affective dimensions of Cold Rush The approach builds on previous work at the intersection of critical discourse analysis critical sociolinguistics nexus analysis and ethnography but expands toward works by philosophers Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari This book will be of interest to researchers on language discourse and sociolinguistics interested in engaging with social critique embedded in global capitalism and accelerating climate change as well as researchers in the social and human sciences and natural sciences who are increasingly aware of the fact that the theoretical and analytical move beyond the traditional dichotomies like language society nature human and micro macro is central to understanding today s complex intertwined social political economic and ecological processes

The Handbook of Critical Theoretical Research Methods in Education Cheryl E. Matias, 2021-05-12 The Handbook of Critical Theoretical Research Methods in Education approaches theory as a method for doing research rather than as a background framework Educational research often reduces theory to a framework used only to analyze empirically collected data In this view theories are not considered methods and studies that apply them as such are not given credence This misunderstanding is primarily due to an empiricist stance of educational research one that lacks understanding of how theories operate methodologically and presumes positivism is the only valid form of research This limited perspective has serious consequences on essential academic activities publication tenure and promotion grants and academic awards Expanding what constitutes methods in critical theoretical educational research this edited book details 21 educationally just theories and demonstrates how theories are applied as method to various subfields in education From critical race hermeneutics to Bakhtin s dialogism each chapter explicates the ideological roots of said theory while teaching us how to apply the theory as method This edited book is the first of its kind in educational research To date no other book details educationally just theories and clearly explicates how those theories can be applied as methods With contributions from scholars in the fields of education and qualitative research worldwide the book will appeal to researchers and graduate students

Making History with Manuscripts in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Johannes Junge Ruhland, 2025-06-02 This volume interrogates the role of the manuscript medium in conveying history to medieval and early modern readers The contributors adopt a capacious understanding of history to explore history writing in its materiality from a variety of methodological and disciplinary perspectives The core contentions of this book are that the material features of manuscripts helped shaping historical narratives and defining history conceptually and that therefore the makers of these manuscripts played an instrumental role in history writing alongside authors Ranging from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries and comprising materials from across Western Europe in Latin and the vernaculars the ten chapters of this volume uncover stakes and strategies tied to highly specific contexts such as late thirteenth century Corbie or fifteenth century Zurich yet partaking in a shared practice of history writing with manuscripts Manuscript makers made history through layout rewriting illumination compilation choice of script and annotation and conferred history writing its material dimension This volume therefore situates the writing of history in its material dimension and invites us to consider medieval and early modern historiography in its medium Subjectivity and Social Change in Higher Education Liezl Dick, Marguerite Muller, 2021-08-12 Informed by Deleuze and Guattari's concepts of the assemblage and the wound event this book examines the complexity of educator subjectivity and social change within the higher education context in South Africa The authors use arts based methods to explore educators experiences of personal and professional challenges in a rapidly changing context The method is informed by critical narrative and arts based research traditions that extend into post qualitative autobiographical performative and collaborative methods of inquiry The book plays with the conflation of theory and methodology to think about educator subjectivity as fluid and responsive to changing contexts By understanding educator subjectivity as multiple and emergent rather than centered and fixed the authors open new research avenues to explore themes of transformation decolonisation and social change
